A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Heliotrope Wall And Other Stories:

Heliotrope wall and other stories, The Ana María Matute, 1989 The Heliotrope Wall and Other Stories Ana María Matute, 1989-01 Seven stories set in rural Spain deal with the hope and despair of childhood and adolescence The Analogical Reader Peter Dixon, Marisa Bortolussi, 2023-11-08 Perspective taking is a critical component of approaches to literature and narrative but there is no coherent broadly applicable and process based account of what it is and how it occurs This book provides a multidisciplinary coverage of the topic weaving together key insights from different disciplines into a comprehensive theory of perspective taking in literature and in life The essential insight is that taking a perspective requires constructing an analogy between one's own personal knowledge and experience and that of the perspective taking target This analysis is used to reassess a broad swath of research in mind reading and literary studies It develops the dynamics of how analogy is used in perspective taking and the challenges that must be overcome under some circumstances New empirical evidence is provided in support of the theory and numerous examples from popular and literary fiction are used to illustrate the concepts This title is part of the Flip it Open programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details Short Story Index, 1994 Celebration in the Northwest Ana María Matute, 1997-01-01 A novel on a Spanish landowner and his bastard half brother to whom he is at once attracted and repelled The relationship is played out against the background of the approaching 1930s Spanish Civil War the causes of which the novel examines Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror, 1989 A comprehensive bibliography of books and short fiction published in the English language Time of Silence Luis Martín-Santos, 1989 The bravura and lyricism of the prose for which translator George Leeson is also to be thanked the casual deftness of the symbols and most of all the brilliant concluding monologue leave no doubt that the author was not content with a realistic novel It seems clear that Pedro is Spain itself New York Times Book Review School of the Sun Ana María Matute, 1963 A Spanish writer's approach by the intimist route to the still unassuaged griefs of the Civil War What happens is that the protected bourgeois world in which it is possible to go on with the pretext of childishness at fourteen is split open by the realities of war or rather the realities of which the war is the expression Spanish Women's Writing 1849-1996 Catherine Davies, 2000-12-01 Traces the tradition of Spanish women's writing from the end of the Romantic period until the present day Professor Davies places the major authors within the changing political cultural and economic context of women's lives over the past century and a half with particular attention to women's accounts of female subjectivity in relation to the Spanish nation state government politics and the women's liberation movement The Doves' Nest Katherine Mansfield, 2023-01-19 The Doves Nest and Other Stories is a 1923 collection of short stories by the writer Katherine Mansfield published by her husband John Middleton Murry after her death The volume contains all the complete stories and several fragments of stories which she wrote at the same time as or after those published in The Garden Party The Doves' Nest, and Other Stories Katherine

Mansfield, 2022-01-17 Katherine Mansfield's collection of short stories The Doves Nest and Other Stories offers a captivating glimpse into the complexities of human emotions and relationships. Written in Mansfield's signature modernist style, these stories explore themes of alienation, longing, and the fragility of identity. Set against the backdrop of post-World War I Europe, Mansfield's prose is both evocative and introspective, inviting readers to delve deep into the inner workings of her characters' minds. The use of symbolism and vivid imagery adds layers of depth to each narrative, making this collection a must-read for fans of literary fiction. Katherine Mansfield, known for her keen observational skills and psychological insight, drew inspiration from her own tumultuous life experiences to craft these poignant tales. Her nomadic lifestyle and struggle with illness are reflected in the nuanced portrayals of her characters, lending an authenticity to the emotions conveyed in each story. Mansfield's ability to capture the nuances of human relationships and the fleeting moments of joy and despair make The Doves Nest and Other Stories a timeless masterpiece. Readers who appreciate thought-provoking fiction that delves into the intricacies of human nature will find The Doves Nest and Other Stories a rewarding and enriching read. Mansfield's unparalleled storytelling skill and vivid prose make this collection a standout in the realm of modernist literature.

The Publishers Weekly, 1891 Barker's Luck, and Other Stories Harte, 1896 The Feminist Encyclopedia of Spanish Literature: N-Z Janet Pérez, Maureen Ihrie, 2002 Spanish literature includes some of the world's greatest works and authors. It is also one of the most widely studied. This reference looks at the literature of Spain from the perspective of women's studies. Though the volume focuses on the literature of Spain written in Castilian, it also includes survey entries on the present state of women's literature in Catalan, Galician, and Basque. Included are hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries for numerous topics related to Spanish literature, including literary periods and genres, significant characters and character types, major authors and works, various specialized topics. Each entry discusses how the topic relates to women's studies. Entries for male authors discuss their attitudes toward women. Female writers are considered for the restrictive cultural contexts in which they wrote. Specific works are examined for their representations of female characters and their handling of women's issues. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and closes with a brief bibliography. The volume concludes with a list of works for further reading.

Translation Review, 1997 The Dalhousie Review Herbert Leslie Stewart, 1991 House of Mourning and Other Stories Desmond Hogan, 2013-06-18 There is no doubt that Desmond Hogan is one of the most remarkable literary talents to have come out of Ireland in the past half century, and perhaps the best introduction to his work is through his magnificent short stories, widely anthologized and praised throughout the world. Focusing as always on the downtrodden and the eccentric, the misplaced and the dispossessed, Hogan's stories merge past with present landscape with mindscape distinctly Irish and burdened by history, while exhilaratingly and wholly universal and modern.
