The 2002 Season at Tall al 'Umayri and Subsequent Studies Larry G. Herr, Douglas R. Clark, Lawrence T. Geraty, 2019-06-24 This eighth volume of the Madaba Plains Project s excavations at Tall al Umayri covers the important finds of the 2002 season updating and synthesizing the work that has been done to date Accompanied by more than two hundred illustrations it includes a summary of the cumulative results of all excavation seasons from 1984 through 2002 with a detailed description of the various levels that have been discovered The contributions to this volume discuss at length the results of the 2002 season specifically in fields B H and L which helped to clarify the stratigraphy of the site and contributed to the long term objectives of the excavation in particular the goal of elucidating the cycles of intensification and abatement of habitation and land use at and around the site with a view to understanding how Umayri influenced and participated in these processes In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include John W Betlyon Kent V Bramlett Julie L Cormack Marcel den Nijs David C Hopkins Gloria London Kevin Nick and Monique D Vincent The Journal of Hellenic Studies ,1929 Household Archaeology in Ancient Israel and Beyond Assaf Yasur-Landau, Jennie R. Ebeling, Laura B. Mazow, 2013-02-06 Despite the large number of well preserved domestic contexts in Bronze and Iron Age sites household archaeology has not been a common approach to studying the material culture of Ancient Israel Until recently the dictates of Biblical Archaeology led to a narrow set of questions that ignored issues such as gender status and production within the household The present volume which grew out of a session at the 2008 Annual Meeting of the American Schools of Oriental Research attempts to redress this issue The seventeen papers herein reflect innovative viewpoints on the theory and praxis of household archaeology in this region The next step in household research is presented here with the use of tailor made data collection strategies designed to answer specific questions posed by household archaeology The neglect of households and the archaeology of the activities of its members are ambitiously attended to in this volume Its exceptional breadth of various modes of inquiry coupled with the application thereof justifies the household as a topic of discussion I would highly recommend this book for institutions libraries scholars and students interested in any aspect of daily life in the southern Levant and I very much look forward to the future research projects it will inspire Cynthia Shafer Elliot William Jessup University as a whole the work is impressive and most contributions are commendable for their sophistication in engaging interdisciplinary research in order to understand the nature and function of households in ancient Israel and surrounding areas Carol Meyers Duke University

Troy and Homer Joachim Latacz, 2004-10-28 The ancient Greek poet Homer tells of the wealthy city of Troy and its defeat in the Trojan War Since the classical period there has been much debate about whether this is a poetic fiction or a memory of historical reality Earlier excavations at the hill of Hisarlik in Turkey brought no answer but in 1988 new excavations under the direction of Manfred Korfmann led to a radical shift in understanding In this book Joachim Latacz one of Korfmann's closest collaborators shows how this new research has shed light on what is now known about Troy and the Trojan War

A Public and Political Christ Bart B. Bruehler, 2011-08-05 Was Jesus a public figure A political figure Yes according to Luke's gospel Jesus was a Christ who was both public and political Recent developments in the theory and practice of the study of space have provided tools to classify ancient social spatial spheres with greater nuance and depth A broad survey of literary and archaeological resources in the ancient world as well as an in depth look at Plutarch's Political Precepts and Philostratus's Life of Apollonius reveals that the familiar dichotomy of public and private does not suffice to describe the Hellenistic Roman milieu that shaped the author and audience of the third gospel This study employs social spatial analysis to explore how Luke uses the power of place to portray Jesus frequently engaging the unofficial public sphere and local politics specifically in 18:35 19:43 the public healing of the blind beggar the unexpected impact of Zacchaeus's hospitality the political implications of the parable of the king and his subjects and the publicity and politics of Jesus entry into Jerusalem The result is an illuminating look at the overall spatial character of Luke's gospel the development of Christianity in the latter half of the first century and the role of place in contemporary Christianity

The Kahramanmaraş Valley Survey Elizabeth Carter, 2024-08-01 The volume presents a study of local landscape histories in the Kahramanmaraş valley a previously understudied but pivotal crossroads along the Syro Anatolian frontier The Holocene vegetation history is presented in relation to climatic changes and human impact through the pollen analytical results of a deep core obtained from a former Salzkavur lakebed Extensive surface surveys carried out in the region between 1993 and 2000 form the basis of the settlement pattern studies beginning with the first permanent settlement of the valley in the Neolithic and ending with the Islamic era The results of an intensive full coverage and transect surveys around Domuztepe are found in Chapter 10 The analysis of a long historical record diverse physical environment and a significant number of archaeological sites are used to outline the myriad ways the ancient residents of this region between Syria and Anatolia made it their home for over seven thousand years

Sarepta: The Late Bronze Age and Iron Age strata of area II, Y, 1988 Farewell to Shulamit Carsten Wilke, 2017-04-10 The Song of Songs a lyric cycle of love scenes without a narrative plot has often been considered as the Bible's most beautiful and enigmatic book The present study questions the still dominant exegetical convention that merges all of the Song's voices into the dialogue of a single couple its composite heroine Shulamit being a projection screen for norms of womanhood An alternative socio spatial reading starting with the Hebrew text's strophic patterns and its references to historical realia explores the poem's artful alternation between courtly urban rural and pastoral scenes with their distinct characters The literary construction of social difference juxtaposes class specific patterns of consumption mobility emotion power structures and gender relations This new image of the cycle as a detailed poetic frieze of ancient society eventually leads to a precise hypothesis concerning its literary and religious context in the Hellenistic age as well as its geographical origins in the multiethnic borderland east of the Jordan In a Jewish echo of anthropological skepticism the poem emphasizes the plurality and relativity of the human condition while praising the communicative powers of pleasure fantasy and multifarious Eros

Classical Archaeology in Context Donald Haggis, Carla Antonaccio, 2015-05-19 This book compiles a series of case studies derived from archaeological excavation in Greek cultural contexts in the Mediterranean ca 800-100 B C addressing the current state of the field the goals and direction of Greek archaeology and its place in archaeological thought and practice Overviews of archaeological sites and analyses of assemblages and contexts explore how new forms of data methods of data recovery and analysis and sampling strategies have affected the discourse in classical archaeology and the range of research questions and strategies at our disposal Recent excavations and field practices are steering the way that we approach Greek cultural landscapes and form broader theoretical perspectives while generating new research questions and interpretive frameworks that in turn affect how we sample sites collect and study material remains and ultimately construct the archaeological record The book confronts the implications of an integrated dialogue between realms of data and interpretive methodologies addressing how reengagement with the site assemblage or artifact from the excavation context can structure the way that we link archaeological and systemic contexts in classical archaeology Tel Malhata Itzhaq Beit-Arieh, Liora Freud, 2015-06-18 Tel Mal ata A Central City in the Biblical Negev presents the results of nine seasons of excavations two by the first expedition and seven by the second Tel Mal ata is an elliptical shaped mound located in the eastern sector of the Arad Beer sheba Valley and spreads across some 18 dunams Tel Mal ata is generally identified with biblical Moladah one of the cities of Judah although other identifications have been suggested The Arabic name of the site Tell el Mil Hill of the Salt is apparently indicative of its association with the production and distribution of salt from the Dead Sea in more recent times The many Bedouin graves on the upper terrace of the tell significantly hindered the planning of the excavations and consequently the excavations were concentrated mainly where no graves were discerned The two volume report consists of 22 chapters that take the reader through six strata of civilization ranging from the Middle Bronze Age to the early Byzantine period Asine Svenska Asine expeditionen, 1922-1930, Otto Vilhelm Anders Frödin, Axel Waldemar Persson, Alfred Westholm, 1938 The Bethsaida Excavations Project Reports & Contextual Studies Rami Arav, Richard A.
