From Reverence to Rape Molly Haskell, 2016-10-05 The groundbreaking study of female representation in film now with a new introduction by the author New York Times Book Review A landmark of feminist cinema criticism Molly Haskell's From Reverence to Rape remains as insightful searing and relevant as it was when it first appeared in 1974 Ranging across time and genres from the golden age of Hollywood to films of the late twentieth century Haskell analyzes images of women in movies the relationship between these images and the status of women in society the stars who fit these images or defied them and the attitudes of their directors This new edition features both a new foreword by New York Times film critic Manohla Dargis and a new introduction from the author that discusses the book's reception and the evolution of her views

From reverence to rape; the treatment of women in the movies M. Haskell, 1974      Star Texts Jeremy G. Butler, 1991 A collection of previously published works on performance and stardom examining the relationship between genre and performance the position of the star within ideology the construction of a semiotics of performance and stardom the function of the actor within experimental or independent cinema and the distinction between performance and everyday behavior Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman's film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman's film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion's Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013      "A Zoo of Lusts...A Harem of Fondled Hatreds" Deveryle James, 2011-05-25 A Zoo of Lusts A Harem of Fondled Hatred An Historical Interrogation of Sexual Violence against Women in Film explores the pernicious nature of rape in films from the silent era to the 21st century Film is an excellent medium through which to hold this discussion because film like the body as Judith Butler et al suggest is fluid and indeterminate and it is often contemplated as a site for negotiation and resistance This book addresses three major questions 1 why does rape persist as a recurring theme in film 2 how is this subject manifested in film and 3 what does this manifestation say about the act of rape itself its victims its perpetrators and our culture Rape is a sexual manifestation of aggression with the purpose of overpowering humiliating and hurting its victims An examination of media accounts has revealed that before the evolution of feminist film theory and the dismissal of the Production Code the rape victim in films usually fits into one neat set of criteria e g young adult white single middle class heterosexual When the victim s physical makeup deviated from the traditional set of criteria e g a child or a mature person of color married poor homosexual the rape was portrayed more violently The research for this book dwells on the portrayal of the latter type of victims because their sexual violations evoke an absorbing commentary on society s reaction toward those who do not easily fit within the status quo What is it about the makeup of these victims that makes their violations more horrific A Bookshelf of Our Own ,2006 In an analysis of the fifty most important books by and about women from the Middle Ages to the present day each book is placed within its historical context tracing the life and influence of such authors as Toni Morrison Edith Wharton Grace Paley Zora Neale Hurston and Mary Wollstonecraft

The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff,1993 Illness is a universal experience There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch We are taught to assume health illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well oiled machinery of the body But illness has its own geography its own laws and commandments At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself Duff a counselor in private practice in Taos New Mexico wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us For those who are sick this book offers solace and recognition For those who care for them either physically or emotionally it offers inspiration and compassion Finally this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle tests our limits and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives

Straw Dogs Stevie Simkin,2011-09-12 Sam Peckinpah s Straw Dogs ignited fierce debate among censors critics and audiences on both sides of the Atlantic on its release in 1971 When Amy Susan George returns to her home village with her American peacenik husband David Dustin Hoffman the residents of this tight knit Cornish community slowly turn on them The sexual tension and latent violence finally erupt in an explosion of violence that includes a rape scene that has remained controversial to this day The film was heavily cut for theatrical release in the US and the pressinspired furore in the UK led to several local councils cutting or banning it outright Later caught in the wake of the video nasties panic of the 1980s Straw Dogs was refused a home video certificate in the UK for nearly twenty years Stevie Simkin s study sheds light on the film s treatment by the British Board of Film Classification BBFC and tracks its subsequent tortuous journey towards home video release buffeted by various shifts in the BBFC s policy on representations of sexual violence But equally importantly Simkin provides a highly original accountof themaking of the film drawing on extensive research in Peckinpah s archive including analysis of draft scripts notes memos and contemporary press items as well as insights from a number of Peckinpah s associates and key figures at the BBFC A swift compelling read Thorough and scholarly without the faintest whiff of academic stuffiness Stevie Simkin s study of Straw Dogs summons up the turmoil of the 1960s and 70s and illuminates the highly charged subject of sexual violence on film Stephen Farber Film Critic The Hollywood Reporter Stevie Simkin is Reader in Drama and Film at the University of Winchester UK He is the author of among other works Revenge Tragedy A New Casebook 2001 Early Modern Tragedy and the Cinema of Violence 2005 and also in the Controversies series a volume on Basic Instinct forthcoming 2013 Cinema of Flames Dina Iordanova, 2019-07-25 First study of cinema media and the Balkan wars Wide ranging view of politics and culture of the region The break up of Yugoslavia triggered a truly international film making project Underground Ulysses Gaze Before the Rain Pretty Village Pretty Flame and Welcome to Sarajevo were amongst a host of films created as the conflicts in the region unravelled These conflicts restored the Balkans as a centrepiece of Western imagery and the media especially cinema assumed a leading but ambiguous role in defining it for global consumption through a narrow range of selectively defined images Simultaneously a lot of the high quality cinematic and television work made in the region much of it discussed in this book remains relatively unknown Cinema of Flames attempts to go deeper than the imagery and address some of the general concerns of the cross cultural representation and self representation of the Balkans narrative strategies within the context of Balkan exclusion from the European cultural sphere the cosmopolitan image of Sarejevo diaspora and the representations of villains victims women and ethnic minorities all considered in the general context of Balkan cinema encyclopaedic in scope and brilliance making excellent use of the scholarly literature whilst interweaving analysis of films and other mass media The book will be a superb addition to the literatures on Bosnia and Yugoslavia It will also serve as a standard reference on Balkans film Robert Hayden University of Pittsburgh Domestic Abuse and Sexual Assault in Popular Culture Laura L. Finley, 2016-04-18 Using historical and current examples from film television literature advertisements and music this book reveals the ways that rape and abuse are typically presented and misrepresented and evaluates the impact of these depictions on consumers Incidences of domestic abuse and sexual assault aren't only commonplace nationwide and the source of a shockingly large number of serious injuries and deaths they're also problems that are often subject to myths and misleading depictions in popular culture and media The author of this important book seeks to shed light on the situation by examining the specific issues related to domestic violence and sexual assault from the scope and extent of the problem to victim and offender characteristics and from common misconceptions to societal cultural and judicial responses and prevention efforts Each chapter discusses movies music literature and other forms of popular culture that address issues of domestic abuse and sexual assault identifying both accurate depictions and problematic examples The final section of the book addresses how our culture responds to and attempts to prevent domestic abuse and sexual assault covering depictions of police response to these kinds of crimes in popular culture how the justice system handles these cases and individual and community efforts to curb domestic abuse and sexual assault A compendium of films documentaries popular books and song lyrics featuring domestic abuse and sexual assault enables readers to easily investigate the subject further Aftershocks

Ritzenhoff, Dijana Metlić, Jeremi Szaniawski, 2022-10-21 This volume features a set of thought provoking and long overdue approaches to situating Stanley Kubrick's films in contemporary debates around gender race and age with a focus on women's representations Offering new historical and critical perspectives on Kubrick's cinema the book asks how his work should be viewed bearing in mind issues of gender equality sexual harassment and abuse The authors tackle issues such as Kubrick's at times questionable relationships with his actresses and former wives the dynamics of power misogyny and miscegenation in his films and auteur apologism among others The selections delineate these complex contours of Kubrick's work by drawing on archival sources engaging in close readings of specific films and exploring Kubrick through unorthodox venture points With an interdisciplinary scope and social justice centered focus this book offers new perspectives on a well established area of study It will appeal to scholars and upper level students of film studies media studies gender studies and visual culture as well as to fans of the director interested in revisiting his work from a new perspective      Pink-Slipped Jane M Gaines, 2018-02-23 Women held more positions of power in the silent film era than at any other time in American motion picture history Marion Leonard broke from acting to cofound a feature film company Gene Gauntier the face of Kalem Films also wrote the first script of Ben Hur Helen Holmes choreographed her own breathtaking on camera stunt work Yet they and the other pioneering filmmaking women vanished from memory Using individual careers as a point of departure Jane M Gaines charts how women first fell out of the limelight and then out of the film history itself A more perplexing event cemented their obscurity the failure of 1970s feminist historiography to rediscover them Gaines examines how it happened against a backdrop of feminist theory and her own meditation on the limits that historiography imposes on scholars Pondering how silent era women have become absent in the abstract while present in reality Gaines sees a need for a theory of these artists pasts that relates their aspirations to those of contemporary women A bold journey through history and memory Pink Slipped pursues the still elusive fate of the influential women in the early years of film      Genre, Authorship and Contemporary Women Filmmakers Katarzyna Paszkiewicz, 2018-06-06 Examining the significance of women's work in popular film genres this text sheds light on women's contribution to genre cinema through an exploration of filmmakers like Kathryn Bigelow Diablo Cody Sofia Coppola and Kelly Reichardt      The Tongue Snatchers Claudine Herrmann, 1991-01-01 Claudine Herrmann became famous in France with the publication of Les Voleuses de langue in 1976 Her much quoted book is now recognized as a modern classic of feminist literary criticism Nancy Kline's welcome English translation captures the clarity and passion of observations that go beyond books to boudoirs and boardrooms Herrmann charges that language is the fundamental means by which women are oppressed Their education forces them to parrot masculine discourse often gets them dismissed as chatterboxes and silences their real lives Women who desire to express themselves creatively are obliged to steal language or to invent one of their own Based on readings of major texts in literature philosophy and the social sciences The Tongue Snatchers illuminates how men and women differ in their experiences of words work space time love and sexuality Hollywood and Catholic Women Kathryn Schleich,2012-03 In this second edition of her exploration of Catholic women in film and television author Kathryn Schleich presents an in depth feminist point of view while addressing important questions about the role of women in both the Church and Hollywood Throughout Schleich s extensive research she noticed that themes of fear mistrust and even hatred of women were prevalent While examining such deeply ingrained attitudes it soon became evident to Schleich that Catholic women still have a long way to go in Hollywood As she carefully explores the sexual tension between Sister Benedict and Father O Malley in The Bells of St Mary s the brutal murder of Theresa Dunn in Looking for Mr Goodbar and the stereotype shattering Grace Hanadarko of Saving Grace Schleich offers an insightful portrayal of women s oppression within the Catholic Church and explores whether Catholic women are better off today This study encourages contemplation of the place of Catholic women within the ever changing spheres of cinema and television ultimately encouraging movement toward the goal of achieving equal status for women in all realms of life The Vigilante Thriller Cary Edwards,2022-03-24 This is a detailed examination of vigilantism in 1970s American film from its humble niche beginnings as a response to relaxing censorship laws to its growth into a unique subgenre of its own Cary Edwards explores the contextual factors leading to this new cycle of films ranging from Joe 1970 and The French Connection 1971 to Dirty Harry 1971 and Taxi Driver 1976 all of which have been challenged by contemporary critics for their gratuitous copycat inspiring violence Yet close analysis of these films reveals a recurring focus on the emerging moral panic of the 1970s a problematisation of Law and Order s role in contemporary society and an increasing awareness of the impossibility of American myths of identity Beginning film studies Andrew Dix,2016-05-01 Beginning film studies offers the ideal introduction to this vibrant subject Written accessibly and with verve it ranges across the key topics and manifold approaches to film studies Andrew Dix has thoroughly updated the first edition and this new volume includes new case studies overviews of recent developments in the discipline and up to the minute suggestions for further reading The book begins by considering some of film s formal features mise en sc ne editing and sound before moving outwards to narrative genre authorship stardom and ideology Later chapters on film industries and on film consumption where and how we watch movies assess the discipline s recent geographical turn The book references many film cultures including Hollywood Bollywood and contemporary Hong Kong Case studies cover such topics as sound in The Great Gatsby and narrative in Inception The superhero movie is studied so too is Jennifer Lawrence Beginning film studies is also interactive with readers enabled throughout to reflect critically upon the field The

The Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture will be an essential reference point providing international coverage and thematic richness. The chapters examine the real and imagined spaces of the prison and perhaps more importantly dwell in the uncertain space between them. The modern fixation with seeing inside prison from the outside has prompted a proliferation of media visions of incarceration from high minded and worthy to voyeuristic and unrealistic. In this handbook the editors bring together a huge breadth of disparate issues including women in prison, the view from inside prisons as a source of entertainment, the real worlds of prison and issues of race and gender. The handbook will inform students and lecturers of media, film, popular culture, gender and cultural studies as well as scholars of criminology and justice.

Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women's studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. This definitive guide to the literature of women's studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs, and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field. A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women's studies in the last decades of the 20th century. The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles, substantially extending the coverage. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off, this is the definitive guide to the literature of women's studies. It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field.
