A Portrait of Brazil in the Twentieth Century MARK J. CURRAN, 2013-09-27 A Portrait of Brazil in the Twentieth Century The Universe of the Literatura de Cordel is Currans most recent project The book in effect is the English version of a major work published in Brazil in Portuguese in 2011 Retrato do Brasil em Cordel Curran returns to Portrait for several reasons primary is his strong feeling that the amazingly broad view of Brazil in the twentieth century seen in the thousands of booklets in verse from the Cordel represents a major aspect of Brazilian culture in that century Second because there are many important bodies of folk popular verse in the Western tradition all distant relatives of the Greek and Roman epic traditions and because Brazils folk popular poetry is one among them And because a very large reading public interested in such things does not know Portuguese this volume in English strives to make the tradition available to such readers Finally the book in two volumes represents the cumulative efforts of research and writing of Professor Curran in a career of forty three years of scholarly research and teaching It reveals a unique portrait of Brazil and its people informative instructive and mainly entertaining

The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani, 2017-02-27 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry is the first collection of essays to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual gender and comparative approaches The essays encompass a broad range of English speakers from the Caribbean Africa South Asia and the Pacific Islands the former settler colonies such as Canada Australia and New Zealand especially non Europeans Ireland Britain s oldest colony and postcolonial Britain itself particularly black and Asian immigrants and their descendants The comparative essays analyze poetry from across the postcolonial anglophone world in relation to postcolonialism and modernism fixed and free forms experimentation oral performance and creole languages protest poetry the poetic mapping of urban and rural spaces poetic embodiments of sexuality and gender poetry and publishing history and poetry's response to and reimagining of globalization Strengthening the place of poetry in postcolonial studies this Companion also contributes to the globalization of poetry studies Writings on American History, 1904 The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S.

Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Littell's Living Age, 1899 The Living Age, 1899 A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance
