1841-1865 William Harwar Parker, 1883 Recollections and Reflections Wharton Jackson Green, 1906 Recollections of a Naval Officer, 1841-1865 William Harwar Parker, 2025-10-03 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Spymistress William Stevenson, 2011-11-01 A portrait of world War II British spy Vera Atkins describes her recruitment at the age of twenty five by the legendary spymaster William Stephenson code name Intrepid her work within Winston Churchill's covert intelligence agency and her pivotal work for Allied forces res vera, res ficta: Fictionality in Ancient Epistolography Janja Soldo, Claire Rachel Jackson, 2023-09-18 Letters are famously easy to recognise notoriously hard to define Both real and fictitious letters can look identical to the point that there are no formal criteria which can distinguish one from the other This has long been a point of anxiety in scholarship which has considered the value of an ancient letter to be determined by its authenticity necessitating a strict binary opposition of genuine as opposed to fake letters This volume challenges this dichotomy directly Rather than defining epistolary fiction as a literary genre in opposition to genuine letters or reducing it down to fixed rhetorical features it argues that fiction is an inherent and fluid property of letters which ancient writers recognised and exploited This volume contributes to wider scholarship on ancient fiction by demonstrating through the multiplicity of genres contexts and time periods discussed how complex and multifaceted ancient awareness of fictionality was As such this volume shows that letters are uniquely well placed to unsettle disciplinary boundaries of fact and fiction authentic and spurious and that this allows for a deeper understanding of how ancient writers conceptualised and manipulated the fictional potential of letters Memories Algernon Bertram Freeman-Mitford Redesdale, 1915
MEMORIES LORD REDESDALE, G.C.V.O K.C.B, 1916 Memories Algernon Bertram Freeman-Mitford Baron Redesdale, 1916 The Defiant Life of Vera Figner Lynne Ann Hartnett, 2014-06-06 A riveting biography of a Russian noblewoman turned revolutionary terrorist and accomplice in the assassination of a tsar The Soviet and Post Soviet Review Born in 1852 in the last years of serfdom Vera Figner came of age as Imperial Russian society was being rocked by the massive upheaval that culminated in the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 At first a champion of populist causes and women's higher education which she herself pursued as a medical student in Zurich Figner later became a leader of the terrorist party the People's Will and was an accomplice in the assassination of Tsar Alexander II in 1881 Drawing on extensive archival research and careful reading of Figner's copious memoirs Lynne Ann Hartnett reveals how Figner survived the Bolshevik revolution and Stalin's Great Purges and died a lionized revolutionary legend as the Nazis bore down on Moscow in 1942
Recollections and Letters of General Robert E. Lee Robert Edward Lee, 1904 An Ordinary Life? Anna Müller, 2023-03-07 One woman's national political ethnic social and personal identities impart an extraordinary perspective on the histories of Europe Polish Jews Communism activism and survival during the twentieth century Tonia Lechtman was a

Jew a loving mother and wife a Polish patriot a committed Communist and a Holocaust survivor Throughout her life these identities brought her to multiple countries Poland Palestine Spain France Germany Switzerland and Israel during some of the most pivotal and cataclysmic decades of the twentieth century In most of those places she lived on the margins of society while working to promote Communism and trying to create a safe space for her small children Born in d in 1918 Lechtman became fascinated with Communism in her early youth In 1935 to avoid the consequences of her political activism during an increasingly antisemitic and hostile political environment the family moved to Palestine where Tonia met her future husband Sioma In 1937 the couple traveled to Spain to participate in the Spanish Civil War After discovering she was pregnant Lechtman relocated to France while Sioma joined the International Brigades She spent the Second World War in Europe traveling with two small children between France Germany and Switzerland at times only miraculously avoiding arrest and being transported east to Nazi camps After the war she returned to Poland where she planned to re build Communist Poland However soon after her arrival she was imprisoned for six years In 1971 under pressure from her children Lechtman emigrated from Poland to Israel where she died in 1996 In writing Lechtman s biography Anna M ller has consulted a rich collection of primary source material including archival documentation private documents and photographs interviews from different periods of Lechtman s life and personal correspondence Despite this intimacy M ller also acknowledges key historiographical questions arising from the lacunae of lost materials the selective preservation of others and her own interpretive work translating a life into a life story
