Front Door Darwin 1869 1969:

The front door Douglas Lockwood, 1974 The Protectors Stephen Gray, 2011-05-16 Powerful and provocative this is a beautifully written and very personal search to understand the men who were the protectors of Aboriginal people in Australia's north their moral ambiguities their good intentions and the devastating consequences of their decisions Aboriginal Darwin Toni Bauman, Samantha Wells, Julie Therese Wells, 2006 To most visitors and locals Darwin is a vibrant tropical city in the Top End Although not always obvious to visitors Darwin is also a living Aboriginal cultural landscape Aboriginal Darwin peels back layers to show the rich heritage and complex cultures of Aboriginal people both before and since colonisation It includes contemporary and historical sites that range from the harbor to the beaches monsoon forests gardens parks camping places exhibitions cultural displays and buildings in the CBD supplemented by information about sites not accessible to visitors There are as many ways of seeing Aboriginal Darwin as there are Aboriginal people This guide provides insights into the enormous economic cultural social and historical contributions of Aboriginal people to the city Beautifully illustrated Aboriginal Darwin's easy to use layout allows users to explore at their own pace Colonial Cousins Joyce P. Westrip, Peggy Holroyde, 2010 An exploration of the historic relationship between Australia and India Evolution in the Antipodes Tom Frame, 2010-09 Charles Darwin's profound influence on Australian thinking is explored from a variety of positions in this carefully researched analysis Providing useful contextual material on Darwin's life and times including his 1836 visit to Australia in the HMS Beagle the narrative examines historic disputes and contemporary debates about Darwin's motives

The Pearl Frontier Julia T. Martínez, Adrian Vickers, Clem Guthro, 2015-05-31 Remarkable for its meticulous archival research and moving life stories The Pearl Frontier offers a new way of imagining Australian historical connections with Indonesia This compelling view from below of maritime mobility demonstrates how in the colonial quest for the valuable pearl shell Australians came to rely on the skill and labor of Indonesian islanders drawing them into their northern pearling trade empire From the 1860s onward the pearl shell industry developed alongside British colonial conquests across Australia's northern coast and prompted the Dutch to consolidate their hold over the Netherlands East Indies Inspired by tales of pirates and priceless pearls the pearl frontier witnessed the maritime equivalent of a gold rush with traders entrepreneurs and willing workers coming from across the globe But like so many other frontier zones it soon became notorious for its reliance on slave-like conditions for Indigenous and Indonesian workers These allegations prompted the imposition of a strict regime of indentured labor migration that was to last for almost a century before giving way to international criticism in the era of decolonization The Pearl Frontier invites the reader to step outside the narrow confines of national boundaries to see seafaring peoples as a continuous population moving and in communication in spite of the obstacles of politics warfare and language Instead of the mythologies of racial purity propagated by settler colonies and European empires this book dissects the social and economic life of the port cities around the Australian Indonesian maritime zone and lays open the complex cosmopolitan relationships which shaped their histories and their present situations Julia Martinez and Adrian Vickers bring together their expertise on Australian and Indonesian history to challenge the isolationist view of Australia's past This book explores how Asian migration and the struggle against the restrictive White Australia policy left a rich legacy of mixed Asian Indigenous heritage that lives on along Australia's northern coastline This book is an important contribution to studies of the coastal or Pasisir culture of Southeast Asia that situates the local cultures in a regional context and demonstrates how Indonesian maritime peoples became part of global migration flows as indentured laborers It offers a hitherto untold story of Indonesian diaspora in Australia and reveals a degree of Indian Pacific interconnectedness that forces us to rethink the construction of regional boundaries and national borders

Governing natives Ben Silverstein, 2018-10-16 In the 1930s a series of crises transformed relationships between settlers and Aboriginal people in Australia's Northern Territory By the late 1930s Australian settlers were coming to understand the Northern Territory as a colonial formation requiring a new form of government Responding to crises of social reproduction public power and legitimacy they rethought the scope of settler colonial government by drawing on both the art of indirect rule and on a representational economy of Indigenous elimination to develop a new political dispensation that sought to incorporate and consume Indigenous production and sovereignties This book locates Aboriginal history within imperial history situating the settler colonial politics of Indigeneity in a broader governmental context

The Contest for Aboriginal Souls Regina Ganter, 2018-05-29 This book covers the missionary activity in Australia conducted by non English speaking missionaries from Catholic and Protestant mission societies from its beginnings to the end of the mission era It looks through the eyes of the missionaries and their helpers as well as incorporating Indigenous perspectives and offering a balanced assessment of missionary endeavour in Australia attuned to the controversies that surround mission history It means neither to condemn nor praise but rather to understand the various responses of Indigenous communities the intentions of missionaries the agendas of the mission societies and the many tensions besetting the mission endeavour It explores a common commitment to the supernatural and the role of intermediaries like local diplomats and evangelists from the Pacific Islands and Philippines and emphasises the strong role played by non English speakers in the transcultural Australian mission effort This book is a companion to the website German Missionaries in Australia A web directory of intercultural encounters The web directory provides detailed accounts of Australian missions staffed with German speakers The book reads laterally across the different missions and produces a completely different type of knowledge about missions The book and its accompanying website are based on a decade of research ranging across mission archives with foreign language sources that have not previously been accessed for a historiography of Australian missions A remarkable intellectual achievement compelling reading Dr Niel Gunson The range of knowledge on display here is very impressive indeed Professor Peter Monteath

Australia Paddy Cahill is revealed through his lively collection of letters to Sir Baldwin Spencer and others A one time buffalo hunter Cahill spent years farming on his Oenpelli property where he experimented with dairy cattle growing fruit and vegetables while paying the Aboriginal workers who helped run the property A Better Place to Live Diana Giese,2009 This fascinating title looks at the emergence of Darwin post WWII from war ravaged outpost to Australia s fastest growing city in the 1960s Diana Giese draws on the experience of her parents to paint this essential piece of Australian history in vivid detail capturing the voices and the personalities of our Top End pioneers Conference Proceedings ,2000 International Dictionary of Historic Places: Asia and Oceania Trudy Ring,Robert M. Salkin,Sharon La Boda,1994 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Farthest Coast Campbell Macknight, Northern Australia was once one the most remote areas of the world To all its early visitors Macassan fishermen white explorers soldiers government officials settlers and missionaries it was their farthest coast For all it was an alien and difficult place to reach Campbell Macknight outlines the history of the exploration and settlement of the coast from the Gulf of Carpentaria west to the Kimberleys in his introduction He suggest it is a geographical unit very different from the rest of Australia His selections from the writings of early visitors are exciting and interesting for their own sakes and an invaluable guide to a region of growing economic and strategic importance Masters and servants Claire Lowrie,2016-05-01 Illustrates the centrality of domestic politics to colonial rule and the ways in which mastery over servants was a key expression of colonial power In Search of the Never-Never Ann McGrath,2019-04-09 Mickey Dewar made a profound contribution to the history of the Northern Territory which she performed across many genres She produced high quality memorable and multi sensory histories including the Cyclone Tracy exhibition at the Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory and the reinterpretation of Fannie Bay Gaol Informed by a great love of books her passion for history was infectious As well as offering three original chapters that appraise her work this edited volume republishes her first book In Search of the Never Never In Dewar s comprehensive and incisive appraisal of the literature of the Northern Territory she provides brilliant often amusing insights into the ever changing representations of a region that has featured so large in the Australian popular imagination Asia and Oceania Trudy Ring,Noelle Watson,Paul Schellinger,2012-11-12 From the Taj Mahal to the Parthenon from Gettysburg to Heidelberg from Beacon Hill to Tower Hill from the Great Wall to Hadrian s Wall from Jerusalem to Kyoto the International Dictionary of Historic Places presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site office details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and the condition of the site today An annotated Further Reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Environment, Race, and Nationhood in Australia Russell McGregor,2016-06-15 This new study offers a timely and compelling account of why past generations of Australians have seen the north of the country as an empty land and how those perceptions of Australia's tropical regions impact current policy and shape the self image of the nation. It considers the origins of these concerns from fears of invasion and moral qualms about leaving resources lying idle from apprehensions about white nationhood coming under international censure and misgivings about the natural attributes of the north and elucidates Australians changing appreciations of the natural environments of the north their shifting attitudes toward race and their unsettled conceptions of Asia.
