Lisle, 2017-05-31 From the legendary Ebbets Field in the heart of Brooklyn to the amenity packed Houston Astrodome to the retro Oriole Park at Camden Yards stadiums have taken many shapes and served different purposes throughout the history of American sports culture In the early twentieth century a new generation of stadiums arrived located in the city center easily accessible to the public and offering affordable tickets that drew mixed crowds of men and women from different backgrounds But in the successive decades planners and architects turned sharply away from this approach In Modern Coliseum Benjamin D Lisle tracks changes in stadium design and culture since World War II These engineered marvels channeled postwar national ambitions while replacing aging ballparks typically embedded in dense urban settings They were stadiums designed for the affluent society brightly colored technologically expressive and geared to the car driving consumerist suburbanite The modern stadium thus redefined one of the city's more rambunctious and diverse public spaces Modern Coliseum offers a cultural history of this iconic but overlooked architectural form Lisle grounds his analysis in extensive research among the archives of teams owners architects and cities examining how design construction and operational choices were made Through this approach we see modernism on the ground as it was imagined designed built and experienced as both an architectural and a social phenomenon With Lisle's compelling analysis supplemented by over seventy five images documenting the transformation of the American stadium over time Modern Coliseum will be of interest to a variety of readers from urban and architectural historians to sports fans Frommer's City Guide to New York 1995 Faye Hammel, George McDonald, Arthur Frommer, 1994-09 The Metropolitan Opera Central Park Wall Street Greenwich Village Trinity Church these are only a few of the attractions that make New York one of the world's top travel destinations Travelers who want to see it all or who have time to see only a fraction of the city will want to take this excellent guide along Maps Spatial Cognition IV, Reasoning, Action, Interaction C.
