Madhu Malik, 1982 Love and Honour? David D E Evans, 2021-06-17 Love and Honour Marriage for Peace exposes the ongoing phenomenon of Romeo and Juliet style romance tragedy families killing their own and other families daughters sons sisters and brothers in the name of family honour Focused on Northern India and Nepal the stories illustrate that despite India adopting a democratic constitution in 1950 the public murder of forbidden lovers continues Media reports of this phenomenon did not surface until 1993 but have increased dramatically since then Love and Honour Marriage for Peace has been written to seek a path from murder to reconciliation to acceptance and ultimately to marriage for peace

'Performing' Nature Priyanka Basu, Radha Kapuria, 2025-02-18 This book is the first to explore the interconnections between ecology and performance in South Asia Aiming to green studies of music and performance this book explores intersections between ethnography history eco and ethnomusicology and film and performance studies by paying particular attention to the ecological turn more broadly visible in South Asian studies The essays in the volume take inspiration from these different methodological strains in recent scholarship connecting the environment with South Asian music and performance traditions The contributors address varied ecological settings of South Asian music and performance from riverscapes to coastal communities and from the locations of instrument makers to negotiations of the climate crisis and the COVID 19 pandemic The book also covers the vast geographical sweep of South Asia from Pakistan in the northwest to Sri Lanka in the south and from Bangladesh in the east to the Malabar coast of southwest India The novelty of the volume lies not just in mapping the dialogism between ecology and music through reflections on liminality gender resistance and identity but also in bringing forth new archival strategies digitisation and digital cultures in conversation with ethnographic findings This book will be of value to students and scholars of arts and environmental studies particularly those interested in the relationship between art culture and environment within the realm of South Asian music and performance traditions The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asia Journal of South Asian Studies and are accompanied by a new Foreword by Jim Sykes and an Afterword by Sugata Ray Present Day Romance Tragedy David D E Evans PhD OAM, 2022-06-30 1993 Reports from India of parents killing their children in public because of social shame related to forbidden marriage began coming to world attention 1993 Admira Ismi Bosniak and Boko Brki Serb were killed by sniper fire while fleeing the besieged city of Sarejevo on Vrbanka bridge now known as the Romeo and Juliet Bridge Their bravery became a symbol for the suffering of the people on all sides of the conflict The challenge of young people for rights to options is highlighted by the phenomenon and imperative of romance tragedy within and across cultures Globalisation brings awareness of other cultures of their legends and real life heroic stories of their struggles and sacrifices and of their social progress This study focuses on the time period from 1993 to the present time during which romance tragedy in India especially began attracting world attention through the media The first pillar of Gandhi's Satyagraha is truth claiming that openness to and awareness of the greater community the world community is a necessity of peace both at the family level and for the world community Nonviolence the second pillar is seen as the first step in the path of peace using the word peace here to equate with the enjoyment of good relationships Principles for the attainment and maintenance of good relations apply to individuals at the local level and to states and nations at the government level Martyrdom of romantic lovers choosing Gandhian like self sacrifice the third pillar continues today Reflecting hugely intense joy and sorrow storytelling of romance tragedy through the arts and media brings compelling heroism to our attention It leaves us with a message of hope for the new generation
