When a stranger arrives with a message that the Lord of Dewanne has died and appointed Volle s son Yilon his heir the young fox realizes that there are worse places than Divalia Dewanne is one of the most remote cities in Tephos in a mountainous province where foxes rule and mice are relegated to menial jobs and a slum outside the main city Which makes it more difficult for Yilon to explain why his companion Sinch is a mouse Ever the schemer Yilon hatches a plan to get sent home to Vinton His plan quickly goes awry as he finds that even in a backwards town there are complicated politics family betrayals and ancient blood feuds old wounds that his clumsy acts have reopened With two different groups trying to kill him and even the foxes on his side alienated by his attitude he has nowhere to turn but Sinch But Sinch has run afoul of a band of thieves in the mouse slums and now has his own death threats to deal with not to mention the hatred of a city of foxes Yilon will need all the stubbornness and cleverness he s inherited from his father just to survive to the next sunrise let alone save his inheritance his friend and his new city Back cover The Elven Romance Vivienne van Zwaluwenhof, The morning mist clung to the ancient oaks like whispered secrets each droplet catching the first rays of dawn and transforming them into tiny prisms of light Lyrarei had walked this path countless times since childhood but today something felt different The very air seemed to hum with an energy she couldn t quite place as if the forest itself was holding its breath in anticipation She paused beside the Crystal Brook where the water sang its eternal song over smooth river stones Her reflection gazed back at her from the clear surface silver hair cascading over her shoulders like moonlight made tangible The pointed tips of her ears so characteristic of her people caught the dappled sunlight filtering through the canopy above At one hundred and twenty three years old she was still considered young by elven standards though she often felt as ancient as the trees that surrounded her homeland of Ethereal Glen. A sudden rustling in the undergrowth made her turn. From between the towering ferns emerged a figure she had never seen before yet one that seemed strangely familiar. He was tall even by elven standards with hair the color of burnished copper that fell in gentle waves to his shoulders. His eyes a deep forest green met hers across the babbling brook and Lyrarei felt something shift within her chest as if her heart had forgotten its rhythm for just a moment. Forgive me, he said, his voice carrying the musical quality common to their kind yet with undertones she had never heard before. I did not mean to startle you. I am lost. There was something in the way he spoke the last word that suggested he meant more than simply having misplaced his way through the forest. Lyrarei found herself stepping closer to the water's edge drawn by an invisible thread she could neither see nor understand.
