Writing test scores indicate that boys have fallen far behind girls across the grades In general boys don't enjoy writing as much as girls What's wrong How can we do a better job of creating boy friendly classrooms so their voices can be heard In Boy Writers Reclaiming Their Voices Ralph Fletcher draws upon his years of experience as staff developer children's book author and father of four boys He also taps the insights from dozens of writing teachers around the US and abroad Boy Writers asks teachers to imagine the writing classroom from a boy's perspective and consider specific steps we might take to create stimulating classrooms for boys Topic choice emerges as a crucial issue The subjects many boys like to write about war weapons outlandish fiction zany or bathroom humor often do not get a warm reception from teachers Fletcher argues that we must widen the circle and give boys more choice if we want to engage them as writers How We must begin by
