The Making of a Reformation Man David M. Whitford, 2025-06-16 This volume explores how Martin Luther's life and teachings reshaped and redefined masculinity during the Reformation offering a more nuanced portrayal of him as a man grappling with the complexities of fatherhood marriage and the battlegrounds of religious controversy This book demonstrates how Luther forged a new ideal of Christian manhood by examining his struggles with monastic vows his transformation of the household as a spiritual center and his reshaping of male authority Integrating insights from cultural historians gender studies and feminist scholarship Whitford analyzes the intersections of gender power and religion during a time of profound social upheaval and change Through Luther's personal transformation this book reveals how early Protestant ideals of masculinity were intricately tied to broader religious political and cultural changes that reshaped Europe By placing Luther within the wider context of religious and social transformation this work offers a fresh perspective on his impact and the changing notions of masculinity in the early modern period The Making of a Reformation Man is a valuable resource for scholars and students of the Reformations and gender theory as well as readers interested in the broader implications of religious thought on societal roles and identity

Waking from a Fallen Dream Michael Bohoskey, 2007-08 What if Jesus never died for you What if his sole intention was to teach unconditional and universal love not only for you but for the entire world Michael John Bohoskey challenges us to take a different look at the role of Jesus Christ and religion in general in his spiritually awakening memoir Waking from a Fallen Dream. Even though a variety of Christian teachings defined Bohoskey's early life, he eventually discovered that many of his beliefs had to do with feelings of personal unworthiness and mistrust of his own nature. A former Episcopal priest, Bohoskey began a journey of self-discovery, questioning the most basic fundamentals of Christianity. In Waking from a Fallen Dream, he questions the beliefs that teach us that we are sinful by nature and separate from God. Instead, he believes that we should all wake to our own knowingness and empowerment, abandoning the collective programming we have allowed to control us. This is a book about giving oneself permission to question, explore, choose, live, and love without apology. Waking from a Fallen Dream is Bohoskey's heartfelt story of how he shed multiple uniforms of belief and behavior while following the yellow brick road of inner knowledge, allowing him to experience spiritual integrity and give unconditional love the opportunity to unfold.

Children at Risk in America Roberta Wollons, Roberta Lyn Wollons, 1993-01-01 This collection of essays addresses twentieth-century historical and contemporary issues regarding children who are considered to be at risk. The essays explore the language of risk as it is used by the courts, the schools, governmental agencies, and child advocates; those who discover risks and create correctives for children who both need protection and threaten to disturb the social order. The tasks require an exploration of differing, often contradictory, concepts of the child and society that are embedded in public policy debates. Deepening the complexity of the problems, institutions to which we look for solutions are too often faced with conflicts that arise when the needs of the child are at variance with the needs of the institutions themselves. These dilemmas are central to understanding our failure to achieve adequate public policy solutions for children at risk.
