Gorinov, 2014-03-10

Historians generally recognise E A Preobrazhensky as the most famous Soviet economist of the 1920s English language readers know him best as author of The New Economics and co author with N I Bukharin of The ABC of Communism The documents in this volume many newly discovered and almost all translated into English for the first time reveal a Preobrazhensky previously unknown whose interests ranged far beyond economics to include not only party debates and issues affecting the lives of workers and peasants but also philosophy world events and Russian history culture and politics Including moments of triumph and tragedy they tell an intimate story of political awakening and of commitment to socialist revolution as the path to human dignity

The Ecology of the Ancient Greek World Robert Sallares, 1991 A pioneering study in historical population biology this book offers the first comprehensive ecological history of the ancient Greek world It proposes a new model for treating the relationship between the population and the land centering on the distribution and abundance of living organisms

The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1922 The Selected Writings of Andrew Lang Tom Hubbard, 2017-01-12 A novelist poet literary critic and anthropologist Andrew Lang is best known for his publications on folklore mythology and religion many have grown up with the colour Fairy Books which he compiled between 1889 and 1910 This three volume set presents a selection of his work in these areas The first volume covers the general and theoretical aspects of Lang s work on folklore mythology and anthropology along with the tools and concepts which he used in his often combative contributions to these inter related disciplines As a companion to the first volume the second is comprised of various case studies made by Lang ranging from The Aryan Races of Peru and The Folk lore of France to Irish Fairies and The Ballads Scottish and English The third volume arranges his literary criticism first by geo cultural context and then chronologically It begins with Lang s views on the nature and purpose of fiction then presents samples of his work on some of the most important authors in the respective canons of French American Scottish and English literature including Victor Hugo Edgar Allan Poe Robert Burns and Charles Dickens among many others mainly of the nineteenth century Collectively the General Introduction to the set and the Introductions to the individual volumes offer a thorough overview of Lang s work in an astonishing variety of fields including his translation work on Homer and his contributions to historiography particularly Scottish The Introduction to Volume III sets Lang within the context of the literature of his times comparing and contrasting him with significant contemporaries Headnotes to the individual items are of varying length and provide more detail on specific topics and explanatory notes supply unique intellectual comment rather than merely factual information Conquest of Territory and Subject Races in History and International Law Bama Prasanna Sengupta,1925 Library Catalog Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1960 Understanding Bourdieu Jen Webb,Tony Schirato,Geoff Danaher,2002-01-02 Bourdieu s work is formidable the journey is tough Follow this French foreign legion take an apple take a hanky but take this book Peter Beilharz La Trobe University A good range of recent examples from popular culture are used to flesh out the material in accessible terms These examples are deployed very well indeed rather than being tacked on illustrations of an idea they are instead used at the heart of the explanation of the ideas David Gauntlett Leeds University Now considered one of the most influential thinkers of the 20th century Pierre Bourdieu has left his mark on most of the big theoretical issues in the world of contemporary theory gender subjectivity the body culture citizenship and globalization His terms are now commonplace social capital cultural capital field and habitus Bourdieu examines how people conduct their lives in relation to one another and to major social institutions He argues that culture and education aren t simply minor influences but as important as economics in determining differences between groups of people Unlike the other grand systematisers Marx and Foucault Bourdieu has tested these arguments in detailed fieldwork His range is eclectic his vision is vast and his writing is often dense and challenging Understanding Bourdieu offers a comprehensive introduction to Bourdieu s work It is essential reading for anyone tackling him for the first time The Westminster Review ,1905 The Morbid Age Richard Overy,2009-05-07 British intellectual life between the wars stood at the heart of modernity The combination of a liberal uncensored society and a large educated audience for new ideas made Britain a laboratory for novel ways to understand the world The Morbid Age opens a window onto this creative but anxious era the golden age of the public intellectual and scientist Arnold Toynbee Aldous and Julian Huxley H G Wells Marie Stopes and a host of others Yet as Richard Overy argues a striking characteristic of so many of the ideas that emerged from this new age from eugenics to Freud s unconscious to modern ideas of pacifism and world government was the fear that the West was facing a possibly terminal crisis of civilization The modern era promised progress of a kind but it was overshadowed by a growing fear of decay and death an end to the civilized world and the arrival of a new Dark Age even though the country had suffered no occupation no civil war and none of the bitter ideological rivalries of inter war Europe and had an economy that survived better than most The Morbid Age explores how this strange paradox came about Ultimately Overy shows the coming of war was almost welcomed as a way to resolve the contradictions and anxieties of this period a war in which it was believed civilization would be either saved or utterly destroyed Woman and Labour Olive Schreiner,2022-09-13 Woman and Labour 1911 was written by South African writer and intellectual Olive Schreiner best known for her novels From Man to Man or Perhaps Only 1926 and Undine 1929 This collection of letters represents Schreiner s call for changes to the gender inequalities of early 20th century
