Effects Of Maternal Mortality On Children In Africa An Exploratory Report:

The Effects of Maternal Mortality on Children in Africa ,1991 Demography: Analysis and Synthesis, Four Volume Set Graziella Caselli,Jacques Vallin,Guillaume Wunsch,2006-01-03 This four volume collection of over 140 original chapters covers virtually everything of interest to demographers sociologists and others Over 100 authors present population subjects in ways that provoke thinking and lead to the creation of new perspectives not just facts and equations to be memorized The articles follow a theory methods applications approach and so offer a kind of one stop shop that is well suited for students and professors who need non technical summaries such as political scientists public affairs specialists and others Unlike shorter handbooks Demography Analysis and Synthesis offers a long overdue thorough treatment of the field Choosing the analytical method that fits the data and the situation requires insights that the authors and editors of Demography Analysis and Synthesis have explored and developed This extended examination of demographic tools not only seeks to explain the analytical tools themselves but also the relationships between general population dynamics and their natural economic social political and cultural environments Limiting themselves to human populations only the authors and editors cover subjects that range from the core building blocks of population change fertility mortality and migration to the consequences of demographic changes in the biological and health fields population theories and doctrines observation systems and the teaching of demography The international perspectives brought to these subjects is vital for those who want an unbiased rounded overview of these complex multifaceted subjects Topics to be covered Population Dynamics and the Relationship Between Population Growth and Structure The Determinants of Fertility The Determinants of Mortality The Determinants of Migration Historical and Geographical Determinants of Population The Effects of Population on Health Economics Culture and the Environment Population Policies Data Collection Methods and Teaching about Population Studies All chapters share a common format Each chapter features several cross references to other chapters Tables charts and other non text features are widespread Each chapter contains at least 30 bibliographic citations Demographic Issues in Nigeria: Insights and Implications ,2015-05-15 The book deals with a broad range of contemporary and recurring empirical and practical issues encapsulated within the context of demographic inquiry and analysis The papers included here reflect strands of thoughts and research that find expression in interdisciplinary outlook focussing on sexuality fertility gender morbidity and mortality migration maternal and child health and the elderly Women and Health Mirdula Bandyopadhyay,Stewart MacPherson,2019-05-29 First published in 1998 this volume examines how women in general and how the socio economic and cultural factors affect the health and nutritional status of the mother reproductive status utilisation of health services awareness of health services health care behaviour cultural practices associated with childbirth lactation and more In Her Lifetime Institute of Medicine,Committee to Study Female Morbidity and Mortality in Sub-Saharan Africa,1996-04-06 The relative lack of information on determinants of disease disability and death at major stages of a woman's lifespan and the excess morbidity and premature mortality that this engenders has important adverse social and economic ramifications not only for Sub Saharan Africa but also for other regions of the world as well. Women bear much of the weight of world production in both traditional and modern industries. In Sub Saharan Africa for example women contribute approximately 60 to 80 percent of agricultural labor. Worldwide it is estimated that women are the sole supporters in 18 to 30 percent of all families and that their financial contribution in the remainder of families is substantial and often crucial. This book provides a solid documentary base that can be used to develop an agenda to guide research and health policy formulation on female health both for Sub Saharan Africa and for other regions of the developing world. This book could also help facilitate ongoing collaboration between African researchers on women's health and their U.S. colleagues. Chapters cover such topics as demographics, nutritional status, obstetric morbidity and mortality, mental health problems and sexually transmitted diseases including HIV.

The Challenge of Complexity Tomas Kjellqvist, 1994

An Exploration of How COVID-19 Impacted Women and Girls Around the World Fikresus Amahazion, 2023-07-28 Since its emergence the COVID-19 pandemic has been one of the greatest global crises in perhaps a century and led to unimaginable human suffering. Although much coverage has been dedicated to exploring the different impacts of the crisis such as its social, political and economic consequences, comparatively little attention has been directed to examining the particular impact of the pandemic on women and girls. Past crises and outbreaks have powerfully demonstrated that men and women are differently affected and preexisting inequalities and challenges for women and girls are often exacerbated. Comprising a rich collection of rigorous analyses that touch upon an extensive number of topics and an array of countries, this edited collection critically interrogates how the COVID-19 crisis has impacted women and girls around the world. With high quality contributions from international scholars and experts from numerous fields and disciplines and containing research based on a variety of methodologies and approaches, the present volume provides a wide ranging evidence based exploration and nuanced perspective on this issue.

Families in Focus Judith Bruce, Cynthia B. Lloyd, Ann Leonard, 1995 Noting that although families have always been characterized by change, there is strong evidence that they are changing faster today than ever before. This book focuses on the changing roles of mothers, fathers and children, emphasizing how fathers and mothers meet parental responsibilities and what children have a right to expect from their parents. The research discussed covers multicultural perspectives including analysis of statistics from many countries The chapters in the report are 1 Families in Transition Cynthia B Lloyd and Niev Duffy presenting demographic analysis of how families are changing covering later marriage and childbirth smaller families increasing dependency burden on working age parents and female headed households 2 The Economics of Motherhood Judith Bruce discussing the prevalence of mother supported families 3 Fathers as Parenting Partners Patrice L Engle and Ann Leonard giving a definition for fatherhood and focusing on factors affecting and the benefits of father child relationships 4 Familial Risk Factors for Children Cynthia B Lloyd and Niev Duffy discussing birth circumstances primary family relationships and living arrangements and 5 Family Policy Supporting the Parent Child Link Judith Bruce detailing practical policies and programs Contains 25 tables each chapter contains references BGC Africa News ,1990 Intrahousehold Resource Allocation in Developing Countries Lawrence James Haddad,John Hoddinott,Harold Alderman,1997 Surveying a broad body of theory and evidence the contributors examine the many social and cultural factors that influence decisions at the family and household level about the allocation of time income assets and other resources

Protecting Childhood in the AIDS Pandemic Jody Heymann,Lorraine Sherr,Rachel Kidman,2011-12-07 Every year over a quarter of a million children die of AIDS Another two million children currently live with HIV most in sub Saharan Africa Millions more are affected when AIDS enters their families or their communities Orphans are perhaps the most visible 15 million children have lost one or both parents to AIDS 12 million of them live in sub Saharan Africa The increasing burden of HIV AIDS falls heavily on extended families who support HIV infected family members care for relatives who are sick and dying and for children who are left behind Adults who take on these caregiving burdens have less time for their own children fewer financial resources and often face greater difficulties meeting even basic needs In communities severely affected by AIDS traditional safety nets are often eroded by cumulative mortality teachers are absent from school because of their own illness or that of family members and basic health facilities can be overwhelmed by AIDS care needs all of which leave children increasingly vulnerable The impact is most severe in environments where government and state level support is weakest where universal education health care and social welfare are either partially available or not available at all Protecting Childhood in the AIDS Pandemic will bring together lessons from global experts on what has worked and what would need to be done to transform the outcomes of children of all ages whose lives have been affected by HIV AIDS Examining which public policies and programs have worked best to meet the full range of children s needs from medical care to social support and from infancy to adolescence this is the volume for academics social scientists policymakers and on the ground practitioners around the world

Finding the Ties that Bind Judith Bruce,Cynthia B.
