camps and forced labor sought refuge in Germany after World War II Those who had ventured to return to Poland after liberation soon found that their homeland had become a new killing ground where some 1 500 Jews were murdered in pogroms between 1945 and 1947 Facing death at home and with Palestine and the rest of the world largely closed to them they looked for a place to be safe and found it in the shelter of the Allied Occupation Forces in Germany By 1950 a little community of 20 000 Jews remained in Germany 8 000 native German Jews and 12 000 from Eastern Europe Ruth Gay examines their contrasting lives in the two postwar Germanies After the fall of Communism the Jewish community was suddenly overwhelmed by tens of thousands of former Soviet Jews Now there are some 100 000 Jews in Germany The old somewhat nostalgic life of the first postwar decades is being swept aside by radical forces from the Lubavitcher at one end to Reform and feminism at the other What started in 1945 as a remnant community has become a dynamic new center of Jewish life

Black American Poets Between Worlds, 1940-1960 R. Baxter Miller, 1986 This volume appraises distinguished black poets whose careers began to flower between the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s a period of militant integration and the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s a decade of militant separatism Most of these writers were children of the Renaissance then young adults during World War II and finally middle aged artists during the Korean conflict The poets examined include Melvin Tolson Robert Hayden Dudley Randall Margaret Esse Danner Margaret Walker and Gwendolyn Brooks The interpretive focus shifts from characterization and stylistic evolution to dialectic voices prophecy attitude toward the opposite sex and the theme of recreation As editor Miller notes the poets balance mimetic and apocalyptic theories of literature In Freudian terms they play id against superego in Derridean terms they reconstruct ethical and phenomenological values aesthetically Through ballad sonnet and free verse they are the poets of memory protest tradition and cultural celebration Book jacket The Holocaust in Lithuania 1941-1945 Rose Cohen, Saul Issroff, 2002 Presents lists of names of Holocaust victims including names of parents place and date of birth and death place of residence and occupation culled from lists found in various institutions and from private sources Vol I includes an introduction on the Holocaust in Lithuania a list of cities and towns where Jews were massacred a reference list Web sites relating to Holocaust localities maps variant place names and testimonies pp 120 129 The names are not listed alphabetically but rather according to the source which is then divided by the running number of the entry in the source database The Architecture of Landscape, 1940-1960 Marc Treib, 2002-10 The Architecture of Landscape 1940 1960 provides a groundbreaking collection of worldwide perspectives on a vital and underappreciated era of landscape architecture It is also the first critical assessment of this period with information and insight previously unavailable to English language readers Women's Magazines, 1940-1960 NA NA, 2016-04-30 American Small-Town Fiction, 1940-1960 Nathanael T. Booth, 2019-01-10 In literature and popular culture small town America is often idealized as distilling the national spirit Does the myth of the small town conceal deep seated reactionary tendencies or does it contain the basis of a national re imagining During the period between 1940 and 1960 America underwent a great shift in self mythologizing that can be charted through representations of small towns Authors like Henry Bellamann and Grace Metalious continued the tradition of Sherwood Anderson in showing the small town by extension America itself profoundly warping the souls of its citizens Meanwhile Ray Bradbury Toshio Mori and Ross Lockridge Jr sought to identify the small town s potential for growth away from the shadows cast by World War II toward a more inclusive democratic future Examined together these works are key to understanding how mid 20th century America refashioned itself in light of a new postwar order and how the literary small town both obscures and reveals contradictions at the heart of the American experience American Drama, 1940-1960 Thomas P. Adler, 1994 The 1940s and 1950s indisputably compose the classic period of American drama witnessing the first productions of The Iceman Cometh and Long Day s Journey Into Night of Death of a Salesman and The Crucible of The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Thomas P Adler tells the story of these remarkable years largely through its dominant voices Eugene O Neill Lillian Hellman Arthur Miller William Inge Lorraine Hansberry Edward Albee and Tennessee Williams One chapter in Williams s case two is devoted to each and through careful analysis of the work of one playwright after another the persistent themes of the period emerge BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Chronicle of Cinema, 1895-1995: 1940-1960, Hitchcock's "Rebecca" to Ray's "Apu trilogy", 1994 British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2019 Examines debates central to postwar British culture showing the pressures of reconstruction and the mutual implication of war and peace United States Relations with Belgium and the Congo,

Helmreich, 1998 The low country's participation in NATO trade of Congo goods and American policy toward UN action in the Congo are also involved This work analyzes the contrasting diplomatic styles of Belgian foreign ministers Paul Henri Spaak and Paul van Zeeland and the atmosphere of disappointment that often hovered over a relationship officially characterized as warm and strong

Following My Path Bernard Martin, 2012-11-13 Imagine growing up in small Indiana towns in the 1940s in a very strict religious family and then realizing at the age of six that there was something sexually wrong with you You had no name for it and you didn't really understand it but you knew it all the same By the time you were seven and eight years old you heard adults talk about sexual perversion and teenagers using the terms faggot or queer as if they were describing the plague But you knew deep inside it was you they were talking about Then skip forward a few years when you felt compelled to find someone else like you You knew you couldn't be the only one and you didn't think you could survive on erotic dreams or daydreaming And so you began to sexually experiment with older men who called themselves queer but you knew it didn't describe you Then at age seventeen you found yourself in your first small gay bar where you finally discovered you weren't the only one like you on this planet But when your mother discovered you'd been invited to a gay party she told you that you would burn in hell if you didn't become heterosexual And that was just the beginning Following My Path is the true account of the author discovering who he was and all the things that happened along the way Some of the things are serious and some are funny but all are interesting and vital to understanding what many gay people have had to endure Reading Following My Path may change your mind about whether being gay is a choice or not make you see gay people differently and with more understanding particularly those who are older and in the closet longer teach you to love your children unconditionally even if there are parts of them you can't understand or accept teach you not to lay guilt trips on your children and teach gay LGBT people not to leave God out of their lives as we too are made in his image and he wants us to lead happy and fulfilling lives Following My Path is the author's confirmation in his belief in God and his comfort with being an outed gay Christian
