

Home Poem Examples from "Say Where You Came"

I was raised so damn Dominican
Spanish my first language.

Bechta a reminder of the power of my body,
plátano & salami for years before I ever tasted

peanut butter & jelly sandwiches.
If you asked me what I was,

& you meant in terms of culture,
I'd say Dominican

No hesitation,
no question about it.

Can you be from a place
You have never been?

You can find the island stamped all over me,
But what would the island find if I was there?

Can you claim a home that does not know you,
Much less claim you as its own?
