From Thirty Acres To Modern Times The Story Of French Canadian Literature:

From Thirty Acres to Modern Times Jeannette Urbas, 1976 Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01

Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country. This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm. Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies, Margaret Laurence, Sinclair Ross, and Alice Munro. The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood, updates the text, and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors.

The Evolution of Literature in the Americas Earl E. Fitz, 2025-03-31

This book offers a systematic and comparative history of the evolution of literature in the Americas from the beginning to the present day. It begins with an introduction that assesses the development of the field and then proceeds to a chapter on the literature of Pre-Columbian and indigenous America. It then moves forward chronologically from the arrival of the Europeans beginning in 1492 to the year 2026. Including indigenous literature, the other American literatures represented in the book are those of Canada (both Francophone and Anglophone), the United States, the Caribbean, Francophone and Anglophone Spanish America, and Brazil. Not every book ever written in the Americas is included; of course, only those that in the author's estimation offer some valid point of comparison with other American literary cultures. These points of comparison include issues of theme, genre, literary periods, literature and other disciplines such as history, art, music, or politics; cases of influence and reception; and translation. The book's emphasis is on viewing American literature from a hemispheric and comparative lens.

The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature Deborah L. Madsen, 2015-10-05

The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature engages the multiple scenes of tension—historical, political, cultural, and aesthetic—that constitutes a problematic legacy in terms of community, identity, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality; language and sovereignty in the study of Native American literature. This important and timely addition to the field provides context for issues that enter into Native American literary texts through allusions, references, and language use. The volume presents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars and analyses regional, cultural, racial, and sexual identities in Native American literature, key historical moments from the earliest period of colonial contact to the present, worldviews in relation to issues such as health, spirituality, animals, and physical environments; traditions of cultural creation that are key to understanding the styles, allusions, and language of Native American Literature; the impact of differing literary forms of Native American literature. This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field. It supports academic study and also assists general readers who require a comprehensive yet manageable introduction to the contexts essential to approaching Native American Literature. It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past, present, and future of this literary culture.

Francophone Literatures Belinda Jack,1996-09-05 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area The Literatures of Spanish America and Brazil Earl E.

Fitz,2023-08-21 In this survey of Central and South American literature Earl E Fitz provides the first book in English to analyze the Portuguese and Spanish language American canons in conjunction uncovering valuable insights about both Fitz works by comparisons and contrasts the political and cultural situation at the end of the fifteenth century in Spain and Portugal the indigenous American cultures encountered by the Spanish and Portuguese and their legacy of influence the documented discoveries of Col n and Caminha the colonial poetry of Mexico s Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and Brazil s Greg rio de Matos culminating in a meticulous evaluation of the poetry of Nicaragua s Rub n Dar o and the prose fiction of Brazil s Machado de Assis Fitz an award winning scholar of comparative literature contends that at the end of the nineteenth century
 Latin America produced two great literary revolutions both unique in the western hemisphere and best understood together

The Art and Genius of Anne Hébert Janis L. Pallister,2001 This book shows through criticism the richness the complexity and the far reaching significance of the writings of Anne Hebert the Quebequain novelsit and poet who first achieved recognition in he 1940s and 50s The writings by such notables as Gaetan Brulotte Neil Bishop Annabelle Rea Lori Saint Martin Roseanna Dufault and many others are variously in English and in French Prefaced by renowned Hebertian scholar Janet Pallister and introduced by Pallister's essay on the life and accomplishment of Anne Hébert the work is accompanied by a large bibliography of the works of Anne Hébert A Study of Selected Works by Mexican-American and French-Canadian Writers with a View to Determining Similarities and Differences in the Experiences of These Two Minority Cultures Fiona Margaret Britee, 1989 A Brief History of Canada Roger E.
