Roberta Brandes Gratz, Norman Mintz

From The Garden:

Notes from the Garden Ruth Petrie, 2012-06-05 This charming guide gathers together writings on all aspects of British gardening from the nineteenth century plant hunters such as China Wilson and the Veitches who brought seeds and specimens from every corner of the world to the designers such as Capability Brown and Gertrude Jekyll who set their mark on gardening styles. In pieces written by the paper's stellar list of gardening correspondents Vita Sackville West, Penelope Hobhouse, Monty Don, Carol Klein, not to mention Christopher Lloyd the grand old man of British gardening, it explores our dedication to the growing garden. And with stories about the restoration of the Lost Gardens of Heligan, the building of the great glasshouses at Chatsworth and the preservation work carried out at Kew, it paints a picture of how history can be unearthed through gardening and emphasises how important it is to preserve our green-fingered heritage. Coming right up to the present day with pieces on the advances at the Eden project, Notes on the Garden is the perfect bedside companion for anyone who loves the feeling of soil between their fingers.

Notes from the Garden Henry Homeyer, 2003 A hands-on gardener, Henry Homeyer gives practical advice on how to garden, whether building a hot box, transplanting peonies, defeating the deer, growing lady's slipper orchids and shiitake mushrooms, or keeping the birds out of the berry bushes. Each month covers a range of topics relevant to the season, starting seedlings, edging and mulching, gardening with children, getting rid of invasive plants, pruning, planting shrubs for attracting and feeding birds, putting the garden to bed, growing houseplants. These are just a few of Homeyer's 69 short reflections and observations on matters of interest to amateur, dedicated and armchair gardeners alike. Homeyer grew up in the 1950s, learning about organic gardening from a grandfather who used manure, tea and compost, not 10-10-10 herbicides and DDT. For him, organic gardening is not a political position but a common sense approach to having the best soil and the healthiest plants. Of special relevance to denizens of zones 3-5, the climatic belt which includes New England and runs across southern Canada and west to the Rockies, each of the twelve chapters, one for each month, contains several pieces combining technical information, practical tips, personal reflections and more than a little humor. An unusual feature is Homeyer's interviews with other gardeners. Meet Joe Mooney, the aging wizard of turf at Fenway Park. Spend an afternoon in the garden with Jamaica Kincaid. Visit Jean and Wes Cate, growers of heirloom vegetables at Fox Run Farm. Learn more about the White House gardens from chief horticulturist Dale Haney. Or marvel at Marguerite Tewksbury, an 85-year-old organic gardener who single-handedly runs a farm stand, drives her 1950 Ford Ferguson tractor and weeds her 6,000 square foot vegetable patch with a full-sized rototiller. She doesn't say that keeping active and eating organically keeps her healthy and vigorous, but I have a feeling that it does, writes Homeyer.
