From The Heat Of The Day A Novel:

From the Heat of the Day Roy A. K. Heath, 1993 The Promise of Welfare in the Postwar British and Anglophone Novel Kelly M. Rich, 2023 A study of the literature of the Second World War and its aftermath focusing on the welfare state and wartime visions of rebuilding Britain Midcentury Suspension Claire Seiler, 2020-08-11 How did literary artists confront the middle of a century already defined by two global wars and newly faced with a nuclear future Midcentury Suspension argues that a sense of suspension a feeling of being between beginnings and endings recent horrors and opaque horizons shaped transatlantic literary forms and cultural expression in this singular moment Rooted in extensive archival research in literary print and public cultures of the Anglophone North Atlantic Claire Seiler's account of midcentury suspension ranges across key works of the late 1940s and early 1950s by authors such as W H Auden Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bishop Elizabeth Bowen Ralph Ellison and Frank O'Hara Seiler reveals how these writers cultivated modes of suspension that spoke to the felt texture of life at midcentury Running counter to the tendency to frame midcentury literature in the terms of modernism or of our contemporary Midcentury Suspension reorients twentieth century literary study around the epoch's fraught middle The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez, 2020-05-28 This book explores for the first time the literature of absolute war in connection to World War II From a transnational and comparative standpoint it addresses a set of theoretical historical and literary questions shedding new light on the nature of absolute war the literature on the world war of 1939-45 and modern war writing in general It determines the main features of the language of absolute war and how it gravitates around fundamental semantic clusters such as the horror terror and the specter The Literature of Absolute War studies the variegated responses given by literary authors to the extreme and seemingly unsolvable challenges posed by absolute war to epistemology ethics and language It also delves into the different poetics that articulate the writing on absolute war placing special emphasis on four literary practices traditional realism traumatic realism the fantastic and catastrophic modernism The Visioning: A Novel Susan Glaspell, 2025-05-16 The Visioning by Susan Glaspell invites readers into a richly textured world where the boundaries of reality blur with the ethereal engaging across layers of emotional depth and psychological insight Set against a backdrop of early 20th century America this profound narrative captures the essence of the human spirit's undying quest for identity and empowerment At the heart of the tale lies a young woman navigating the tumultuous waters of her dreams and aspirations in a society that often stifles the voice of women Through her journey Glaspell's prose glimmers with honesty and power making it an essential read for anyone grappling with their own sense of purpose and place in the world Readers will find themselves enveloped in a character-driven narrative that delves into the complexities of relationships aspirations and the intricate threads of social themes The protagonist's struggle to balance her artistic ambitions with the constraints imposed by society mirrors the broader conflicts experienced by women of her era As she engages with a cast of vivid characters each representing different facets of existence from the supportive friend to the skeptical neighbor her story unfolds revealing the myriad ways in which society shapes our perceptions of self and others Susan Glaspell's ability to weave elements of modernism and realism culminates in a potent exploration of dreams where mystical elements blend seamlessly with the harsh truths of life The emotional resonance of The Visioning leaves readers questioning the nature of their own dreams and the societal expectations that shape their paths As Glaspell's narrative intricacies draw the reader deeper into the protagonist's psyche it becomes clear that the journey toward self discovery is both universal and profoundly personal In this emotional tour de force Glaspell successfully critiques cultural norms while offering a panoramic view of the role of women in literature during her time By the end of the journey readers are left with an enduring sense of hope and recognition that empowerment is an evolving process one filled with visions that lead us toward our truest selves The Visioning is more than just a novel it is an exploration of identity a celebration of artistic ambition and a poignant reminder of the power of visionary thinking in transforming lives This captivating novel resonates with anyone who has ever dared to dream inspiring them to pursue their own visions with fervor and passion Those
