Religion, Text, and Society in Medieval Spain and Northern Europe J. N. Hillgarth,Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies,2002 History of Linguistics 2002 Eduardo Guimarães,Diana Luz Pessoa de Barros,2007-07-13 This volume brings together a selection of revised papers originally presented at ICHoLS IX S o Paulo Campinas The papers in the first section deal with studies ranging from the Latin model in post Renaissance grammars to new scientific propositions at the turn of the 19th century the second part carries articles devoted to a variety of topics in 19th and 20th century linguistics and in the third section are united papers based on plenary presentations ranging from ancient Greek reflections upon language to developments in Brazilian linguistics beginning with the implantation of structuralist work by Joaquim Mattoso C mara 1904 1970 in the 1960s In the concluding contribution a survey of advances in the history of the language sciences is offered Philosophers on Art from Kant to the Postmodernists Christopher Kul-Want,2010-06-04 Here for the first time Christopher Kul Want brings together twenty five texts on art written by twenty philosophers Covering the Enlightenment to postmodernism these essays draw on Continental philosophy and aesthetics the Marxist intellectual tradition and psychoanalytic theory and each is accompanied by an overview and interpretation The volume features Martin Heidegger on Van Gogh s shoes and the meaning of the Greek temple Georges Bataille on Salvador Dal s The Lugubrious Game Theodor W Adorno on capitalism and collage Walter Benjamin and Roland Barthes on the uncanny nature of photography Sigmund Freud on Leonardo Da Vinci and his interpreters Jacques Lacan and Julia Kristeva on the paintings of Holbein Freud s postmodern critic Gilles Deleuze on the visceral paintings of Francis Bacon and Giorgio Agamben on the twin traditions of the Duchampian ready made and Pop Art Kul Want elucidates these texts with essays on aesthetics from Hegel and Nietzsche to Badiou and Ranci re demonstrating how philosophy adopted a new orientation toward aesthetic experience and subjectivity in the wake of Kant s powerful legacy

Morphologie G. E. Booij,Christian Lehmann,Joachim Mugdan,2000 This series of HANDBOOKS OF LINGUISTICS AND COMMUNICATION SCIENCE is designed to illuminate a field which not only includes general linguistics and the study of linguistics as applied to specific languages but also covers those more recent areas which have developed from the increasing body of research into the manifold forms of communicative action and interaction For classic linguistics there appears to be a need for a review of the state of the art which will provide a reference base for the rapid advances in research undertaken from a variety of theoretical standpoints

while in the more recent branches of communication science the handbooks will give researchers both an overview and orientation To attain these objectives the series will aim for a standard comparable to that of the leading handbooks in other disciplines and to this end will strive for comprehensiveness theoretical explicitness reliable documentation of data and findings and up to date methodology The editors both of the series and of the individual volumes and the individual contributors are committed to this aim The languages of publication are English German and French The main aim of the series is to provide an appropriate account of the state of the art in the various areas of linguistics and communication science covered by each of the various handbooks however no inflexible pre set limits will be imposed on the scope of each volume The series is open ended and can thus take account of further developments in the field This conception coupled with the necessity of allowing adequate time for each volume to be prepared with the necessary care means that there is no set time table for the publication of the whole series Each volume will be a self contained work complete in itself The order in which the handbooks are published does not imply any rank ordering but is determined by the way in which the series is organized the editor of the whole series enlist a competent editor for each individual volume Once the principal editor for a volume has been found he or she then has a completely free hand in the choice of co editors and contributors The editors plan each volume independently of the others being governed only by general formal principles The series editor only intervene where questions of delineation between individual volumes are concerned It is felt that this modus operandi is best suited to achieving the objectives of the series namely to give a competent account of the present state of knowledge and of the perception of the problems in the area covered by each volume

The Concept of News in Ancient Greek Literature Raquel Fornieles, 2022-12-05 The concept of news that we have today is not a modern invention but rather a social and cultural institution that has been passed down to us by the Greeks as a legacy This concept is only modified by the social political and economic conditions that make our society different from theirs In order to understand what was considered news in Ancient Greece a lexical study of and all of its derivatives attested in a representative corpus of the period spanning from the second millennium BC to the end of the fourth BC has been conducted This piece of research provides new contributions both to studies in Classics there are hardly any studies on the transmission of news in Antiquity and in journalism This study also reveals an interesting point the presence of false news similar to current fake news in ancient Greek literature especially in tragedy and historiography when it comes to the use of the derivatives of House & Garden, 1967-07

The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano, 2015-02-24 In The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano probes the rich and complex aesthetic and intellectual charge of a remarkably concise art form and explores its role as a powerful agent of epistemological change during one of the most seismic moments in French history The pre-Revolutionary portrait bust was inextricably tied to the formation of modern selfhood and to the construction of individual identity during the Enlightenment while positioning both sitters and viewers as part of a collective of individuals who together formed French society In analyzing the contribution of the portrait bust to the construction of interiority and the formulation of new gender roles and political ideals this book touches upon a set of concerns that constitute the very core of our modernity

Prague Linguistic Circle Papers Eva Hajicová, Tomas Hoskovec, 1999 This volume is the third one of the revived series of Travaux which was the well known international book series of the classical Prague Linguistic Circle published in the years 1929-39 The tradition of the Circle still attracts attention in broad circles of European and American linguistics Ancient Literacies William A Johnson, Holt N Parker, 2009-02-05 This timely volume attempts to formulate interesting new ways of talking about the entire concept of literacy in the ancient world literacy not in the sense of whether 10% or 30% of people in the ancient world could read or write but in the sense of text-oriented events embedded in a particular socio-cultural context The volume is intended as a forum in which selected leading scholars rethink from the ground up how students of classical antiquity might best approach the question of literacy in the past and how that investigation might materially intersect with changes in the way that literacy is now viewed in other disciplines
