From Purdah To Parliament:

From Purdah to Parliament Shaista Akhtar Suhrawardy, 1963 From Purdah to Parliament Shaista Suhrawardy Ikramullah, 1963 An autobiography of a Pakistani ex diplomat and author From Purdah to Parliament. [An Autobiography. With Portraits.] Shāista Akhtar Bānū Suhrawardi (called Begam Ikrām Allāh.), 1963 From Purdah to Parliament Shaista Suhrawardy Ikramullah, 2000 A Simple And Absorbing Narrative Of The Life And Times Of Shaista Suhrawardy Ikramullah The Account Covers The Days Of The British Raj And Its Aftermath Gender, Genre and Religion Morny Joy, Eva K. Neumaier-Dargyay, 2006-01-01 Many feminists today are challenging the outmoded aspects of both the conventions and the study of religion in radical ways Canadian feminists are no exception Gender Genre and Religion is the outcome of a research network of leading women scholars organized to survey the contribution of Canadian women working in the field of religious studies and further to plot the path forward This collection of their essays covers most of the major religious traditions and offers exciting suggestions as to how religious traditions will change as women take on more central roles Feminist theories have been used by all contributors as a springboard to show that the assumptions of unified monolithic religions and their respective canons is a fabrication created by a scholarship based on male privilege Using gender and genre as analytical tools the essays reflect a diversity of approaches and open up new ways of reading sacred texts Superb essays by Pamela Dickey Young Winnie Tamm Morny Joy and Marsha Hewitt among others honour the first generation of feminist theologians and situate the current generation showing how they have learned from and gone beyond their predecessors The sensitive and original essays in Gender Genre and Religion will be of interest to feminist scholars and to anyone teaching women and religion courses Women and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Rebecca Adami, 2018-10-26 Who were the non Western women delegates who took part in the drafting of the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR from 1945 1948 Which member states did these women represent and in what ways did they push for a more inclusive language than the rights of Man in the texts This book provides a gendered historical narrative of human rights from the San Francisco Conference in 1945 to the final vote of the UDHR in the United Nations General Assembly in December 1948 It highlights the contributions by Latin American feminist delegates and the prominent non Western female representatives from new member states of the UN The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Another India Pratinav Anil, 2023-04-14 Another India tells the story of the world s biggest religious minority Weaving together vivid biographical portraits of a wide range of Indian Muslims elite and subaltern secular and clerical activist and apolitical it brings the experience of the country s Muslims under a single focus and by throwing light on the Indian Muslim condition during the first thirty years of independence reflects on the true character of democratic India What we have here is a rather different picture from received accounts of the world s largest democracy

Challenging traditional histories of Nehru's India Pratinav Anil shows that minority rights were neglected right from independence. Despite its best intentions the Congress regime that ruled for three decades was often illiberal, intolerant and undemocratic. Muslims had to contend with discrimination, disadvantage, deindustrialisation, dispossession and disenfranchisement as well as an unresponsive leadership. Anil demonstrates how the Muslim elite encouraged depoliticisation, taking up seemingly noble but largely inconsequential causes with little bearing on the lives of ordinary members of the community. There was no room for mass protests or collective solidarity in this version of Muslim politics. Another India explores this elite betrayal whose consequences are still felt by India's 200 million Muslims today. Calcutta Tanika Sarkar, Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2017-07-14 Politics and culture are organically related in the city of Calcutta. The period 1940s to 1950s was chaotic and turbulent yet this was also a time of significant creativity in literature, art, films and music in the city. This is an unusual feature of any city but is interestingly characteristic of Calcutta. The originality of the work lies in blending poetry with historical writing, retaining the essence of both forms against the backdrop of the tumultuous events of the critical decades as against the entire historical period of a city. This historical method, together with twenty-one papers, gives the reader a sense of the pulse of this complex city emerging creatively and chaotically from its colonial past. Sources of Indian Traditions Rachel Fell McDermott, Leonard A. Gordon, Ainslie T. Embree, Frances W. Pritchett, Dennis Dalton, 2014-04-08 For more than fifty years students and teachers have made the two-volume resource Sources of Indian Traditions their top pick for an accessible yet thorough introduction to Indian and South Asian civilizations. Volume 2 contains an essential selection of primary readings on the social, intellectual and religious history of India from the decline of Mughal rule in the eighteenth century to today. It details the advent of the East India Company, British colonization, the struggle for liberation, the partition of 1947 and the creation of Pakistan, Bangladesh and contemporary India. This third edition now begins earlier than the first and second, featuring a new chapter on eighteenth-century intellectual and religious trends that set the stage for India's modern development. The editors have added material on Gandhi and his reception both nationally and abroad and include different perspectives on and approaches to Partition and its aftermath. They expand their portrait of post-1947 India and Pakistan and add perspectives on Bangladesh. The collection continues to be divided thematically, with a section devoted to the drafting of the Indian constitution, the rise of nationalism, the influence of Western thought, the conflict in Kashmir, nuclear proliferation, minority religions, secularism and the role of the Indian political left. A phenomenal text, Sources of Indian Traditions is more indispensable than ever for courses in philosophy, religion, literature and intellectual and cultural history. Partition Urvashi Butalia, 2015-02-24 The dark legacies of partition have cast a long shadow on the lives of people of India, Pakistan and Bangladesh. The borders that were drawn in 1947 and redrawn in 1971 divided not only nations and histories but also families and friends. The essays in this volume explore new ground in Partition research, looking into areas such as art, literature, migration and notions of foreignness and belonging. It brings focus to hitherto unaddressed areas of partition such as the northeast and Ladakh      Sisters in the Mirror Elora Shehabuddin, 2024-03-05 A must read CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2022 Holds up a mirror to the unifying braided futures underlying so called Western and Muslim feminism that are both undermined by the power of capital the world trade order and cynical geopolitics 2023 Association for Asian Studies Coomaraswamy Book Prize A crystal clear account of the entangled history of Western and Muslim feminisms Western feminists pundits and policymakers tend to portray the Muslim world as the last and most difficult frontier of global feminism Challenging this view Elora Shehabuddin presents a unique and engaging history of feminism as a story of colonial and postcolonial interactions between Western and Muslim societies Muslim women like other women around the world have been engaged in their own struggles for generations as individuals and in groups that include but also extend beyond their religious identity and religious practices The modern and globally enmeshed Muslim world they navigate has often been at the weaker end of disparities of wealth and power of processes of colonization and policies of war economic sanctions and Western feminist outreach Importantly Muslims have long constructed their own ideas about women s and men s lives in the West with implications for how they articulate their feminist dreams for their own societies Stretching from the eighteenth century Enlightenment era to the War on Terror present Sisters in the Mirror shows how changes in women s lives and feminist strategies have consistently reflected wider changes in national and global politics and economics Muslim women like non Muslim women in various colonized societies and non white and poor women in the West have found themselves having to negotiate their demands for rights within other forms of struggle for national independence or against occupation racism and economic inequality Through stories of both well known and relatively unknown figures Shehabuddin recounts instances of conflict alongside those of empathy collaboration and solidarity across this extended period Sisters in the Mirror is organized around stories of encounters between women and men from South Asia Britain and the United States that led them as if they were looking in a mirror to pause and reconsider norms in their own society including cherished ideas about women s roles and rights These intertwined stories confirm that nowhere in either Western or Muslim societies has material change in girls and women s lives come easily or without protracted struggle      Jinnah, Pakistan and Islamic Identity Akbar Ahmed, 2005-08-12 Every generation needs to reinterpret its great men of the past Akbar Ahmed by revealing Jinnah s human face alongside his heroic achievement both makes this statesman accessible to the current age and renders his greatness even clearer than before Four men shaped the end of British rule in India Nehru Gandhi Mountbatten and Jinnah We know a great deal about the first three but Mohammed Ali Jinnah the founder of Pakistan has mostly either been ignored or in the case of Richard Attenborough s hugely successful film about Gandhi portrayed as a cold megalomaniac bent on the bloody partition of India Akbar Ahmed s major study redresses the balance Drawing on history semiotics and cultural anthropology as well as more conventional biographical techniques Akbar S Ahmad presents a rounded picture of the man and shows his relevance as contemporary Islam debates alternative forms of political leadership in a world dominated at least in the Western media by figures like Colonel Gadaffi and Saddam Hussein Revisiting India's Partition Amritjit Singh, Nalini Iyer, Rahul K.

Gairola, 2016-06-15 Revisiting India's Partition New Essays on Memory Culture and Politics brings together scholars from across the globe to provide diverse perspectives on the continuing impact of the 1947 division of India on the eve of independence from the British Empire. The Partition caused a million deaths and displaced well over 10 million people. The trauma of brutal violence and displacement still haunts the survivors as well as their children and grandchildren. Nearly 70 years after this cataclysmic event, Revisiting India's Partition explores the impact of the Long Partition, a concept developed by Vazira Zamindar to underscore the ongoing effects of the 1947 Partition upon all South Asian nations. In our collection we extend and expand Zamindar's notion of the Long Partition to examine the cultural, political, economic, and psychological impact the Partition continues to have on communities throughout the South Asian diaspora. The nineteen interdisciplinary essays in this book provide a multi-vocal, multi-focal transnational commentary on the Partition in relation to motifs, communities, and regions in South Asia that have received scant attention in previous scholarship. In their individual essays, contributors offer new engagements on South Asia in relation to several topics including decolonization and post-colony economic development and nation building, cross-border skirmishes and terrorism, and nationalism. This book is dedicated to covering areas beyond Punjab and Bengal and includes analyses of how Sindh and Kashmir, Hyderabad, and more broadly South India, the Northeast, and Burma call for special attention in coming to terms with memory culture and politics surrounding the Partition.

In the club Benjamin B Cohen, 2015-05-01 In the club presents a comprehensive examination of social clubs across South Asia, arguing for clubs as key contributors to South Asia's colonial associational life and civil society. Using government records, personal memoirs, private club records, and club histories themselves, In the club explores colonial club life with chapters arranged thematically: the legal underpinnings of clubs, their physical locations and compositions, their financial health, the role of servants and staff as employees of clubs, issues of race and class in clubs, women's clubs, and finally clubs in their postcolonial milieus. This book will be critical reading for scholars of South Asia, graduate students, and intellectually engaged club members alike. The Aftermath of Partition in South Asia Gyanesh Kudaisya, Tan Tai Yong, 2004-03-01 This book draws upon new theoretical insights and fresh bodies of data to historically reappraise partition in the light of its long aftermath. It uses a comparative approach by viewing South Asia in its totality rather than looking at it in narrow national terms. As the first book to focus on the aftermath of partition, it fills a distinctive niche in the study of contemporary South Asia. Indira Gandhi and Congress Party Ram Avtar Sharma, 1988 The first comprehensive study on late Mrs Indira Gandhi's political personality. Deals extensively with the different phases of the illustrious personality of Mrs Gandhi, beginning her early shaping in the specific family conditions till the climax that was marred by her ferocity during the internal emergency proclaimed by her. It also examines the different facets of her personality which ushered India into an era of new political culture Review Shri L K Advani released the book Indira Gandhi and Congress party written by Dr Ram Avtar Sharma He mentioned that nowadays there is no such leader in Congress Party who can criticise the wrong policies of Mrs Gandhi Hindustan Times 8 March 1988 Three Centuries of Travel Writing by Muslim Women Siobhan

Lambert-Hurley, Daniel Majchrowicz, Sunil Sharma, 2022-08-02 When thinking of intrepid travelers from past centuries we don't usually put Muslim women at the top of the list And yet the stunning firsthand accounts in this collection completely upend preconceived notions of who was exploring the world Editors Siobhan Lambert Hurley Daniel Majchrowicz and Sunil Sharma recover, translate, annotate and provide historical and cultural context for the 17th to 20th century writings of Muslim women travelers in ten different languages Queens and captives pilgrims and provocateurs these women are diverse Their connection to Islam is wide ranging as well from the devout to those who distanced themselves from religion What unites these adventurers is a concern for other women they encounter their willingness to record their experiences and the constant thoughts they cast homeward even as they traveled a world that was not always prepared to welcome them Perfect for readers interested in gender Islam travel writing and global history Three Centuries of Travel Writing by Muslim Women provides invaluable insight into how these daring women experienced the world in their own voices Glittering Decades

Nayantara Pothen, 2012-01-30 New Delhi was purpose built to trumpet the supremacy of the British Raj and inaugurated in 1931 Instead it came to represent a fading imperial dream in the two decades that followed In the heyday of the British Raj strict social and racial hierarchies governed the social life of the city's ruling elites And the frivolity of New Delhi's high society was kept in check by a faithful adherence to etiquette and protocol in everyday life For example the sixteen button glove at a formal viceregal dinner party was of great importance as a means of maintaining the authority of the Raj But the 1930s and 1940s were a period of transition The political shifts associated with India's journey to self government echoed in the social codes of conduct adopted by the Indian elites of New Delhi and undermining the Raj's pomp became a legitimate means of challenging its authority Closely examining the role of social ritual interaction and behaviour in the shaping of the city and its elite groups Glittering Decades tells the story of New Delhi and its privileged inhabitants between 1931 and 1952

The World of Muslim Women in Colonial Bengal, 1876-1939 Sonia Amin, 2021-10-11 This highly interesting book studies the cultural context of modernisation of middle class Muslim women in late 19th and 20th century Bengal Its frames of reference are the Bengal Awakening the Reform Movements Brahmo Hindi and Muslim and the Women's Question as articulated in material and ideological terms throughout the period Tracing the emergence of the modern Muslim gentlewomen the bhadramahil starting in 1876 when Nawab Faizunnesa Chaudhurani published her first book and ending with the foundation in 1939 of The Lady Brabourne College the book gives an excellent analysis of the rise of a Muslim woman's public sphere and broadens our knowledge of Bengali social history in the colonial period War Stories Philip Dwyer, 2016-11-01 Although war memoirs constitute a rich varied literary form they are often dismissed by historians as unreliable This collection of essays is one of the first to explore the modern war memoir revealing the genre's surprising capacity for breadth and sophistication while remaining sensitive to the challenges it poses for scholars Covering conflicts from the Napoleonic era to today the studies gathered here consider how memoirs have been used to transmit particular views of war even as they have emerged within specific social and political contexts
