Gibbs, Yun-chen Li, 2020-03-17 Foreword by Ezra F Vogel Director of the East Asia Research Center Introduction Includes sources studies of modern Chinese literature studies and translations of individual authors and unidentified authors Some titles shown in Chinese characters Three appendices Index Dream of the Red Chamber Riccardo Moratto, Kanglong Liu, Di-kai Chao, 2022-12-15 This edited volume contains an excellent collection of contributions and presents various informative topics under the central theme literary and translation approaches to China's greatest classical novel Honglouloumeng Acclaimed as one of the Four Great Classical Novels of Chinese literature Honglouloumeng known in English as The Dream of the Red Chamber or The Story of the Stone epitomizes 18th century Chinese social and cultural life Owing to its kaleidoscopic description of Chinese life and culture the novel has also exerted a significant impact on world literature Its various translations either full length or abridged have been widely read by an international audience The contributors to this volume provide a renewed perspective into Honglouloumeng studies by bringing together scholarship in the fields of literary and translation studies Specifically the use of corpora in the framework of digital humanities in a number of chapters helps re address many issues of the novel and its translations from an innovative angle The book is an insightful resource for both scholars of Chinese literature and for linguists with a focus on translation studies Chinese Aesthetics and Literature Corinne H. Dale, 2004-03-18 Featuring the work of renowned scholars this anthology provides an introduction to Chinese aesthetics and literature Vignettes from the Late Ming , 2011-07-01 This anthology presents seventy translated and annotated short essays or hsiao p in by fourteen well known sixteenth and seventeenth century Chinese writers Hsiao p in characterized by spontaneity and brevity were a relatively informal variation on the established classical prose style in which all scholars were trained Written primarily to amuse and entertain the reader hsiao p in reflect the rise of individualism in the late Ming period and collectively provide a panorama of the colorful life of the age Critics condemned the genre as escapist because of its focus on life's sensual pleasures and triviality and over the next two centuries many of these playful and often irreverent works were officially censored Today the essays provide valuable and rare accounts of the details over everyday life in Ming China as well as displays of wit and delightful turns of phrase 白雲, 2002 Like Pa Chin's earlier novel Family Cold Nights is a masterpiece both as fiction and as social commentary First published in 1947 Cold Nights is set in Chungking at the end of World War II It describes the frustration of incompatible relationships among mother son and daughter in law as they deteriorate amidst the social weariness and ennui which pervaded China in the 1940s Victimized by circumstances and by themselves they are average people seeking average lives their plight is shared with the rest of humanity and is depicted with compassion tempered with unflinching realism Excursions in Chinese Culture Marie Chan, Jinsheng Tao, 2002 This eclectic collection includes an introduction to the Ming scholar Yang Shen and his wife and translations of some of their poems an exploration of a middle ground between the literalist and non literalists approaches to Chinese English verse translation a close critical analysis of the relationship between the tonal patterns of a Tang regulated quatrain and poetic meaning and a inquiry into the poetic use of function words in Tang poetry Mouse vs. Cat in Chinese Literature ,2019-03-18 In literatures worldwide animal fables have been analyzed for their revealingly anthropomorphic views but until now little attention has been given to the animal tales of China The complex competitive relationship between rodents vilified as thieves of grain and the felines with whom they are perennially at war is explored in this presentation of Chinese tales about cats and mice Master translator Wilt Idema situates them in an overview of animal tales in world literature in the Chinese literary tradition as a whole and within Chinese imaginative depictions of animals The tales demonstrate the animals symbolism and their unusually prominent and verbal role in the stories These readings depict cats and mice in conflict in marital bonds and in litigation most centrally in a legal case of a mouse against a cat in the underworld court of King Yama Many of the stories adopt the perspective of the mice as animals merely trying to survive while also recognizing that cats are natural hunters This entertaining volume will appeal to readers interested in Chinese literature and society comparative literature and posthumanist consideration of human animal relations The Columbia Guide to Modern Chinese History R.
