Heavy Breathing Philip Whalen, 1983 The Image and Influence of America in German Poetry Since 1945 Gregory Divers, 2002 Examines the image of the US in German poetry and the reception and influence of American poetry in Germany since 1945 This book focuses on the image of the US in German poetry and the reception of American poetry in Germany since 1945 Gregory Divers examines poems by major figures in 20th century German literature Benn Brecht Bachmann Jandl and Grass among others and by other poets who shaped America's postwar image in Germany Divers traces America's postwar status in Germany from the prisoner of war poems of G nter Eich to the pop poetry of Rolf Dieter Brinkmann and Peter Handke Continuing he finds that although the 1960s protest poems of Erich Fried and others reflect the tarnishing of America's image due to Vietnam 1970s travel poems by Brinkmann Kunert and Kunze confirm the resiliency of that image Finally Divers looks at poems by Hartung Delius and Kling to illustrate the new heights reached by America's image within German literary circles during the 1980s and the status of America in Germany after reunification In charting these developments in postwar German poetry Divers also shows how American influences are crucial to its understanding not only surveying postwar German reception of Whitman Eliot Pound and William Carlos Williams but also examining the influence of such figures as Charles Olson and Robert Creeley Allen Ginsberg and the Beats Frank O Hara and John Ashbery and Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath Gregory Divers is Assistant Professor of German at Saint Louis University Situating Scandinavian Poetry in the Computational Network Environment Hans Kristian Strandstuen Rustad, 2023-09-05 How to grasp poetry in its contemporary digital situation a situation wherein poetry travels across digital and analog media platforms and intended or not collaborates with computers Situating Scandinavian Poetry in the Computational Network environment investigates how heterogeneous forms of poetry in Scandinavia interact with and work in a digital media environment how digital programmable and network media intervene with and shape new poetic forms or remediate older forms of poetry and how digital and digitalized poetry through its self reflexivity sheds light on digital media technology and its role for poetry and potentially for literature and aesthetics more in general In doing so it also argues for the importance of close reading poetry in digital media It includes an historical and theoretical approach to poetry in digital media and analysis of poetic works in Scandinavia The book is written within the framework of posthumanism and what N Katherine Hayles calls technogenesis and makes up the argument that contemporary poetry constitutes and is constituted by a computational network environment of human and non human subjects wherein poems travel in an egalitarian media ecology The book is relevant for researchers and students in the field of poetry students and researchers in the field of literary studies media studies and digital culture studies and teachers interested in presenting newer forms of poetry for their students Ten Poems for Difficult Times Roger Housden, 2018-02-10 In his bestselling Ten Poems series Roger Housden has shown an uncanny ability to choose and discuss poems that strike at the core of readers concerns and needs In this new volume ten extraordinary poems along with
