criticism He stands for a scholarly ethos which is at risk of disappearing His distinctive academic career which was entirely devoted to research led teaching invites us to think about the relationships between literary studies and pedagogy It also invites us to ask what role a unique pedagogical style plays in the evolution of a discipline How does intergenerational transmission between teacher and student play out both within and beyond disciplinary boundaries This collection explores these questions while also documenting Gardiner s methods of scholarly as much as professional resistance to the neo liberalisation and neo conservatism of contemporary academic culture Contributors draw from inspiring encounters with him to reflect upon the rhetoric and motifs of pedagogy within literary works They put Gardiner s mode of reading into practice by offering new interpretations of pedagogical mechanisms employed within important literary works from the seventeenth century to the present and of cultural phenomena like colonial interpretations of the Australian lyrebird s song The volume also offers pieces inspired by Gardiner such as poetry art translation and creative non fiction as well as three unpublished lectures by Gardiner himself Techniques and methodologies of literary education are traditionally believed to offer students the keys with which to unlock the secrets of texts and foster their appreciation Literature and Pedagogy offers a new perspective showing teachers and students of both education and literature how literary works present their own methods for reflecting critically upon how and why we learn read and teach

Inventing Edward Lear Sara Lodge,2018-11-30 Inventing Edward Lear is an exceptional valuable original study presenting new materials on aspects of Lear s life and work Jenny Uglow author of Mr Lear and The Lunar Men Edward Lear wrote some of the best loved poems in English including The Owl and the Pussycat but the father of nonsense was far more than a poet He was a naturalist a brilliant landscape painter an experimental travel writer and an accomplished composer Sara Lodge presents the fullest account yet of Lear s passionate engagement in the intellectual social and cultural life of his times Lear had a difficult start in life He was epileptic asthmatic and depressive but even as a child a consummate performer who projected himself into others affections He became by John James Audubon s estimate one of the greatest ornithological artists of the age Queen Victoria an admirer chose him to be her painting teacher He popularized the limerick set Tennyson s verse to music and opened fresh doors for children and adults to share fantasies of magical escape Lodge draws on diaries letters and new archival sources to paint a vivid picture of Lear that explores his musical influences his religious nonconformity his relationship with the Pre Raphaelite movement and the connections between his scientific and artistic work He invented himself as a character awkward but funny absurdly sympathetic In Lodge s hands Lear emerges as a dynamic and irreverent polymath whose conversation continues to draw us in Inventing Edward Lear is an original and moving account of one of the most intriguing and creative of all Victorians William and Lucy Angela Thirlwell,2003-01-01 The marriage of William Michael Rossetti 1829 1919 and Lucy Madox Brown 1843 1894 united two of the most resonant Pre Raphaelite family names Their passionate and ultimately tragic relationship described here for the first time provides a fresh perspective on nineteenth century marriage and on the private lives of eminent Victorians Sibling of Dante Gabriel and Christina Rossetti William was one of the original Pre Raphaelite Brothers a Bohemian radical author poet critic artist connoisseur biographer historian and taxman Lucy the intense intellectual daughter of Ford Madox Brown was an ambitious artist and biographer of Mary Shelley in spite of struggling with tuberculosis for nearly a decade Drawing on hundreds of previously unpublished sources and a wealth of new visual material including art by William Lucy and others of their circle and striking contemporary photographs the book follows William and Lucy through their separate professional careers marriage continental travels and Lucy s illness and death At the crossover between art history literary criticism social history and biography the book rewrites Pre Raphaelite history and brings to life two fascinating people who were both of their time and ahead of it The Villa Dei Papiri at Herculaneum Carol C. Mattusch, Henry Lie, 2005 The Villa dei Papiri at Herculaneum buried during the eruption of Mt Vesuvius in A D 79 then rediscovered in 1750 contained a large collection of bronze and marble statuary and busts Before they were published or exhibited the sculptures were restored so as to appear whole it is thus that they helped to shape early modern tastes in classical sculpture The book describes the nature of the ancient sculptures and their impact on the modern public Their chance discovery affected the interpretation of the statues their styles and subjects over the course of the next 250 years The ancient sculptures were copied extensively in reproductions of various sizes and patinas The author traces the popularity of these copies in Europe and America Also presented in the book is a technical study of the production techniques and materials of the sculptures as well as of their modern restoration history Scientific analyses and detailed photographs reveal both how the pieces were cast and pieced together in antiquity and how they were restored in the eighteenth century Even though this collection has been known for two and a half centuries this book covers for the first time the eclectic nature of the sculptures their actual condition and their quality pointing in some cases to mass production Lives of Houses Kate Kennedy, Hermione Lee, 2022-04-12

Lord Cromer Roger Owen, 2004 In the heyday of Empire just before the First World War Lord Cromer was second only to Lord Curzon in fame and public esteem In the days when Cairo and Calcutta represented the twin poles of British power in Asia and Africa Cromer's commanding presence seemed to radiate the essential spirit of imperial rule In this first modern biography Roger Owen charts the life of the man revered by the British and hated by today's Egyptians the real ruler of Egypt for nearly a quarter of a century A member of the famous City banking family of Baring Brothers Cromer in his youth seemed to be distinguished mainly by lack of academic ability and a taste for the fashionable pursuits of his day His first military posting to Corfu was welcomed by him on account of the excellent shooting to be had in the region Roger Owen shows how almost imperceptibly his commitment to public service grew due in part at least to his relationship with Ethel Errington who after long delay became his first wife From the island outposts of the old British Empire to India the jewel in its crown and finally to the new Empire in Africa Cromer represented the might of Britain's Empire Few imperial administrators had either his range of experience or his long practice of ruling different non-European peoples at a time when the whole notion of Empire itself entered more and more into the metropolitan political debate Roger Owen makes extensive use of Cromer's official correspondence family papers memoirs and the personal letters of his friends and colleagues to explore all aspects of Cromer's life in imperial government He examines his innovative role in international finance and his energetic re-engagement with Britain's troubled political life following his formal retirement in 1907 Finally he assesses the sometimes bitter legacy of imperial rule left by Cromer
