Bruegel, 2001 Pieter Bruegel the Elder 1525-30-1569 was a remarkable draftsman and designer of prints as well as a great painter. His independent drawings and designs for engravings and etchings which were carried out by the leading printmakers of his day have fascinated scholars and the general public alike since they were created. They have recently been the subject of research that has given rise to a reevaluation of the parameters of Bruegel's oeuvre. The new scholarship has been brought to bear in the texts of the present volume which accompanies a major exhibition of 140 of Bruegel's prints and drawings to be shown at the Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen Rotterdam from May to August 2001 and at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from September to December 2001. An international group of experts discusses the new Bruegel who has emerged from recent studies in essays on the artist's life, his contributions as a draftsman and as a printmaker, the survival of his art and his relationship to the humanism of his day. They also illuminate his genius in entries on all the works in the exhibition. Every work is illustrated and rich comparative illustrations are included. Provenances and Albrecht Durer Jane Campbell Hutchison, 2003-08-29 Hutchison's book is a complete guide on Durer and the research on his work, his historical import and his aesthetic legacy. Drawings in Midwestern Collections Burton Lewis Dunbar, Edward J. Olszewski, 1996 Old master drawings kept in storage, their access limited to a few, will now be made widely accessible in this new series which will eventually include all drawings in some 70 midwestern collections. The first volume introduces a corpus of the rarest of European drawings through the year 1500, a time when artists had just begun to value drawings as works of art. It presents 30 entries written by 12 scholars, each a specialist in the art of the period and each with immediate access to the artwork itself. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc. Portland, OR
