Fighter, Worker, and Family Man Sebastian

Huebel, 2021-12-02 When the Nazis came to power they used various strategies to expel German Jews from social cultural and economic life Fighter Worker and Family Man focuses on the gendered experiences and discrimination that German Jewish men faced between 1933 and 1941 Sebastian Huebel argues that Jewish men's gender identities intersecting with categories of ethnicity race class and age underwent a profound process of marginalization that destabilized accustomed ways of performing masculinity At the same time in their attempts to sustain their conceptions of masculinity these men maintained agency and developed coping strategies that prevented their full scale emasculation Huebel draws on a rich archive of diaries letters and autobiographies to interpret the experiences of these men focusing on their roles as soldiers and protectors professionals and breadwinners and parents and husbands Fighter Worker and Family Man sheds light on how the Nazis sought to emasculate Jewish men through propaganda the law and violence and how in turn German Jewish men were able to defy emasculation and adapt at least temporarily to their marginalized status as men Street

Harassment as Everyday Violence Melinda A. Mills, 2022-08-09 In Street Harassment as Everyday Violence Melinda A Mills investigates women's experiences with street harassment recognizing this phenomenon as a form of everyday violence The author follows feminist scholars to consider the ways that silence can potentially if only partially protect women from verbally assaultive men who harass women in public This violence both reveals and conceals itself in the discourses of silence about and during street harassment It maps onto and reflects the web of violence that proves persistent and difficult to dismantle This work operates as an initial intervention by way of recognition of street harassment as a problem that hides in plain sight

Men's Activism to End Violence Against Women Westmarland, Nicole, Almqvist, Anna-Lena, 2021-07-20 EPUB and EPDF available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence This book draws attention to those men who take action to end violence against women The authors demonstrate what we can learn from their experiences to help build the movement to end violence against women Violent Fathering and the Risks to Children Lynne Harne, 2011 This text focuses on violent fathering and discusses research in the context of domestic violence It examines fathers' perceptions of their domestic violence and its impact on children their relationships with children and their parenting practices It also recommends ways that policy and practice can be improved Women, Violence, and Social Change R. Emerson Dobash, Russell

Dobash, 1992 Women Violence and Social Change demonstrates how refuges and shelters stand as the core of the battered women's movement providing a basis for pragmatic support political action and radical renewal From this base movements in Britain and the United States have challenged the police courts and social services to provide greater assistance to women

The book provides important evidence on the way social movements can successfully challenge institutions of the State as well as salutatory lessons on the nature of diverted and thwarted struggle Throughout the book the Dobashes years of researching violence against women is illustrated in the depth of their analysis They maintain the tradition established in their first book Violence Against Wives which was widely acclaimed Making an Impact Marianne Hester,2007 Previously published under the author Marianne Hester

Anger, Aggression, and Interventions for Interpersonal Violence Timothy A. Cavell,Kenya T. Malcolm,2023-05-31 Interpersonal violence has many faces and many names domestic violence child abuse school bullying Anger Aggression and Interventions for Interpersonal Violence reveals what clinical scientists know and what mental health practitioners can do about interpersonal violence To advance the way professionals conceptualize interventions for violent clients contributors consider the complex relation between anger and aggression and discuss how that relation affects treating various forms of interpersonal violence Should treatment focus on anger on aggression or on both Does that decision depend on the form of interpersonal violence or does the anger aggression relation suggest a core set of intervention principles and strategies Readers are provided up to date detailed discussions as well as focused commentaries all written by internationally known researchers This volume will serve as a comprehensive guide for researchers and practitioners alike Morning Glory Junior M. Gonzales,2019-10-17 Morning Glory comprises inspiring and motivational devotionals prayers and thoughts to get your day off to a spiritually enriched and triumphant start Wake up each day to fresh new commentary on the word of God which will give you a feeling of hope and an injection of spiritual strength and determination The book will take you on an exciting journey leading to a more meaningful and lasting Christian experience every single day Rewriting White Masculinities in Contemporary Fiction and Film Josep M. Armengol,2024-03-25 This book focuses on the construction of hegemonic masculinity as well as its representations in literature culture and film Although white heterosexual masculinity continues to be the dominant model it remains paradoxically largely invisible in gender terms While the first three chapters thus offer introductory theoretical perspectives on the latest research on white masculinities the following chapters concentrate on applying masculinity theory to the analysis of both social constructions and cultural i e literary and film representations of men s emotions with a special focus on new fatherhood models friendships between men as well as gender based violence

The Emerald International Handbook of Feminist Perspectives on Women's Acts of Violence Stacy Banwell,Lynsey Black,Dawn K. Cecil,Yanyi K. Djamba,Sitawa R. Kimuna,Emma Milne,Lizzie Seal,Eric Y. Tenkorang,2023-08-02 Grounded in feminist scholarship this book upends normative accounts of femme fatale violence to focus beyond the misogyny and the sensationalism and unearth the motivation behind women s roles in homicide terrorism combat and even nationalist movements Men's Rights, Gender, and Social Media Christa Hodapp,2017-09-05 This work examines the contemporary men s rights movement MRM a mainly online movement that claims men are oppressed by gender norms women and feminism While some feminists and other

progressives have dismissed the movement as simple misogyny this book argues that the MRM expresses a growing cultural trend in male anger and frustration and is an extreme manifestation of what has been previously referred to as a masculinity crisis In order to assess the implications of the MRM for gender politics this book explores the movement politically investigating the ways in which online communication and media outlets have impacted contemporary meanings of identity gender language and political engagement Furthermore a discussion of various issues promoted by the MRM such as parenting divorce employment and violence provide deeper insights into the issues surrounding masculinity and gender politics in current sociopolitical contexts

Youth Violence Catherine Ward, Andrew Dawes, Amelia van der Merwe, 2012-01-25 Youth violence Sources and solutions in South Africa thoroughly and carefully reviews the evidence for risk and protective factors that influence the likelihood of young people acting aggressively Layers of understanding are built by viewing the problem from a multitude of perspectives including the current situation in which South African youth are growing up perspectives from developmental psychology the influences of race class and gender and of the media The book then reviews the evidence for effective interventions in the contexts of young people's lives their homes their schools their leisure activities with gangs in the criminal justice system in cities and neighbourhoods and with sexual offenders In doing so thoughtful suggestions are made for keeping an evidence based perspective while necessarily adapting interventions for developing world contexts such as South Africa Youth violence in South Africa Sources and solutions is a valuable addition to the library of anyone who has ever wondered about youth violence or wanted to do something about it

Female Victims of Violent Crime Caroline Wolf Harlow, 1991 The Child's World Jan Horwath, Janet Anne Basarab-Horwath, 2010 Rev ed of The child's world assessing children in need 2001

Familicide, Gender and the Media Denise Buiten, 2022-11-17 This book examines the complex issue of familicide suicide the murder of a partner and children followed by suicide The purpose of the book is two fold to advance a feminist sociological analysis of familicide as a form of gender based violence and to examine how it is reported on in news The first section contextualises interpretations of familicide against the dual ascendancy of and contestation around feminist and mental illness discourses in public policy and debate Advancing a feminist sociological analysis of familicide suicide it shows the value of continuum thinking for understanding complex and varied forms of gender based violence Section Two examines Australian news reporting on familicide suicide showing the ways cultural assumptions about domestic and family violence and mental illness shape news reporting It analyses how discourses of gender disability age and the family serve to rationalise certain news frames and reflects on the thorny ethical issues inherent in reporting on familicide Arguing for a nuanced approach to gender based violence and how it is reported this book will be of interest for scholars of gender and violence as well as media and journalism
