Helene Cixous Reader:

The Hélène Cixous Reader Susan Sellers, 2003-08-01 This is the first truly representative collection of texts by Helene Cixous. The substantial pieces range broadly across her entire oeuvre and include essays, works of fiction, lectures, and drama. Arranged helpfully in chronological order, the extracts span twenty years of intellectual thought and demonstrate clearly the development of one of the most creative and brilliant minds of the twentieth century. With a foreword by Jacques Derrida, a preface by Cixous herself, and first class editorial material by Susan Sellers, The Helene Cixous Reader is destined to become a key text of feminist writing. Helene Cixous Reader, The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D. Kritzman, Brian J. Reilly, M. B. DeBevoise, 2006 This valuable reference is an authoritative guide to 20th century French thought. It considers the intellectual figures, movements, and publications that helped define fields as diverse as history, psychoanalysis, film, philosophy, and economics. Helene Cixous Susan Sellers, 2013-06-10 This book is a clear and accessible introduction to the writings of Helene Cixous, novelist, dramatist, and critic whose work has had a major impact on feminist theory and practice. Susan Sellers, a major scholar on Cixous, provides a lucid account of Cixous's theoretical position and, in particular, her distinctive theory of an écriture féminine. She discusses the development of Cixous's literary oeuvre in the context of this theory and analyses a selection of the works in detail to illustrate the different stages in Cixous's writing career. Focusing on the key novels and plays, Sellers explores a range of issues and themes central to her work: the correlation between the death of Cixous's own father and her coming into being as a writer; the psychological process of separation and individuation and the creation of a female authorial self; the discovery of the other and the dramatization of love; the delineation and depiction of an alternative form of relationship between self and other which would have a significance in a wider sphere than that of the merely personal. This much needed book will be welcomed by students in literature and literary theory, feminism, and women's studies, English and French studies, and philosophy. Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Helene Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference. This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts, including the other, bisexuality, the third body, and écriture féminine. Bray demonstrates, through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce, Virginia Woolf, Clarice Lispector, and Angela Carter, the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy. Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche, Heidegger, Deleuze, and Derrida, Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times. Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies. Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project, which adopts a multi-layered approach, allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter. Entries range from very broad themes such as Health, General Works, to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors      Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn, 2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience      In the Name of Love

Heather Fraser, 2008-10-07 Although love is the hallmark of humanity it is not widely discussed in social work and other related professions with respect to its potential connection to abuse In this groundbreaking book the author argues that while love and abuse should not co exist they often do Using a feminist narrative approach stories about love abuse and social work are told with the purpose of understanding domestic violence and other forms of abuse Based on interviews with 84 women of varying ages in Canada and Australia the author shows how the pain and shame of intimate abuse can leave its mark on the bodies minds and souls of victims survivors long after abusive episodes have ended Additionally Fraser also discusses the importance of hope enlightened witnesses income support and educational opportunities for women who refuse to renounce love relationships altogether but are instead trying to foster relationships that are respectful as well as erotic

Doing Rebellious Research , 2022-05-09 The ways in which research and scholarship are co produced co performed and proclaimed as particular kinds of knowledges and truths in and beyond the academy is radically changing The capacity to write rebelliously in varying registers and voices tempos and volumes as featured across this book is boundaryless In this edited volume we ask new questions which simultaneously trouble and open up what the product and performance of academic work words and worlds might come to be At the heart of this book we move between departing radically from academic writing to arriving at a new academic endeavor and transaction between reader and text driven by the invitation to open rebellion in academic research and writing This unique volume brings together an extraordinary range of international scholars researchers and artists that include contemporary social scientists critical theorists visual artists poets musicians hip hoppers choreographers activists film makers theatre makers magicians and circus artists from both within and outside the academy in Europe UK India Africa USA Canada Australia and New Zealand They articulate new concepts for thinking differently generate new theories differently and present new methods of writing differently This book provides permission to depart radically in academic writing and creative practice particularly for doctoral and higher degree research students and those who work alongside them as supervisors and advisors and higher research degree educators The claim here is that rebellious departures and performances in academic research and writing are the future of academia This book provides a series of steps toward preparing for that future      Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals Federica Bueti,2022-12-07

Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression exclusion and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies The book provides today's readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing Drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde Carla Lonzi Hélène Cixous Hortense Spillers Alexis Pauline Gumbs Anne Boyer and Simone White the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life      The Hélène Cixous Reader Susan Sellers,1994      Susan Glaspell and the Anxiety of Expression Kristina Hinz-Bode,2015-01-28

One of the founding members of the Provincetown Players Susan Glaspell contributed to American literature in ways that exceed the work she did for this significant theatre group Interwoven in her many plays novels and short stories is astute commentary on the human condition This volume provides an in depth examination of Glaspell's writing and how her language conveys her insights into the universal dilemma of society versus self Glaspell's ideas transcended the plot and character Her work gave prominent attention to such issues as gender politics power and artistic daring Through an exploration of eight plays written between the years of 1916 and 1943 Trifles Springs Eternal The People Alison's House Bernice The Outside Chains of Dew and The Verge this work concentrates on one of Glaspell's central themes individuality versus social existence It explores the range of forces and fundamental tensions that influence the perception and communication of her characters The final chapter includes a brief commentary on other Glaspell works A biographical overview provides background for the author's reading and interpretation of the plays placing Glaspell within the context of literary modernism      The Hype(r)text of HerMe(s) Judy Freya Sibayan,2014-12-19

In this ebook Judy Freya Sibayan reflects on 39 years of her work as an artist curator writer editor of Ctrl P and teacher Inspired by Hélène Cixous the figure of HerMe(s) is invoked for a new kind of artistic autobiography hyperlinked to the internet and a practice evident in major works like Scapular Gallery and Museum of Mental Objects which developed from her development of a distinctive form of institutional critique      Critical Writing for Embodied Approaches Elizabeth Mackinlay,2019-02-21

Autoethnography is a unique discipline which steps inside and outside the self to experience embody and express social and cultural meaning At once a performative political and poetic genre of research writing it holds the potential to uncover the heart of the world if only for a moment The author uses theory as story and story as theory to explore her place in the world through painstaking and intimate self and social narratives to lay bare the unique challenges and rewards of autoethnography Framed around the metaphor of heartlines the author explores autoethnographic practice as critical feminist and decolonial work and the power it holds for not only imagining a wise ethical and loving world but for making such a kind place possible Through a performative journey of the heart we travel with the author as she unearths the power of words of writing and not writing evoking in particular the work of Hélène Cixous and Virginia Woolf This reflective passionate and pioneering volume will be of interest and value to all those interested in autoethnography and the ways in which it can be applied as critical ethical and political work in the social sciences Writing Feminist Autoethnography Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2022-01-31 Writing Feminist Autoethnography explores the personal is political relationship between autoethnography and feminist theory and practice Each chapter introduces the lives and works of a range of feminist thinkers and writers and considers the ways in which their thinking and writing might come to be in relation with our own personal is political thinking and writing work as feminist autoethnographers The book begins with an acknowledgement of the author's positionality as a white settler colonial woman in relation with Yanyuwa Garrwa Mara and Kudanji Aboriginal women This positionality has continued to resonate deeply with the responses and sensibilities the author holds as a feminist autoethnographer to move beyond coloniality She explores the writing of Virginia Woolf Simone Weil Simone de Beauvoir Hélène Cixous Kathleen Stewart bell hooks and Ruth Behar with critical affect to embrace embody and engage with feminist thinking wondering and feeling The book creatively and performatively explores what it means to live a feminist life as an autoethnographer This book will define and conceptualize feminist autoethnography for all qualitative researchers especially those interested in critical autoethnography and scholars in gender studies and communication

Atmospheres of Breathing Lenart Škof, Petri Berndtson, 2018-04-01 Attempts to think anew about philosophical questions from the perspective of breath and breathing As a physiological or biological matter breath is mostly considered to be mechanical and thoughtless By expanding on the insights of many religions and therapeutic practices which emphasize the cultivation of breath the contributors argue that breath should be understood as fundamentally and comprehensively intertwined with human life and experience Various dimensions of the respiratory world are referred to as atmospheres that encircle and connect human existence coexistence and the world Drawing from a number of traditions of breathing including from Indian and East Asian religion and philosophy the book considers breath in relation to ontological hermeneutical phenomenological ethical and aesthetic concerns in philosophy The wide ranging topics include poetry theater environmental issues and health feminism and media studies Atmospheres of Breathing the first collection of its kind explores an emerging respiratory philosophy of great consequence for philosophy and other fields Its rich and diverse essays many written by the pioneers of this radically new direction show the deep historical and intercultural roots of such a philosophy ranging from treatments of forerunners like Zhuangzi and Heraclitus to contemporary theorists of breathing such as Abram and Kleinberg Levin Presented here is the vision of innovative ways in which philosophy on its own or inspired by spiritual practices can bring breathing into the center of its concern This is a landmark book that scintillates with brilliant and original insights If taken as seriously as it deserves this book has the potential to revolutionize contemporary and future thought Edward S Casey author of The World at a Glance and The World on Edge Air the misunderstood element finds ways and means of advancing to places where no one reckons with its presence and more significantly it makes space on its own strength for strange places where there were previously none Peter Sloterdijk
