Rough South, Rural South Jean W. Cash, Keith Perry, 2016-02-12 Essays in Rough South Rural South describe and discuss the work of southern writers who began their careers in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries They fall into two categories Some born into the working class strove to become writers and learned without benefit of higher education such writers as Larry Brown and William Gay Others came from lower or middle class backgrounds and became writers through practice and education Dorothy Allison Tom Franklin Tim Gautreaux Clyde Edgerton Kaye Gibbons Silas House Jill McCorkle Chris Offutt Ron Rash Lee Smith Brad Watson Daniel Woodrell and Steve Yarbrough Their twenty first century colleagues are Wiley Cash Peter Farris Skip Horack Michael Farris Smith Barb Johnson and Jesmyn Ward In his seminal article Erik Bledsoe distinguishes Rough South writers from such writers as William Faulkner and Erskine Caldwell Younger writers who followed Harry Crews were born into and write about the Rough South These writers undercut stereotypes forcing readers to see the working poor differently The next pieces begin with those on Crews and Cormac McCarthy major influences on an entire generation Later essays address members of both groups the self educated and the college educated Both groups share a clear understanding of the value of working class southerners Nearly all of the writers hold a reverence for the South s landscape and its inhabitants as well as an affinity for realistic depictions of setting and characters Hell's Foundations Quiver David Weber,2015-10-13 Centuries after survivors of the first human alien war start over in an unindustrialized region under religious rule a cybernetic avatar reawakens to restart humanity s progress and claim its place in the universe The House at the End of the Road W. Ralph Eubanks,2009-05-13 W Ralph Eubanks presents a powerful memoir about race and identity told through the lives of one American family across three generations In 1914 in defiance of his middle class landowning family a young white man named James Morgan Richardson married a light skinned black woman named Edna Howell Over more than twenty years of marriage they formed a strong family and built a house at the end of a winding sandy road in South Alabama a place where their safety from the hostile world around them was assured and where they developed a unique racial and cultural identity Jim and Edna Richardson were W Ralph Eubanks s grandparents Part personal journey part cultural biography The House at the End of the Road examines a little known piece of this country s past interracial families that survived and prevailed despite Jim Crow laws including those prohibiting mixed race marriage As he did in his acclaimed memoir Ever Is a Long Time Eubanks uses interviews oral history and archival research to tell a story about race in American life that few readers have experienced Using the Richardson family as a microcosm of American views on race and identity The House at the End of the Road examines why ideas about racial identity rooted in the eighteenth century persist today In lyrical evocative prose this extraordinary book pierces the heart of issues of race and racial identity leaving us ultimately hopeful about the world as our children might see it It tells us that compassion and the stirring force of individual human endeavor finally mean more than anything Pulitzer Prize winning author Richard Ford The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin,2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction Lost in Action Dick Bilyeu,2012-11-21 Lost in action a term used to account for soldiers last seen in combat but not identified as killed or captured was applied to the author for years following his capture
