Prison Darkness to God's Light John E Barton Jr, 2004-05 The book is autobiographical It is about a man's struggle to find himself and to know God On January 6 1943 never having even seen the inside of a jail he began serving a life sentence for murder For eleven years in the impassioned world of the convict he obeyed the rules did his time learned nothing of any importance except that he was different from the average convict and he hated where and what he was A disreputable convict in prison For 11 years he vegetated except for a short time to earn a high school diploma Denied parole after 11 years he realized that to earn his freedom he had to enter psychiatric therapy to learn who he was and what made him tick It was a hard scary but rewarding four years during which he gained change of direction change of personality and insight into a man he knew little of Himself Along the way he is reunited to the God he'd had only a passing acquaintance with Importantly he learned that without God he could do absolutely nothing but mark time From the Hell of prison darkness to the glorious light of God's world this book is a bible for those beset by self doubt self hate self destruction If the reader does not find himself in the pages of this book he has read it while blindfolded Unspoken Sermons Series I, II, and III

George MacDonald, 2012-11-26 MacDonald rejected the doctrine of penal Substitutionary atonement as put forward by John Calvin which argues that Christ has taken the place of sinners and is punished by God in their place believing that in turn it raised serious questions about the character and nature of God Instead he taught that Christ had come to save people from their sins and not from a Divine penalty for their sins The problem was not the need to appease a wrathful God but the disease of cosmic evil itself Isaiah 40-66 Shalom M. Paul, 2012-05 This volume presents Shalom Paul's comprehensive study of the oracles of the anonymous prophet known as Second Isaiah In his commentary Paul offers thorough exegesis of the historical linguistic literary and theological aspects of Isaiah 40-66 The Complete Works of George MacDonald:
