Heber Springs Portraits Toba Tucker,1996 Mike Disfarmer an eccentric local recluse photographed the residents of Heber Springs Arkansas in his studio on Main Street in the 1930s and 1940s His glass plate negatives were discovered fifteen years after his death When she first saw an exhibit of Mike Disfarmer s portraits Toba Tucker was intrigued by their raw honesty Her curiosity drew her to Heber Springs where she lived for two years making portraits of some of the same people Disfarmer photographed and of many of their relatives and descendants who still live there This unusual book is a rephotographic study Toba Tucker used Disfarmer s portraits as the starting point for the project but she brought her own personal vision to the images She shows how life in small town America has changed since the 1940s and how it has remained the same In his essay Alan Trachtenberg examines the conversation between then and now between Disfarmer and Tucker and observes that the strength the individuality and vitality of the people in both sets of portraits make this book affecting and resonant Arkansas Made, Volume 2 Swannee Bennett,Jennifer Carman,William B.
