From Village To Suburb Order And Change In Greater Beirut:

From Village to Suburb Fu'ād Ishāq Khūrī, 1975 Monograph on urban development in Lebanon with particular reference to the suburban development of a small village in the Beirut urban area includes a bibliography pp 251 to 265 diagrams map references and statistical tables Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida s anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists The Breakdown of the State in Lebanon, 1967-1976 Farid El Khazen, 2020-12-10 Why did the Lebanese state the most open and democratic political system in the Middle East break down between 1967 and 1976 In this major contribution to the debate Fazel el Khazen rejects the standard explanations of the Lebanese Civil War and argues instead that the causes were due to the official state ideology which recognized diversity dissent and a highly pluralistic population and then specific external factors pressures from the Arab Israeli Conflict inter Arab rivalries and the Palestine Liberation Organization s close connection to Lebanese politics Using an historical analysis el Khazen sheds light on the political situation of the country in the lead up to the conflict and the major role Lebanon s neighbours had in the events The detailed and comprehensive account uses interviews with the key protagonists in the civil war and analysis of unpublished sources to reveal how and why the breakdown took place

The Mexican Mahjar Camila Pastor, 2017-12-06 This prize winning study of Levantine migration to Mexico brings a new and revelatory light to the subject Christina Civantos author of Between Argentines and Arabs In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries migration from the Middle East brought hundreds of thousands of people to the Americas After a pause during World War I this intense mobility resumed in the 1920s and continued through the 1940s under the French Mandate A significant number of these migrants settled in Mexico building transnational lives The Mexican Mahjar provides the first global history of Middle Eastern migrations to Mexico Making unprecedented use of French colonial archives and historical ethnography Camila Pastor examines how French control over Syria and Lebanon affected the migrants This study explores issues of class race and gender through the decades of increased immigration to Mexico looking at narratives created by the migrants themselves Pastor sheds new light on the creation of transnational networks at the intersection of Arab French and Mexican colonial modernisms Revealing how migrants experienced mobility as conquest diaspora exile or pilgrimage The Mexican Mahjar tracks global history on an intimate scale Winner of the 2018 Khayrallah Prize in Migration Studies

Lebanon: A House Divided Sandra Mackey, 2006-07-17 A beautifully written often profound account Chicago Sun Times With a new introduction by the author a seminal study of Lebanon s past present and future Covering Lebanon s history through the Civil War of 1975-89 Sandra Mackey lays the groundwork needed to comprehend this often ill understood country offering insight into its role as the gateway between West and East and bringing a clarity of focus to the schisms that serve to divide and define Lebanon

An Enchanted Modern Lara Deeb, 2011-06-27 Based on two years of ethnographic research in the southern suburbs of Beirut An Enchanted Modern demonstrates that Islam and modernity are not merely compatible but actually go hand in hand This eloquent ethnographic portrayal of an Islamic community articulates how an alternative modernity and specifically an enchanted modernity may be constructed by Shi I Muslims who consider themselves simultaneously deeply modern cosmopolitan and pious In this depiction of a Shi I Muslim community in Beirut Deeb examines the ways that individual and collective expressions and understandings of piety have been debated contested and reformulated Women take center stage in this process a result of their visibility both within the community and in relation to Western ideas that link the status of women to modernity By emphasizing the ways notions of modernity and piety are lived debated and shaped by everyday Islamists this book underscores the inseparability of piety and politics in the lives of pious Muslims

Visualizing Secularism and Religion Maha Yahya, 2012-05-22 Over the past two decades secular politics across the globe have witnessed an increasing turn to religion based political movements such as the rise of political Islam and Hindu nationalism which have been fueling new and alternative notions of nationhood and national ideologies The rise of such movements has initiated widespread debates over the meaning efficacy and normative worth of secularism Visualizing Secularism and Religion examines the constitutive role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia arguing that in order to establish secularism as the dominant national ideology of countries such as Turkey Lebanon and India the discourses practices and institutions of secular nation building include rather than exclude religion as a presence within the public sphere The contributors examine three fields urban space and architecture media and public rituals such as parades processions and commemorative festivals with a view to exploring how the relation between secularism religion and nationalism is displayed and performed This approach demands a reconceptualization of secularism as an array of contextually specific practices ideologies subjectivities and performances rather than as simply an abstract legal bundle of rights and policies A House of Many Mansions Kamal Salibi,1990-10-12

Kamal Salibi is the foremost living historian of Lebanon and his new book is even more important than his earlier one because it throws light on the present and future of the country as well as its past Albert Hourani author of A History of the Arab Peoples Among Lebanese historians only Kamal Salibi has the credibility to write such a book Its timely appearance signals a new era in Lebanese history It will undoubtedly become a classic Nadim Shehadi Director the Centre for Lebanese Studies Oxford In the Shadow of Sectarianism Max Weiss,2010-10-15 Contrary to the conventional wisdom that sectarianism is intrinsically linked to violence bloodshed or social disharmony Max Weiss uncovers the complex roots of Shi i sectarianism in twentieth century Lebanon The template for conflicted relations between the Lebanese state and Shi i society arose under French Mandate rule through a process of gradual transformation long before the political mobilization of the Shi i community under the charismatic Imam Musa al Sadr and his Movement of the Deprived and decades before the radicalization linked to Hizballah Throughout the period the Shi i community was buffeted by crosscutting political religious and ideological currents transnational affiliations versus local concerns the competing pull of Arab nationalism and Lebanese nationalism loyalty to Jabal Amil the cultural heartland of Shi i Lebanon and the modernization of religious and juridical traditions Uncoupling the beginnings of modern Shi i collective identity from the rise of political Shi ism Weiss transforms our understanding of the nature of sectarianism and shows why in Lebanon it has been both so productive and so destructive at the same time Tribes and State Formation in the Middle East Philip Shukry Khoury,Joseph Kostiner,1990 Offering a fuller understanding of the complexities and particular patterns of state formation in regions where tribes have exercised a significant influence this volume focuses on the continuing existence of tribal structures and systems in contemporary times within contemporary nation states The contributors offer hypotheses as to why these groups have managed to survive and what impact they have had on modern states backcover Urban Development in the Muslim World Hooshang Amirahmadi,2017-09-08 First Published in 2017 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an Informa company

Routledge Library Editions: Iran Mini-Set D: Politics & Sociology 13 vol set Various,2021-11-17 Mini set D Politics and Sociology re issues 13 volumes originally published between 1977 and 1991 It discusses the revolution in Iran and what that has meant for the wider region of the Persian Gulf in terms of stability and relations with other countries as well as issues of poverty in Iran and the position of minorities For institutional purchases for e book sets please contact online sales tandf.co.uk customers in the UK Europe and Rest of World Tribe and State in Iran and Afghanistan (RLE Iran D)

Richard Tapper, 2012-04-27 In 1978 and 1979 revolutions in Afghanistan and Iran marked a shift in the balance of power in South West Asia and the world Then as now the world is once more aware that tribalism is no anachronism in a struggle for political and cultural self determination This books provides historical and anthropological perspectives necessary to the eventual understanding of the events surrounding the revolutions The Making Of Modern Lebanon Helena

Cobban, 2019-09-10 This book provides a vivid and readable account of Lebanon s development since its first emergence in 1585 unravelling the intricacies of the sectarian religious groups and the special kinds of communities which have sunk 900 year old roots in the remote fastnesses of the Mount Lebanon interior Arabic in the City Catherine Miller, Enam

Al-Wer, Dominique Caubet, Janet C.E. Watson, 2007-12-14 This book is an edited collection that examines how urbanization is causing language change in major Arab cities Without Forgetting the Imam Linda S. Walbridge, 1997 Without Forgetting the Imam is an ethnographic study of the religious life of the Lebanese Shi ites of Dearborn Michigan the largest Muslim community outside of the Middle East Based on four years of fieldwork this book explores how the Lebanese who have emigrated most in the past three decades to the United States have adapted to their new surroundings Anthropologist Linda Walbridge delves into the ways in which politics and religion have converged as the Lebanese Shi i community has remade its identity and accommodated itself to a new environment She captures a broad picture of religious life within the realm of community living and within the mosques which have proliferated in Dearborn Walbridge explains how Shi ites affected in one way or another by Islamic revivalism have brought different notions of how their religion should be expressed and carried out in America These differences are reflected in mosque rituals social functions sermons and educational activities She also explores how contemporary Middle Eastern politics and the religious leadership in Iran and Iraq influence the functioning of the mosques The Modern Middle East Ilan Pappé, 2014-03-26 This hugely successful ground breaking book is the first introductory textbook on the Modern Middle East to foreground the urban rural cultural and gender histories of the region over its political and economic history Distancing himself from more traditional modernising approaches Ilan Papp is concerned with the ideological question of whom we investigate in the past rather than how we investigate the past Papp begins his narrative at the end of the First World War with the Ottoman heritage and concludes at the present day with the political discourse of Islam Providing full geographical coverage of the region The Modern Middle East opens with a carefully argued introduction which outlines the methodology used in the textbook provides a thematic and comparative approach to the region helping students to see the peoples of the Middle East and the developments that affect their lives as part of a larger world includes insights gained from new historiographical trends and a critical approach to conventional state and nation centred historiographies includes case studies debates maps photos an up to date bibliography and a glossarial index This third edition has been brought right up to date with recent events and includes the developments through the Arab Spring more economic history much more focus on gender history and discussion of religion in the region from a broad perspective Accessible and original The Modern Middle East continues to energise discussion and stimulate debate on the region s history and provides new insights and perspectives on its story Free Markets and Food Riots John K. Walton,David Seddon,2011-08-10 This book describes and explains the extraordinary wave of popular protest that swept across the so called Third World and the countries of the former socialist bloc during the period from the late 1970s to the early 1990s in response to the mounting debt crisis and the austerity measures widely adopted as part of economic reform and adjustment Explores this general proposition in a cross national study of the austerity protests or the IMF Riots that have affected so many debtor nations since the mid 1970s Argues that modern austerity protests like the classical bread riots in eighteenth century Europe are political acts aimed at injustice but acts that are an integral part of the process of international economic and political restructuring Evaluates how modern food riots are most important for what they reveal about global economic transformation and its social and political consequences Provides a general framework drawing on comparative and historical material and then trace the cycle of uneven development debt neo liberal reform and protest in Latin America Africa Asia the Middle East and Eastern Europe Focusses on the role of women in structural adjustment and protest politics and the features of seemingly anomalous cases which qualify the general argument Descent Through Males Gideon M. Kressel,1992 Winning Lebanon Dylan Baun,2020-10-22 A cultural and political history of youth culture and youth centric organizations in Lebanon from 1920 1958
