BOOK JACKET Counseling Adolescents Competently
 Lee A. Underwood, Frances L.L. Dailey, 2016-03-31 Counseling Adolescents Competently is a comprehensive text for students and professionals compiling foundational and emerging skills in the counseling field. Authors Lee A. Underwood Ph.D. and Frances L.L. Dailey Ph.D. review extensive interventions ranging from assessment to diagnosis as well as fresh perspectives on working with this often challenging group. Employing clinical case scenarios and profiles that demonstrate key issues, this book helps the counselor in training to understand the relevant theories and research around adolescents to better engage in culturally relevant interventions and treatment planning. Key Features: Unlike most literature related to behavioral health services for adolescents, this text is crafted specifically for the profession of counseling yet is applicable for all behavioral health providers. Case scenarios address critical issues impacting today's adolescents, including their characteristics, technology issues, diagnoses, and typologies, special needs, and interventions involving treatment planning. Themes that are commonly faced by teens, including trauma, grief, loss, emotional issues, sexual development, and peers, are covered. A diverse range of adolescents from both urban and non-urban settings are examined. This book addresses a broad audience that includes students in behavioral health training, counseling, and school programs; the practicing provider; and administrative, clinical supervisors, and educators.

Handbook of Counseling Boys and Adolescent Males Arthur M. Horne, Mark S. Kiselica, 1999-08-09 This comprehensive practical resource provides specific strategies for counsellors working with boys and male adolescents from different cultural backgrounds. The first part examines how psychological, career, and athletic development of boys is shaped by a complex interaction of biological, social, cultural, and economic forces. The second part covers cultural considerations when counselling particular North American client groups, such as Hispanic Americans. The final part focuses on special populations, such as gay, sexually abused, and developmentally disabled boys.
