Henning,2021-09-21 The first major book to examine ancient Christian literature on hell through the lenses of gender and disability studies Throughout the Christian tradition descriptions of hell's fiery torments have shaped contemporary notions of the afterlife divine justice and physical suffering But rarely do we consider the roots of such conceptions which originate in a group of understudied ancient texts the early Christian apocalypses In this pioneering study Meghan Henning illuminates how the bodies that populate hell in early Christian literature largely those of women enslaved persons and individuals with disabilities are punished after death in spaces that mirror real carceral spaces effectually criminalizing those bodies on earth Contextualizing the apocalypses alongside ancient medical texts inscriptions philosophy and patristic writings this book demonstrates the ways that Christian depictions of hell intensified and preserved ancient notions of gender and bodily normativity that continue to inform Christian identity Behind the Eightball Chuck Hagel, Bees in Early Modern Transatlantic Literature Nicole A. Jacobs, 2020-11-29 This book examines apian imagery bees drones honey and the hive in the seventeenth and eighteenth century literary and oral traditions In England and the New World colonies during a critical period of expansion the metaphor of this communal society faced unprecedented challenges even as it came to emblemize the process of colonization itself The beehive connected the labor of those marginalized by race class gender or species to larger considerations of sovereignty This study examines the works of William Shakespeare Francis Daniel Pastorius Hopi Wyandotte and Pocasset cultures John Milton Hester Punter and Bernard Mandeville Its contribution lies in its exploration of the simultaneously recuperative and destructive narratives that place the bee at the nexus of the human the animal and the environment The book argues that bees play a central representational and physical role in shaping conflicts over hierarchies of the early transatlantic world On Descending Into Hell Robert Williams Buchanan, 1889 Traditional Aspects of Hell, Ancient and Modern James Mew, 1903
