One Man's Paradise Douglas Corleone,2010-04-27 Hotshot New York criminal defense lawyer Kevin Corvelli was rolling He had all the right connections to get way ahead Guilty Innocent It didn't matter so long as he won got in the papers and got paid That's until he loses and loses big when a client who was convicted and then killed in jail is later proven innocent The media has a field day plastering Corvelli's face all over Manhattan so Corvelli disgraced and in a professional free fall bolts for Hawaii Committed to being a lawyer if only because of the knee buckling debts he accumulated becoming one in the first place he sets up shop in paradise and swears to handle only misdemeanors this time around no felonies no murders no media attention no high stakes no real responsibility But his first case turns out to be exactly that law student Joseph Gianforte Jr is accused of chasing his ex girlfriend to Hawaii and killing her He's innocent same as Corvelli's last case only this time Corvelli knows it and with that knowledge comes the chilling realization that the killer is still out there with plenty of incentive to make sure that any proof of Gianforte's innocence doesn't go any further than the three of them Douglas Corleone's One Man's Paradise the winner of the Minotaur Books Mystery Writers of America First Crime Novel Competition is a gripping story of failure and the search for redemption and it marks the stellar debut of an exciting new crime writing voice Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
