From The Other Shore:

From the Other Shore John Slatter, 2012-11-12 Published in 1984 From the Other Shore is a valuable contribution to the field of History

The Kirov Murder and Soviet History Matthew E. Lenoe, 2010-05-25 Drawing on hundreds of newly available top secret KGB and party Central Committee documents historian Matthew E. Lenoe reexamines the 1934 assassination of Leningrad party chief Sergei Kirov. Joseph Stalin used the killing as the pretext to unleash the Great Terror that decimated the Communist elite in 1937-1938. These previously unavailable documents raise new questions about whether Stalin himself ordered the murder, a subject of speculation since 1938. The book includes translations of 125 documents from the various investigations of the Kirov murder, allowing readers to reach their own conclusions about Stalin's involvement in the assassination

The French Connections of Jacques Derrida Julian Wolfreys, John Brannigan, Ruth Robbins, 1999-04-01 The French Connections of Jacques Derrida offers stimulating and accessible essays that address for the first time the issue of Derrida's relation to French poetics, writing, thought, and culture. In addition to offering considerations of Derrida through studies of such significant French authors as Mallarmé, Baudelaire, Valéry, Laporte, Ponge, Perec, Blanchot, and Barthes, the book also reassesses the development of Derrida's work in the context of structuralism, biology, and linguistics in the 1960s and looks at the possible relationships between Derrida's writing and that of the Surrealist and Oulipo groups. Derrida is introduced as one whose work is as much poetic as it is philosophical and who is strikingly French and yet not unproblematically so. Contributors include Boris Belay, John Brannigan, Christopher Johnson, John P. Leavey Jr., Ian MacLachlan, Jessica Maynard, Laurent Milesi, Ruth Robbins, Michael Syrotinski, Michael Temple, Burhan Tufail, and Julian Wolfreys

A Road to Nowhere Matthew W. Slaboch, 2018 Matthew W. Slaboch examines the work of German philosophers Arthur Schopenhauer and Oswald Spengler, Russian novelists Leo Tolstoy and Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, and American historians Henry Adams and Christopher Lasch, rare skeptics of the idea of progress who have much to offer political theory, a field dominated by historical optimists

An Integrative Approach to Counseling Robert G. Santee, 2007-05-18 An Integrative Approach to Counseling: Bridging Chinese Thought, Evolutionary Theory, and Stress Management offers a global and integrative approach to counseling that incorporates multiple concepts and techniques from both eastern and western perspectives. The book identifies commonalities rather than the differences between them. The book also compares and contrasts the underlying cultural assumptions of western counseling with those of the Chinese perspectives of Confucianism, Daoism, and Buddhism relative to integrating and applying a more global approach to helping individuals functionally adapt to challenges in their environments. The book will be used by faculty and students in those advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in psychology, counseling, or social work that cover such areas as introduction to counseling, counseling skills and techniques, counseling theories, multi-cultural awareness, and counseling and stress management offering new perspectives on Japanese culture Christian doctrine Hindu spiritualities and Buddhist worldviews In Navigating Deep River Mark W Dennis and Darren J N Middleton have curated a wide ranging discussion of Sh saku End s final novel Deep River in which four careworn Japanese tourists journey to India s holy Ganges in search of spiritual as well as existential renewal Navigating Deep River evaluates and probes End s decades long search to find the words to explain Transcendent Mystery the difficult tension between faith and doubt the purpose of spiritual journeys and the challenges posed by the reality of religious pluralism in an increasingly diverse world The contributors including Van C Gessel who translated Deep River into English in 1994 offer an engaged and patient exploration of this major text in world fiction and this anthology promises to deepen academic appreciation for End within and beyond the West This volume contextualizes delineates and articulates the complex religious theological spiritual dimensions of Deep River and its rich intertextual interpersonal psychosocial and literary aspects There are few edited volumes in which so many experts focus on a single Japanese text in this sustained manner and this stands as a model of how to do so deftly and productively David C Stahl author of Social Trauma Narrative Memory and Recovery in Japanese Literature and Film

Sadhana â The Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore, 2020-04-19 Perhaps it is well for me to explain that the subject matter of the papers published in this book has not been philosophically treated nor has it been approached from the scholar s point of view The writer has been brought up in a family where texts of the Upanishads are used in daily worship and he has had before him the example of his father who lived his long life in the closest communion with God while not neglecting his duties to the world or allowing his keen interest in all human affairs to suffer any abatement So in these papers it may be hoped western readers will have an opportunity of coming into touch with the ancient spirit of India as revealed in our sacred texts and manifested in the life of to day Author s Preface

Sadhana, The Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore, 2021-11-14 Sadhana The Realisation of Life Rabindranath Tagore Compiled and translated by Tagore

Inside from the Outside Peter Baltensperger, 2012-10 Dealing with the basic elements that make us human the short stories contained in Inside from the Outside represent explorations of various aspects of human nature in all its complexity and variety Author Peter Baltensperger has incorporated elements of experimental surrealistic and bizarre short fiction The stories classified as sudden fiction are all less than a thousand words long and focus on the many archetypal characteristics which constitute the human psyche In From the Secrets of Tree Sybil Strong attempts to discover the secrets of the forest during a horseback ride and swim in the river Mitchell Collier in Amid the Variegated Currents battles the river for answers as he calls attention to Sisyphus of the River In Across the Lake Morgana Cronin uses a swim in a clear lake on a hot afternoon to solve life's puzzles This collection exemplifies the never ending search for meaning and the primordial quest for selfhood as the characters struggle to find themselves in a confusing world Praise for Inside from the Outside Because the dreamscape of Peter Baltensperger's prose is precisely where Jung meets Freud the spare direct and deeply affective stories in this volume represent the specific way that the archetypal heritage can surface far more profoundly in the sensual persona than in the curious intellect or the emotive heart These are stories about the human condition and about the commonality of the human experience shared by all Like Conrad Nabokov and Appelfeld Baltensperger writes in a learned language But that only makes his writing the more remarkable this is English language short prose at its most arresting and at its most seductive Martin S Cohen essayist novelist commentator and editor Journal of Forestry, 1920 List of members of the society in v 15
