Sadeq Hedayat Homa Katouzian, 2021-10-21 Sadeq Hedayat is the most famous and the most enigmatic Iranian writer of the 20th century This book is the first comprehensive study of Hedayat's life and works set against the background of literary and political developments in a rapidly changing Iran over the first half of the 20th century Katouzian discusses Hedayat's life and times and the literary and political circles with which he was associated But he also emphasises the uniqueness and universality of his ideas that have both influenced and set Hedayat apart from other Iranian writers of the period and that have given him a mystique that has been instrumental in his posthumous success with acclaimed works such as The Blind Owl This second edition is fully revised and updated to reflect on recent debates and scholarship on Sadeq Hedayat

Hedāyat's 'The Blind Owl' Forty Years After Michael Craig Hillmann, 1978      Oriental Responses to the West Nasrin Rahimieh, 1990 Modern writers and scholars from the Islamic East have represented actual or fictional encounters with the West in a surprising variety of ways Far from constituting a monolithic approach to the West as Western Orientalism often tended to these writings reveal an interest in and sometimes acute perception of cross cultural conflict and synthesis The very difficulties experienced by writers and critics immersed in two or more cultures have led to new creative and innovative forms of response to the West By shifting focus in East West relations towards the East it initiates further interdisciplinary discussions      Culture and Depression Arthur Kleinman, Byron J. Good, 2023-04-28 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies agreements and conceptual and methodological problems that arise in the course of such research A book of enormous depth and breadth of discussion Culture and Depression enriches the cross cultural study of emotions and mental illness and leads it in new directions It commences with a historical study followed by a series of anthropological accounts that examine the problems that arise when depression is assessed in other cultures This is a work of impressive scholarship which demonstrates that anthropological approaches to affect and illness raise central questions for psychiatry and psychology and that cross cultural studies of depression raise equally provocative questions for anthropology This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies      Monographic Series Library of Congress,      The Image of Arabs in Modern Persian Literature Joya Blondel Saad, 1996 The Image of Arabs in Modern Persian Literature considers the problem of defining Iranian-ness given
