Heavenly Fire The Life And Ministry Of William Grimshaw Of Haworth:

Heavenly Fire Esther Bennett,2000 Nestled in the rugged hills of West Yorkshire Haworth was a bleak working class village in eighteenth century England As the Evangelical Revival was spreading throughout England and America William Grimshaw was preaching the gospel and leading many in this northern town and its vicinity to faith in Christ His unflagging labours extended to the surrounding towns for miles around and when men like George Whitefield and John Wesley key figures and leading preachers of their day visited Haworth on their preaching tours they were witness to the tremendous awakening and spiritual vitality that had been wrought in men and women through the ministry of Grimshaw This brief sketch of Grimshaw s life will bring you face to face with a humble man whose heavenly fire was used to transform poor villagers into those who knew the riches of Christ Revival Michael A. G. Haykin,2024-02-19 Historian Michael Haykin examines spiritual renewals of the past to inspire you to pray for revival in our day The Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth ,2000 Life Transforming Truth William E. Payne,2001 With a thoroughly biblical approach coupled with clarity of thought and expression on the doctrines of grace this text is the perfect primer for a weak and ailing Christian church Christian

Life and Writings of the Late Reverend William Grimshaw, A.B., Minister of Haworth William Myles,1813 William Grimshaw: the Perpetual Curate of Haworth Simon Ross Valentine,2018-12-20 In eighteenth century England the Evangelical Revival took place mainly under the preaching of John and Charles Wesley and George Whitefield But as well as these famous well known figures there were many other preachers and workers who aided the Wesley s in establishing Methodism throughout the British Isles One of those unsung heroes was the Rev William Grimshaw the perpetual curate of Haworth in Yorkshire Grimshaw 1708 1763 undergoing an evangelical conversion experience whilst serving as an Anglican clergyman in Todmorden took up a Church position at nearby Haworth and became one of the most important revival preachers in the north of England Charismatic if not eccentric this evangelist dubbed Mad Grimshaw due to his fiery preaching style travelling and preaching throughout the northern counties was the main figure establishing a circuit of well regulated religious groups known as the Great Haworth Round His life not only provides a picture of an 18th century revivalist but it also gives insight into the lives of other lesser known revival preachers such as Benjamin Ingham and John Bennet This booklet presents an informative bite size introduction to Grimshaw s life an excellent read for anyone interested in Methodism or revival history and for any visitor to Haworth and Grimshaw s church Memoirs of the Life of the Late William Grimshaw, A.B., Minister of Haworth, in the West-Riding of the County of York John Newton,Rev.
