Idaho's Place Adam M. Sowards, 2014-07-01 Idaho's Place is an anthology of the most current and original writing on Gem State history. From the state's indigenous roots and early environmental battles to recent political and social events, these essays provide much needed context for understanding Idaho's important role in the development of the American West. Through a creative approach that combines explorations of concepts such as politics, gender, and race with the oral histories of Idaho residents, the very people who lived and made state history, this unique collection sheds new light on the state's surprisingly contentious past. Readers, whether they are longtime residents or newcomers, tourists or seasonal dwellers, policy makers or historians, will be treated to a rich narrative in which the many threads of Idaho's history entwine to produce a complete tapestry of this beautiful and complex Western state. The B-29 Superfortress Chronology, 1934-1960 Robert A. Mann, 2009-09-12 The Boeing B-29 Superfortress lived an operational life of only 26 years, but what a life it was! The introduction to this book provides basic information on the physical plane, dimensions, specs, leading particulars, and operational usages. Then an exhaustive day-by-day chronology of the B-29 is presented from the earliest designs in 1934 through thousands of missions and aircraft events in World War II and Korea to the 1960 retirement of the last operational B-29. The book also includes an extensive glossary and three appendices which provide a discussion of the general anatomy of a mission, a sample of operational voice or radio codes used in 1945, and a guide to very unofficial aircraft names. The B-29 Superfortress Robert A. Mann, 2015-07-11 The B-29 Superfortress was for many years a cornerstone of American military aviation. Best known as a bomber, it also served in reconnaissance, as a tanker, and as a rescue plane. It was a crucial tool for American and Allied forces during World War II, Korea, and beyond. This operational history of the B-29 gives in depth information on the career of each plane: a list of the names and serial numbers of the planes, each plane's history from delivery date to removal from service, a description of the B-29's physical characteristics and performance parameters, and a description of the five B-29 variants are provided. Sections of the book give complete mission data for the B-29's World War II service in the China-Burma-India theater of operations, operations over Japan, aerial mining missions, and test atomic bombing runs. Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1989 Merchant Vessels of the United States United States Coast Guard, 1976 Serial Killers Jamie King, 2024-02-08 A gripping true crime compendium of some of the world's most infamous and shocking mass murderers, such as John Wayne Gacy, the Boston Strangler, the Moors murderers, and Harold Shipman, as well as some lesser-known figures. This book not only relates the disturbing events that transpired but also delves into the psychology of the perpetrators. Soldier of Fortune, 2003 The Pacific Northwest Carlos A. Schwantes, 1996-01-01 Carlos Arnaldo Schwantes has revised and expanded the entire work, which is still the most comprehensive and balanced history of the region. This edition contains significant additional material on early mining in the Pacific Northwest, sea routes to Oregon in the early discovery and contact period, the environment of the region, the impact of the Klondike gold rush and politics since 1945 Recent environmental controversies such as endangered salmon runs and the spotted owl dispute have been addressed as has the effect of the Cold War on the region s economy The author has also expanded discussion of the roles of women and minorities and updated statistical information The Men Who Flew the Heavy Bombers Martin W. Bowman,2022-08-09 Martin Bowman s considerable experience as a military historian has spanned over forty years during which time he has amassed a wealth of material on the participation by RAF and Commonwealth and US 8th and 15th Air Force crews in the series of raids on the cities and oil transportation and industrial targets in the Third Reich culminating in Round the Clock bombing by the RAF operating at night on the largely forgotten Stirling the gamely Halifax and ultimately the more successful Lancaster and the US 8th Air Force B 17 Flying Fortress and B 24 Liberator crews by day on a target list so long and wide ranging that it defies the imagination Hundreds of hours of painstaking and fact finding research and interviews and correspondence with numerous airmen and women and their relatives in Britain America and beyond has been woven into a highly readable and emotional outpouring of life and death in combat over the Third Reich as the men of the RAF and Commonwealth and American air forces describe in their own words the compelling gripping and thought provoking narrative of the Combined Bomber Offensive in World War Two which resulted from the RAF nocturnal onslaught and the American unescorted precision attacks on targets throughout the Reich until the P 51 Mustang escort fighters enabled the 8th to assume the mantle of the leading bombing partner in theatre February and March 1945 saw the most intense bombing destruction when Nazi defences were minimal or absent and the war was all but over Final victory in May 1945 came at a high price indeed Half of the U S Army Air Forces casualties in World War II were suffered by Eighth Air Force with in excess of 47 000 casualties with more than 26 000 dead RAF Bomber Command lost 55 573 men killed out of a total of 125 000 aircrew and 8 403 wounded in action while 9 838 became prisoners of war RAF and American bomber crews could therefore be forgiven for thinking they had won a pyrrhic victory one that had taken such a heavy toll that negated any true sense of achievement though if nothing else the human effort spent by RAF Bomber Command and the Eighth Air Force did pave the way for the Soviet victory in the east Air Force Magazine ,1988
