Matisse and Decoration John Klein,2018-01-01 A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century Between 1935 and his death at midcentury Henri Matisse 1869 1954 undertook many decorative projects and commissions These include mural paintings stained glass ceramic tiles lead crystal pieces carpets tapestries fashion fabrics and accessories work that has received no significant treatment until now By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material including from the artist s own correspondence John Klein an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse s ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut out whose function and significance Klein reevaluates Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France s renewed sense of cultural preeminence For the first time the idea of the decorative in Matisse s work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account amounting to an understanding of this modern master s work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive
