From Ridgetops To Riverbottoms A Celebration Of Outdoor Life In Tennessee:

From Ridgetops To Riverbottoms Sam Venable, 2025-03-14 From Ridgetops to Riverbottoms takes the reader on a journey down the many winding roads of the outdoor experience in Tennessee. Such a journey requires a seasoned guide and there can be no better one than journalist Sam Venable who has written about the woods and waters of his native state for the past twenty five years. For Venable the outdoor world is meant to be enjoyed. Whether he is casting popping bugs to bluegills during the frenzy of a willow fly hatch, lying motionless on his back in muddy corn stubble as mallards warily circle his decoys, savoring the sounds and scents of a moonlit summer night when smallmouth bass are on the prowl, or issuing plaintive love calls to an amorous wild turkey gobbler, the author's fascination with outdoor recreation never diminishes. And as the reader quickly finds, this fascination is contagious. Along with the lightheartedness and rich humor in these pages, there is an unmistakable love of the land and a deep concern for the endangered bond between nature and humankind. Like the trout in the stream or the deer in the forest, Venable suggests we are as much a product of the land as any living creature. And what affects one for better or worse ultimately affects all. Someday I May Find Honest Work Sam Venable, 2007 Sam Venable is a humor columnist for the Knoxville News Sentinel. The winner of numerous writing awards, he is the author of ten books including Id Rather be Ugly than Stupid, From Ridgetops to Riverbottoms: A Celebration of the Outdoor Life in Tennessee, and You Gotta Laugh to Keep From Cryin' A Baby Boomer Contemplates Life beyond Fifty. Warning! This Product Contains Nuttiness Sam Venable, 2013-12-01 As seen through the eyes of Sam Venable, the world is indeed bizarre and filled with nuttiness. The archives of the Knoxville News Sentinel offer ample evidence that Venable is a bit of the former and has made a career out of drawing attention to the latter. For his latest book, Venable has gathered and organized 139 of his newspaper columns, his biggest collection yet, to create a trove of wit and wisdom. In the spirit of The Emperor's New Clothes, he points a finger at human nature, the environment, civil rights, and wrongs, and an eclectic mix of other targets, drawing our attention to the foibles, failings, and just plain absurdities that surround us all. As a native son and treasured institution in East Tennessee, Venable has earned the right to poke fun at its local history, habits, and happenings. He takes full loving advantage of this license in essays such as How to Tawlkw Good Shall We Gather with a Reptile and The Good the Bad the Kudzu. He takes on the government in a section titled A Two Ring Circus with Elephants and Donkeys, and in another called Still Waiting for Y2K, he offers up A Lesson in Dollars and Sense and Blowing the Budget for Bowser. Some have called him a modern day Mark Twain, others the Dave Barry of Knoxville, but while there may be some similarities, Sam Venable is wonderfully unique. He sees and sees through the pervasive silliness and stupidity in our world. It evokes wonder in him, and with many a deft turn of phrase, he interprets that wonder for us. Warning! This Product Contains Nuttiness will make you smile, certainly, but it will also make you think, and sometimes even touch your heart. You Gotta Laugh to Keep From Cryin' Sam Venable, 2024-08-09 Sam Venable is one of America's seventy-six million Baby Boomers who are turning into their parents He can't quite see without his reading glasses he thinks the music kids listen to these days is nothing but a loud racket and his belt is mysteriously creeping up higher and higher on his chest The way Venable figures it he's roaring along the road at about twenty seven miles per hour the average speed for someone his age to Codgerville You Gotta Laugh to Keep From Cryin highlights the observations and lifestyle changes and a few other things he can't quite seem to remember at the moment that Venable has made along the way From the day his wife discovers his first ear hair Venable begins to recognize the signs of old age Though he had reconciled himself to daily fiber and a distinguished head of gray he is one step further to an insatiable desire for cafeteria food and permanently leaving his car's right turn signal flashing The news isn't all bad though To his surprise Venable discovers that his new appearance and habits have qualified him for the senior discount on breakfast at his favorite restaurant After reading about a scientific study concluding that men's brains shrink faster than women's in the normal aging process Venable has a new source of excuses to explain to his wife why he is missing important dates times places and appointments As an official CIT Codger In Training Venable delights in other newfound freedoms He can stand in a fast food line and stare at the menu for a full two minutes without saying a word besides he can't hear the people behind him grumbling He can drive as slowly as he likes and has perfected the art of maintaining a death grip on the steering wheel of his car And he really doesn't have to listen to anyone anymore he can merely turn their way from time to time and mumble Huh From the swinging doors whose Push Pull directions elude him to the high tech mysteries of ATMs designed to baffle the elderly Sam Venable's rollicking view of life after fifty will leave readers laughing and happy to be a member of the AARP set The Author Sam Venable recognized for his humor writing in 2000 2001 and 2002 by the Tennessee Press Association is a columnist for the Knoxville News Sentinel He is the author of a number of books including Rock Elephant A Story of Friendship and Fishing and Mountain Hands A Portrait of Southern Appalachia He lives in Knoxville Tennessee Rock-elephant Sam Venable, 2002 Two years after Sam Venable became the outdoor editor for the Knoxville News Sentinel he began receiving photographs of fish marked with only a phone number and the mysterious words top water Hubbard Curious Venable called the number and reached Ray Hubbard a lay preacher sewing machine repairman and top notch bass fisherman Thus began an extraordinary twenty seven year friendship between two men who had little in common but a serious love of fishing and the outdoors Venable wrote a story about Hubbard for the newspaper and began joining him for more fishing trips Armed with unusual homemade lures and a friendly smile Hubbard taught Venable the art of buzzbaiting the joys of fishing pungent slop holes and the secrets of a bass catching technique Hubbard called mesmerizing Soon the two men were subjecting one another to practical jokes and merciless teasing but according to Venable attempting to best his buddy was like trying to argue with the captain of an international championship debating team They also developed an intricate verbal shorthand for the launch ramps restaurants and fishing spots they encountered Venable soon discovered that the upstanding reverend was not averse to telling an occasional white lie especially if it protected a prized location or coveted angling secret Over the years the size of their catches ceased to matter Hubbard a straitlaced country preacher and Venable a veteran journalist fluent in the language of the newsroom simply enjoyed each other's company overcoming differences in age educational background and vocational calling It was Hubbard who continually suggested that Venable say rock elephant in place of saltier expressions What they experienced together Venable believes was best understood by Henry David Thoreau who observed that many men go fishing all of their lives without knowing that it is not fish they are after The Author Sam Venable is an award winning columnist for the Knoxville News Sentinel and a contributor to such publications as Outdoor Life Sports Afield and Waterfowler's World His books include Mountain Hands A Portrait of Southern Appalachia and From Ridgetops to Riverbottoms Celebrating the Outdoor Life in Tennessee Mountain Hands Sam Venable, 2000 Hazel Pendley creates heirloom quality quilts Ed Ripley wraps bits of fur and feathers into trout flies the size of gnats Edna Hartong still makes an item that has all but disappeared from the American scene lye soap All of these people and many more like them are Appalachians who work with their hands Journalist Sam Venable and photographer Paul Efirm spent four years combing the hills and hollows of Southern Appalachia to find these talented individuals and let them talk about their work Mountain Hands is an intimate look at more than three dozen such craftspeople and their vocations Venable and Efirm encountered folks who pursue popular crafts such as basketweaving and clockmaking But they found practitioners of other trades wallpaper hangers and rail splitters beekeepers and gravediggers whose work also depends upon dexterity and upon expressing a distinctive Appalachian way of life Some are college educated some can barely read and write some have lived in these hills all their lives others have only recently come to call them home Yet each feels bound to the region through a deep sense of belonging and each owes at least part of his or her livelihood to handwork While most of us may think of working with one's hands as entering computer data these individuals attest to the perseverance and appeal of more traditional ways Mountain Hands is a celebration in words and photographs of gifted people who understand and appreciate the Appalachian heritage and who live it every day The Author A fifth generation southern Appalachian Sam Venable is a newspaper columnist whose award winning observations on daily life appear four times a week in the Knoxville News Sentinel A graduate of the University of Tennessee Venable has spent most of his career roaming the highlands of his home state He and his wife Mary Ann also a Tennessee native and UT graduate live in a log house atop a wooded ridge on the outskirts of Knoxville The Photographer Paul Efirm is a native of Rome Georgia He holds a degree in biology from Shorter College but has spent his professional career as a news photographer After working for two newspapers in Georgia he moved to Tennessee in 1990 and became a staff photographer for the News Sentinel Efirm is an avid hiker canoeist and backpacker He and his wife Stephanie live in Knoxville Choice, 1995 The Journal of East Tennessee History, 1995 Writer's Guide to Book Editors, Publishers, and Literary Agents, 1997-1998 Jeff Herman, 1996-09-25 This book contains the names and addresses of acquisitions editors at top publishing houses as well as their area of expertise and information on top
