as suggesting a narrative of chivalry and self sacrifice to create heroes from the victims and brand the surviving men as cowards an interpretation that is challenged here Eyewitness accounts evoke the horror of the night and reveal the underlying ideas of the day They also show that women played a less passive role than expected of them The responses to the sinking by politicians across the spectrum the labour movement and suffragettes suffragists and anti suffragists is explored to show more critical contemporary responses to the disaster that challenge the heroic narrative It was a world that was never so confident in modernity after the disaster but yet still held on to illusions of chivalry Railroad Men ,1900
