Voices From the Heartland Carolyn Anne Taylor, Emily Dial-Driver, Sally Emmons-Featherston, Carole Burrage, 2012-11-27
A thought provoking collection of essays on life and living Voices from the Heartland is a celebration of women's contributions to Oklahoma's recent past. It records defining moments in women's lives whether surviving the Oklahoma City bombing or surviving abuse and represents a wide range of professions, lifestyles and backgrounds to show how extraordinary lives have grown from the seeds of ordinary girlhoods. From former Cherokee principal chief Wilma Mankiller, First Lady Kim Henry, novelist Billie Letts and prima ballerina Maria Tallchief to OU basketball coach Sherri Coale, the authors share their personal reflections on finding balance as they look back on defining moments in their lives, mull over what they wish they had learned sooner and convey the wisdom they've unearthed on their journeys thus far. Touching on topics from adultery to left handedness, from losing children to losing perspective, these essays speak from the heart to reveal what it means to be an American woman today. Readers will meet activists and writers, advocates and artists, some of whom are household names while others work outside the public eye. Voices from the Heartland speaks to readers all across America and demonstrates that women in Oklahoma represent the heart of us all.

A View from the Heartland David Chartrand, 2004 A View from the Heartland expresses the values, quirks and personalities of a region with warmth and humor through stories of everyday life.

From the Bullet to the Ballot Jakobi Williams, 2013 From the Bullet to the Ballot The Illinois Chapter of the Black Panther Party and Racial Coalition Politics in Chicago.

From the Crow's Nest Arun Prakash, 2007 This eclectic panorama of articles and speeches rendered in India and abroad by one of the most respected and articulate Chiefs that the Indian Navy has had provides unique and incisive insights on a wide range of subjects gleaned from his considerable repertoire. This selection touches on issues such as Maritime Power, Defence, Finance and Planning, Shipbuilding, Defence R D, Higher Defence Management, Jointmanship and others. All these subjects are of immense contemporary significance and concern. They offer as much to the inquisitive uninitiated as to Servicemen and hard nosed defence analysts eager for a first hand version of matters relating to national security.

Voices from the Heartland Sara Beam, Emily Dial-Driver, Rilla Askew, Juliet Evusa, 2019-08-22 Despite progress in recent years, Oklahoma hardly ranks as woman friendly. The state holds the highest incarceration rate of women in the nation. It offers women no legal protection against being fired due to sexual orientation or gender identity. Its Native American and immigrant populations struggle for access to community resources. And Oklahoma is still governed largely by men, leaving women without adequate political representation. In 2007, the highly acclaimed anthology Voices from the Heartland provided a much needed platform for Oklahoma women, prominent and unknown, to tell their stories. This timely sequel reflects an even broader cross section of women's experiences. Just like its predecessor Voices from the Heartland Volume II offers memorable accounts of struggle and transformation. It does not sugarcoat the problems that women face in contemporary Oklahoma and in many parts of underprivileged America racism sexism homophobia poverty addiction The 38 contributions gathered here are honest and at times raw They cover such varied topics as girlhood trauma the workplace parenting politics and religious beliefs Taken together the essays comprise a living artifact of women s history accessible and as an anthology ideally suited for classroom use In the wake of the MeToo movement it is more important than ever to listen to what women have to say about their own lives including and perhaps especially women from flyover states like Oklahoma As Sara N Beam states so eloquently in her preface You ll read their stories here as they want them told in a mix of poetry and prose in the voice of a relative in the voice of a tired person across the breakroom table in a secret hush or in a voice not unlike that of your best friend or mother These voices from the heartland inspire us to pause to listen to understand to evolve and to make a difference The
