Experience in Feminist Theologies of Atonement Linda D. Peacore,2010-03-11 A strong critique of traditional atonement theology is found in the work of many contemporary feminist theologians This approach in large part is related to the notion of women s experience a category that is used widely within feminist theology But what is women s experience and how does it affect feminist theology particularly views on the atonement The category of women s experience is pivotal to feminist theology yet its use may lead to models of atonement that place excessive stress upon the subjective element of Christ s saving work thereby neglecting to address adequately the objective aspects of the cross This book focuses on the methodological issues regarding the category of women s experience generally its definition and use in feminist theology with a more detailed analysis of its use in the context of feminist theologies of atonement Utilizing the work of a wide variety of feminist theologians in conversation with theologies of experience this work attempts to understand the role of women s experience as it shapes feminist views on the atonement noting the strengths and limitations of feminist approaches to
