Seeing Red Mark Cronlund Anderson, Carmen L. Robertson, 2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada s newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert s Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Bended Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism Hollywood Heyday R. G. Armstrong, 2017-02-02 In 1930s Hollywood an orphaned Texas beauty refuses to trade her personal integrity for the promise of fame and fortune When a shadowy business scheme comes to light Edna King decides that self respect is much more important than opportunism Despite her many setbacks the resilient woman continues to do what she thinks is right and finally discovers security and happiness in the burgeoning Los Angeles basin of the thirties and forties The Fixers E.J. Fleming, 2015-01-28 Eddie Mannix and Howard Strickling are virtually unknown outside of Hollywood and little remembered even there but as General Manager and Head of Publicity for Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studios they lorded over all the stars in Hollywood s golden age from the 1920s through the 1940s including legends like Garbo Dietrich Gable and Garland When MGM stars found themselves in trouble it was Eddie and Howard who took care of them solved their problems hid their crimes and kept their secrets They were the Fixers At a time when image meant everything and the stars were worth millions to the studios that owned them Mannix and Strickling were the most important men at MGM Through a complex web of contacts in every arena from reporters and doctors to corrupt police and district attorneys they covered up some of the most notorious crimes and scandals in Hollywood history keeping stars out of jail and more importantly their names out of the papers They handled problems as diverse as the murder of Paul Bern husband of MGM s biggest star Jean Harlow the studio directed drug addictions of Judy Garland the murder of Ted Healy creator of The Three Stooges at the hands of Wallace Beery and arranging for an unmarried Loretta Young to adopt her own child a child fathered by a married Clark Gable Through exhaustive research and interviews with contemporaries this is the never before told story of Eddie Mannix and Howard Strickling The dual biography describes how a mob related New Jersey laborer and the quiet son of a grocer became the most powerful men at the biggest studio in the world
