Helene Cixous Writing And Sexual Difference:

Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Helene Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts including the other bisexuality the third body and literature feminine Bray demonstrates through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce Virginia Woolf Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze and Derrida Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times Helene Cixous Verena Andermatt Conley, 1991-01-01 Born in Algeria in 1937 Helene Cixous achieved world fame for her short stories criticism and fictionalized autobiography Dedans 1969 Her work quickly became controversial because it frankly tested a distinction between male and female writing Her literary experiments and her conclusions make her one of the most stimulating and most elusive feminist theorists of our time Verena Andermatt Conley a professor of French and women's studies at Miami University has written the first full length study of Cixous in English Looking at Cixous as writer teacher and theoretician Conley takes up Cixous's ongoing exploration of the feminine as related to the masculine words not to be equated with woman and man and her search for a terminology less freighted with emotion and prejudgment Conley has updated this paperback edition with a new preface bibliography and interview with Cixous conducted by the editors of Hors Cadre

Excess and Embodiment in Contemporary Women's Writing Zeynep Zeren Atayurt, 2011-08-01 The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious reimaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women's writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment

Hélène Cixous, Rootprints Mireille Calle-Gruber, Hélène Cixous, 2012-11-12 Helene Cixous is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant and innovative contemporary thinkers Published here in English for the first time Helene Cixous Rootprints is an ideal introduction to Cixous's theory and her fiction tracing her development as a writer and intellectual whose remarkable prespicacity and electrifying poetic force are known world wide Unprecedented in its form and content this collection breaks new ground in the theory and practice of autobiography Cixous's creative reflections on the past provide occasion for scintillating forays into the future The text includes an extended interview between Cixous and Calle Gruber exploring Cixous's creative and intellectual processes a revealing collection of photographs taken from Cixous's family album

set against a poetic reflection by the author selections from Cixous's private notebooks a contribution by Jacques Derrida original thing pieces by Calle Gruber The Taiwanese Cinematization of Feminine Writing Ya-chen Chen,2022-09-30 A number of Taiwanese scholars gate kept filtered selected and strategized to transfer Luce Irigaray's Hélène Cixous's and Julia Kristeva's French feminist theories into their own national context by exerting their cross lingual and cross cultural academic power in the 1990s They also reshaped localized acculturated marketed and Taiwanized these French feminist theories which was essential for Taiwanese academia According to French feminist literary theories critique of feminine feminine writing refers to women's own written self expression used to escape from the patriarchal language system Beginning with a description of the acculturation of French feminist literary theories this book highlights how women's own spoken voices or autobiographical written expressions appear in Taiwanese cinematic works when the camera is compared to the cinematic pen It analytically digests the critique of feminine of parler femme in the Taiwanese films The Butcher's Wife Taste of Life Sex Appeal and Ghosted Critical Writing for Embodied Approaches Elizabeth Mackinlay,2019-02-21 Autoethnography is a unique discipline which steps inside and outside the self to experience embody and express social and cultural meaning At once a performative political and poetic genre of research writing it holds the potential to uncover the heart of the world if only for a moment The author uses theory as story and story as theory to explore her place in the world through painstaking and intimate self and social narratives to lay bare the unique challenges and rewards of autoethnography Framed around the metaphor of heartlines the author explores autoethnographic practice as critical feminist and decolonial work and the power it holds for not only imagining a wise ethical and loving world but for making such a kind place possible Through a performative journey of the heart we travel with the author as she unearths the power of words of writing and not writing evoking in particular the work of Hélène Cixous and Virginia Woolf This reflective passionate and pioneering volume will be of interest and value to all those interested in autoethnography and the ways in which it can be applied as critical ethical and political work in the social sciences On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues,Elia Przybylo,2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual's appearance it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social cultural and political spaces and capital The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio political order It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization colonization and settler colonialism gender making ableism heteronormativity and fatphobia On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing Language and Sexual Difference Susan Sellers,1991-12-02 An accessible introduction to French feminist theory and contemporary French women's writing for non French speakers The book offers a context to this challenging controversial body of work by giving clear accounts of the philosophical post structural and psychoanalytic debates which have had such an impact on French intellectual life in recent years and to which French feminist writers offer a response

Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals Federica Bueti,2022-12-07 Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression exclusion and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies The book provides today s readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing Drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde Carla Lonzi Hélène Cixous Hortense Spillers Alexis Pauline Gumbs Anne Boyer and Simone White the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life

Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton,2010-12-20 Now in its third edition Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single volume introduction to a vital and diverse field Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade Includes extracts from all the major critics critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies Features a new section Writing Global which covers feminism s dialogue with postcolonial global and spatial studies Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading

Writing Differences Susan Sellers,1988 Writing Differences is a collection of readings from the members of Helene Cixous research seminar at the Centre d Etudes Feminines in Paris They have been commissioned to illustrate the Centre s pioneering work on sexual difference and its relationship to literary text The readings cover a multi national range of literatures and a variety of literary periods and genres Questions of sexual and gender difference are posed and answered in the context of post structuralist contemporary philosophical and psychoanalytic debate

We Only Talk Feminist Here Briony Lipton,Elizabeth Mackinlay,2016-12-01 This book explores what it means to only talk feminist here in the contemporary neoliberal university How do feminist academics effect change How are feminist voices sounded heard received silenced and masked We Only Talk Feminist Here offers insight into the complexities contradictions and possibilities of talking feminist of writing as speaking problematising notions of voice and agency of speaking into the silences and the ways in which we fight for and flee to feminist spaces and of talking back This book presents new possibilities for framing talking feminist differently by exploring what we say when we say it how we say it and what it means when we do any of these things in terms of our multiple and shifting feminist subjectivities We Only Talk Feminist Here draws upon interviews and conversations with feminist academics in Australia to demonstrate the performative and discursive moves feminist academics make in order to be heard and effect change to the gendered status quo in Australian higher education

Reading the Song of Songs in a #MeToo Era ,2023-06-26 The Song of Songs is the only book of the Bible to privilege the voice of a woman and its poetry of love and eroticism also bears witness to violence How do the contemporary MeToo movement and other movements of protest and accountability renew questions about women gender sex and the problematic of the public at the heart of this ancient poetry This edited volume seeks to reinvigorate feminist scholarship on the Song by exploring diverse contexts of reading from Akkadian love lyrics to Hildegard of Bingen to Marc Chagall

Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones Irwin, 2016-04-22 Michel Foucault refers to 1965 1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida's work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida's work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida's relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory

Engaging the Bible in a Gendered World Linda Day, Carolyn Pressler, 2006-01-01 In highly accessible essays the book covers the history achievements and cutting edge questions in the area of gender and biblical scholarship including violence and the Bible female biblical God imagery and sexuality Jacket

Art and Aesthetics of Modern Mythopoeia V2 Ritushree Sengupta & Ashish Kumar Gupta, 2021-05-15 Human culture has always weaved myths around its pattern of existence for multiple purposes The interplay of religion and social practices have found their own space within the sphere of mythology It is possible to read mythical texts to probe into the greater picture of human civilization The contribution of myths towards the shaping of human beliefs behavioural patterns are evident and assessing them often reveals a plethora of cultural histories unexplored and therefore unacknowledged before The contribution of mythopoeia towards the construct of human socio cultural identity has been largely accepted Modern academia has thus taken a strong interest in revisionist literature to understand the hitherto unknown nuances of human civilization In the edited anthology Art and Aesthetics of Modern Mythopoeia Literatures Myths and Revisionism Vol II like the first volume an attempt has been made to anthologize the works of a large number of authors who have talked about pertinent issues in the context of myth making the latent politics of mythopoeia and has taken into account several under explored texts that are rich in mythical content This volume offers a wide range of critical studies involving classical as well as modern myths around the globe
