From Unsustainable to Inclusive Cities United Nations Research Institute for Social Development, 2004 This publication contains eight papers based on research activities undertaken by the UN Research Institute for Social Development UNRISD during 2000-01 and which consider governance aspects of urban sustainable development in developing countries including case studies from India Vietnam Tanzania and the Philippines

The Inclusive Circular Economy Martin de Jong, Daan Schraven, Tong Xin, Liang Dong, 2025-11-01 This open access book is a multi disciplinary effort to address the complex socio economic issues and the substantial environmental pressure that the expected large scale migration will exert on cities in the near future Emerging from a joint research project between China and the Netherlands the authors herein put forward a vision for cities that the future demands while assessing efforts recent and ongoing in this direction Building on the lessons learned from this research it also proposes strategies and best practices for future policy aimed at the design and development of circular and inclusive cities

Analytical Perspective of Pro-poor Slum Upgrading Frameworks, 2006

Environmental Management and Sustainable Development of Cities Soji Oyeranmi, 2023-11-25 This study contends that proper urban environmental management strategies are vital to the sustainable development of cities in any country It demonstrates that cities as drivers of sustainable development can be positive forces in support of social equality cultural vitality economic prosperity and environmental sustainability It takes a primary focus on Ibadan Nigeria Most cities in sub Saharan Africa have become badly degraded Leaders and planners rarely fully grasp the meaning of the concept of sustainable development and fail to combine their bids to achieve economic development with urban environmental management strategies The book describes how reformation and transformation are still possible in Ibadan and elsewhere and discusses the Sustainable Ibadan Project SIP as a methodology to turn Ibadan into a globally competitive and sustainable city It will be of interest to urban planners worldwide and to researchers and students of the Global South

(Re)Generating Inclusive Cities Dan Zuberi, Ariel Judith Taylor, 2017-07-20 As suburban expansion declines cities have become essential economic cultural and social hubs of global connectivity This book is about urban revitalization across North America in cities including San Francisco Toronto Boston Vancouver New York and Seattle Infrastructure projects including the High Line and Big Dig are explored alongside urban neighborhood creation and regeneration projects such as Hunters Point in San Francisco and Regent Park in Toronto Today these urban regeneration projects have evolved in the context of unprecedented neoliberal public policy and soaring real estate prices Consequently they make a complex contribution to urban inequality and poverty trends in many of these cities including the suburbanization of immigrant settlement and rising inequality Re Generating Inclusive Cities wrestles with challenging but important questions of urban planning including who benefits and who loses with these urban regeneration schemes and what policy tools can be used to mitigate harm We propose a new way forward for understanding and promoting better urban design practices in order to build more socially just and inclusive cities and to ultimately improve the quality of urban life for all

Building Inclusive Cities Carolyn Whitzman, 2013 Building on a growing movement within developing countries in Latin America Africa and Asia Pacific as well as Europe and North America this book documents cutting edge practice and builds theory around a rights based approach to women s safety in the context of poverty reduction and social inclusion Drawing upon two decades of research and grassroots action on safer cities for women and everyone this book is about the right to an inclusive city The first part of the book describes the challenges that women face regarding access to essential services housing security liveability and mobility The second part of the book critically examines programs projects and ideas that are working to make cities safer Building Inclusive Cities takes a cross cultural learning perspective from action research occurring throughout the world and translates this research into theoretical conceptualizations to inform the literature on planning and urban management in both developing and developed countries This book is intended to inspire both thought and action

Urban Planning Against Poverty Jean-Claude Bolay, 2019-11-12 This open access book revisits the theoretical foundations of urban planning and the application of these concepts and methods in the context of Southern countries by examining several case studies from different regions of the world For instance the case of Koudougou a medium sized city in one of the poorest countries in the world Burkina Faso with a population of 115 000 inhabitants allows us to understand concretely which and how these deficiencies are translated in an African urban context In contrast the case of Nueve de Julio intermediate city of 50 000 dwellers in the pampa Argentina addresses the new forms of spatial fragmentation and social exclusion linked with agro export and crisis of the international markets Case studies are also included for cities in Asia and Latin America Differences and similarities between cases allow us to foresee alternative models of urban planning better adapted to tackle poverty and find efficient ways for more inclusive cities in developing and emerging countries interacting several dimensions linked with high rates of urbanization territorial fragmentation environmental contamination social disparities and exclusion informal economy and habitat urban governance and democracy

Inclusive Cities Michael Lindfield, Florian Steinberg, 2011-04-01 Slums informal settlements and dilapidated inner city tenements are problems that many cities in Asia and the Pacific struggle with while their economies try to modernize and develop Their existence puts at risk not only these economies but also poor people occupying vulnerable areas that climate change and natural disasters will only make worse Slums are being addressed in countries in Asia and the Pacific but not yet at the rate required to create livable cities ADB s Strategy 2020 aims for livable cities and will address the range of problems resulting from rapid urbanization and the limited capacity of basic service delivery associated with present and future urban growth To accomplish the vision of livable cities livelihood opportunities and shelter options of incremental land and housing development are important ADB s developing member countries will look for viable lending opportunities to finance inclusive cities

Sustainable Urban Development Reader Stephen M. Wheeler,Timothy Beatley,2014-10-03 Building on the success of its second edition the third edition of the Sustainable Urban Development Reader provides a generous selection of classic and contemporary readings giving a broad introduction to this topic It begins by tracing the roots of the sustainable development concept in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries before presenting readings on a number of dimensions of the sustainability concept Topics covered include land use and urban design transportation ecological planning and restoration energy and materials use economic development social and environmental justice and green architecture and building All sections have a concise editorial introduction that places the selection in context and suggests further reading Additional sections cover tools for sustainable development international sustainable development visions of sustainable community and case studies from around the world The book also includes educational exercises for individuals university classes or community groups and an extensive list of recommended readings The anthology remains unique in presenting a broad array of classic and contemporary readings in this field each with a concise introduction placing it within the context of this evolving discourse The Sustainable Urban Development Reader presents an authoritative overview of the field using original sources in a highly readable format for university classes in urban studies environmental studies the social sciences and related fields It also makes a wide range of sustainable urban planning related material available to the public in a clear and accessible way forming an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the future of urban environments

The Politics of Civic Space in Asia Amrita Daniere,Mike Douglass,2008-09-25 This book explores how and why civic spaces are used by different communities in Asia and what role urban governance and public participation play in the support or demise of communities Using case studies of contemporary city life throughout the contributors provide insights into the importance and value of civic space arguing that civic spaces provide not only the physical sites for civil society to function autonomously but also provide a sense of place in the form of identity meaning memory history and linkages with the wider world Each chapter focuses on the production of and access to civic spaces in a particular Asian city as well as examples of successes and failures that can inform urban policy regarding inclusive tolerant and socially vibrant city life through focused attention on the provision and continuity of civic space This book is designed to provide information to policymakers researchers and students of the developing world regarding the importance and value of civic space in terms of creating and supporting urban communities As such The Politics of Civic Space in Asia will be an invaluable resource for those interested in urban planning urban design public policy and political science as well as Asian studies more generally

Sustainable City Management Christian Obermayr,2017-01-04 This book analyses the housing and governance policies of the city of Surakarta in Indonesia It addresses the question of whether Surakarta s strategy for handling the city s informal sector and marginal settlements shows evidence of sustainability and good governance The book illustrates current trends in urban development and discussions on effective strategies for improving living conditions in slums on both a global and national scale Using four main programs as examples it presents a detailed overview of Surakarta's housing policies regarding the poor It critically evaluates the city's relocation measures and shows that Surakarta's city government has put into place an effective policy reaching the poor by inclusive approaches Influenced by global discussions and best practices the programs examined are characterized by elements of good governance and Solo's strategies have already been disseminated to other Indonesian cities However the book argues that deficits remain regarding participation and transparency The work is based on Christian Obermayr's outstanding Master's thesis defended in 2013 at the University of Innsbruck Austria

Inclusive Cities and Global Urban Transformation Ajay Bailey, Kei Otsuki, 2025-01-03 This open access book addresses the problem of global urban development that excludes various groups of people from the benefits of urban growth and sustainable development Using the intersectionality and agency of urban dwellers and citizens it outlines possibilities of responsive urban governance that builds on principles of the inclusive city The book's first section presents various cases of digital smart logistical and green infrastructure that drive a city's growth and sustainable development while excluding various citizens from these benefits The second and third sections focus on the intersectionality and agency of urban citizens vulnerable to marginalization in different urban contexts such as the elderly people with various physical and mental challenges women and children The last section presents the cases of potential forms of responsive governance and possibilities for future inclusive city planning and development This book appeals to students of urban and development studies and planning and related disciplines such as human and cultural geography applied anthropology sociology sustainability sciences architecture and design It is also helpful for activists and practitioners as illustrative cases presented in the book show various experiences and possibilities for making a city inclusive

Smart, Sustainable And Inclusive Cities: Changing Urban Dynamics Dr. Bushra Beegom RK, The Vietnamese City in Transition Patrick Gubry, Frank Castiglioni, Jean-Michel Cusset, Nguyen Thi Thieng, Pham Thuy Huong, 2010 Since the Doi Moi policy of economic renovation was introduced in 1986 Vietnam has undergone deep transformations as a result of the transition to a socialist oriented market economy Social and urban transition has taken place in parallel as urban dynamics were spurred on by Vietnamese public and private stakeholders and by external agents such as international organizations and international solidarity organizations experts consultants and bilateral aid organizations Here are the results of research carried out by French Canadian and Vietnamese teams from the north and south of the country on the overarching theme of Vietnamese cities in transition Some of this research deals with urban dynamics some with the issues at stake within such dynamics or with the strategies of the most significant stakeholders in urban transition civil society donors within the framework of official aid for development consultants and international consultancy firms These projects were carried out between 2001 and 2004 as part of the Urban Research Programme for Development PRUD and mainly focus on Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City or both in the case of comparative studies Is there such a thing as a Vietnamese model of an Asian city It seems that urban transition in Vietnam is not taking place in as radical and abrupt a manner as in China The country s capacity for absorbing external models the quest for a third way between state intervention and economic liberalism and the fact that the country s architectural heritage is taken into account in urban planning are just some of the reasons for its particularity The issues addressed in each chapter as well as the proposals for further research suggested by the contributors should act as a catalyst for urban research in Vietnam

Urban Life-Worlds in Motion Hans Peter Hahn,Kristin Kastner,2014-03-15 Urban agglomerations host the most vital and creative societies This applies particularly to Africa where cities have the highest growth rates world wide and where the urban population is younger than anywhere else Urban life worlds are the basis for the development of new lifestyles and new cultural phenomena Based on empirical ethnographic research this book presents case studies that enhance our understanding of the dynamics of urbanity in Africa and beyond by envisioning cities as crossroads where cultures biographies and networks meet

Post-Arab Spring Narratives Abida Younas,2023-04-15 This book looks at eight post Arab Spring novels in the context of Gilles Deleuze s and F lix Guattari s theory of minor literature Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Karim Alrawi Youssef Rakha Yasmine El Rashidi Omar Rober Hamilton Saleem Haddad and Nada Awar Jarrar all focus on the Arab world in their work on the lives of ordinary and minority peoples and on the revolutions of their respective nations This volume shows how these contemporary Anglo Arab novelists exhibit linguistic experimentation akin to Deleuze s and Guattari s theory of deterritorialization but in a way that is unique to Anglo Arab writing The selected novelists repudiate the use of metamorphosis which is usually an essential part of the deterritorialization of a major language Instead their writings enact the minor practice of linguistic deterritorialization by using metaphor and by incorporating contemporary modes of protest like popular slogans tweets and chants These authors challenge the conventions of minor literature and by adopting this mode of deterritorialization foreground the experiences of officially silenced voices

Eco-Responsible Cities and the Global Ocean Voula P. Mega,2018-08-29 This book examines the nexus of cities and oceans and the interrelations between the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs 11 and 14 just after the first two critical years following the milestone year of hope in 2015 It advocates for actions both for sustainable cities the largest interconnected and only human ecosystem and for the global ocean that is the largest physical ecosystem Cutting edge concepts and actions are presented by and for cities and oceans following the global engagements during the years 2015 2017 In the era of global geopolitics cities offer major democratic spaces between the micro regulations of the local communities and the governance of the global commons The role of education trust and citizen empowerment cannot be stressed enough This book offers an evidence based holistic and integrated view of key urban and ocean sustainability issues at the horizon of 2030 and of 2050 The chapters cover the most prominent issues at the heart of the matter and highlight systemic multi stakeholder eco responses towards sustainability with economic social environmental dimensions including political and cultural aspects This book offers a full exploration of cities and seas with an emphasis on vigorous paradigm shifts redesigning human systems and reconciling them with nature Building on robust evidence and transformational cases it provides structured advice for world leaders stakeholders and scholars Introduction to Cities Xiangming

Chen,Anthony M. Orum,Krista E. Paulsen,2018-04-30 The revised and updated second edition of Introduction to Cities explores why cities are such a vital part of the human experience and how they shape our everyday lives Written in engaging and accessible terms Introduction to Cities examines the study of cities through two central concepts that cities are places where people live form communities and establish their own identities and that they are spaces such as the inner city and the suburb that offer a way to configure and shape the material world and natural environment Introduction to Cities covers the theory of cities from an historical perspective right through to the most recent theoretical developments The authors offer a balanced account of life in cities and explore both positive and negative themes In addition the text takes a global approach with examples ranging from Berlin and Chicago to Shanghai and Mumbai The book is extensively illustrated with updated maps charts tables and photographs This new edition also includes a new section on urban planning as well as new chapters on cities as contested spaces exploring power and politics in an urban context It contains information on the status of poor and marginalized groups and the impact of neoliberal policies material on gender and sexuality and presents a greater range of geographies with more attention to European Latin American and African cities Revised and updated Introduction to Cities provides a complete introduction to the history evolution and future of our modern cities World Cities Report 2024

UN-HABITAT,2024-11-05 The World Cities Report 2024 will advance a people centred approach to climate action that promotes effective and inclusive climate action as a framework for building climate resilience in urban areas The WCR 2024 advocates that people must be at the centre of any meaningful climate action In this regard climate action should not only contribute to mitigating GHG emissions adapting and reversing the effects as of climate change but should ensure that people have sustainable livelihoods and stable incomes have food security access to clean water and other basic services including affordable healthcare all of which will reduce the vulnerability to climate change The impacts of climate change are quite significant to the extent that adaptation and risk management can be powerful contributors to poverty eradication and sustainable development
