since 1957 Cover Green Urbanism Down Under Timothy Beatley,Peter Newman,2012-09-26 In this immensely practical book Timothy Beatley sets out to answer a simple question what can Americans learn from Australians about greening city life Green Urbanism Down Under reports on the current state of sustainability practice in Australia and the many lessons that U S residents can learn from the best Australian programs and initiatives Australia is similar to the United States in many ways especially in its energy footprint For example Australia s per capita greenhouse gas emissions are second only to those of the United States A similar percentage of its residents live in cities 85 percent in Australia vs 80 percent in the United States And it suffers from parallel problems of air and water pollution a national dependence on automobiles and high fossil fuel consumption Still after traveling throughout Australia Beatley finds that there are myriad creative responses to these problems and that they offer instructive examples for the United States Green Urbanism Down Under is a very readable collection of solutions Although many of these innovative solutions are little known outside Australia they all present practical possibilities for U S cities Beatley describes green transport projects city farms renewable energy plans green living programs and much more He considers a host of public policy initiatives and scrutinizes regional and state planning efforts for answers In closing he shares his impressions about how Australian results might be applied to U S problems This is a unique book hopeful constructive and filled with ideas that have been proven to work It is a must read for anyone who cares about the future of American cities
