Reading Hebrews and James Marie E. Isaacs, 2002 Reading Hebrews and James provides a clear path through the unique and often divisive Letter to the Hebrews and Letter of James Isaacs s commentary on these two letters expertly considers questions of authorship and historical context while also making both Hebrews and James undeniably relevant for today s faith Preachers and teachers alike will benefit from the essential study that Reading Hebrews and James offers

Hebrews and James Frances Taylor Gench, 1996-01-01 Hebrews and James contain useful advice for Christians struggling to live a life of faith In this book Frances Taylor Gench guides readers through these two relevant and inspirational epistles For believers who have grown weary or disillusioned with their Christian commitment the letter to the Hebrews offers much practical assistance In this day of dwindling church attendance and clergy burnout a new reading of Hebrews offers an encouraging and renewed understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ The letter of James deals primarily with the social and practical aspects of Christianity reminding the reader that Christian faith touches every aspect of life One of the most useful books in the New Testament its concerns are grounded in day to day questions How do we live How should we live and What are the implications of Christian faith for our lives This epistle will challenge and encourage modern readers in search of a life of integrity

Hebrews and James Gerald McDaniel, 2020-05-13 If I could afford it I would put a copy of the Book of Hebrews in the hand of every unbelieving Jew The entire Book of Hebrews is a wonderful gospel tract to the unbelieving Jew It answers every question that the Jew might have and reveals the true history of the Jew in the process This is why there should be no surprise to the fact that the author to the Book of Hebrews is not revealed in the book itself This author believes that the human author to the Book of Hebrews is Paul the Apostle

Rushdoony,2009-11-23 There is a resounding call in Hebrews which we cannot forget without going astray Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp bearing his reproach 13 13 This is a summons to serve Christ the Redeemer King fully and faithfully without compromise In our time it calls for a break not only with the prevailing culture of humanistic statism and its messianic claims and pretensions but also a wayward church that has made itself the handmaiden to Christ s enemies When James in his epistle says that faith without works is dead he tells us that faith is not a mere matter of words but it is of necessity a matter of life We are dead men if we no longer can breathe and we are spiritually dead if our faith is unaccompanied by works Too many churches are like graveyards because too many members have no living faith Pure religion and undefiled requires Christian charity and action Anything short of this is a self delusion James s letter is a corrective the church needs badly Jude similarly recalls us to Jesus Christ s apostolic commission Remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ v 17 Jude s letter is usually classified as an apocalyptic tract but we cannot forget that all the Bible speaks of a division between fallen and redeemed humanity between the saved and the lost of the necessity for a new creation beginning with us and of the inescapable triumph of the Kingdom of
