Egyptian Cosmology Rachel Bakers, In the beginning

according to ancient Egyptian understanding there was only Nun the vast dark primordial waters that existed before creation itself This was not merely empty space or void but rather a pregnant darkness filled with infinite potential The Egyptians conceived of Nun as both the source and the ultimate destination of all existence a cosmic ocean that surrounded and permeated everything that would come to be Unlike the creation myths of other ancient civilizations that often begin with conflict or divine struggle the Egyptian cosmogony starts with this peaceful undifferentiated unity From these primordial waters emerged the first conscious being Atum whose name means the complete one or the one who completes himself Atum represented the principle of self creation the divine spark that could generate existence from nothingness through sheer force of will and consciousness The Egyptians understood this emergence not as a violent rupture but as a natural unfolding like a lotus flower blooming from the depths of a sacred pond Atum was simultaneously the creator and the first created embodying the paradox of divine self generation that would become central to Egyptian theological thinking The act of creation itself was envisioned as both physical and metaphysical According to the Heliopolitan creation myth one of the most influential cosmogonic traditions Atum created the first divine pair through masturbation or in some versions through sneezing or spitting This seemingly crude imagery actually encoded profound philosophical concepts about the nature of creative force and the relationship between thought word and manifestation The first divine couple Shu air dryness and Tefnut moisture humidity represented the fundamental dualities that would structure all of existence

Ancient Egyptian Roots of Christianity, Expanded 2nd Edition Moustafa Gadalla, 2016-12-02 Egyptian roots of Christianity both historically and spiritually This book reveals the Ancient Egyptian roots of Christianity both historically and spiritually This Expanded Version of the book consists of three parts to coincide with the terms of trinity The first part demonstrates that the major biblical ancestors of the biblical Jesus are all Ancient Egyptian prominent characters The second part demonstrates that the accounts of the historical Jesus are based entirely on the life and death of the Egyptian Pharaoh Twt Tut Ankh Amen The third part demonstrates that the Jesus of Faith and the Christian tenets are all Egyptian in origin such as the essence of the teachings message the creation of the universe and man according to the Book of Genesis as well as the religious holidays The very thing that is now called the Christian religion was already in existence in Ancient Egypt long before the adoption of the New Testament The British Egyptologist Sir E A Wallis Budge wrote in his book The Gods of the Egyptians 1969 The new religion Christianity which was preached there by St Mark and his immediate followers in all essentials so closely resembled that which was the outcome of the worship of Osiris Isis and Horus The similarities noted by Budge and everyone who has compared the Egyptian Osiris Isis Horus allegory to the Gospel story are striking Both accounts are practically the same e g the supernatural conception the divine birth the struggles against the enemy in the wilderness and the resurrection from the dead to eternal life The main difference between the two versions is that the Gospel tale is considered historical and the Osiris Isis Horus cycle is an allegory The spiritual message of the Ancient Egyptian Osiris Isis Horus allegory and the Christian revelation is exactly the same The British scholar A N Wilson pointed out in his book Jesus The Jesus of History and the Christ of Faith are two separate beings with very different stories It is difficult enough to reconstruct the first and in the attempt we are likely to do irreparable harm to the second This book will demonstrate that the Jesus of History the Jesus of Faith and the tenets of Christianity are all

Ancient Egyptian This will be done without causing any irreparable harm as per A N Wilson s concern for two main reasons Firstly the truth must be told Secondly explaining Christian tenets via their original Ancient Egyptian contexts will enhance the idealism of Christianity This Expanded Version of the book consists of three parts to coincide with the terms of trinity the Three that are Two that are One The first part demonstrates that the major biblical ancestors of the biblical Jesus are all Ancient Egyptian prominent individuals The second part demonstrates that the accounts of the historical Jesus are based entirely on the life and death of the Egyptian Pharaoh Twt Tut Ankh Amen The third part demonstrates that the Jesus of Faith and the Christian tenets are all Egyptian in origin such as the essence of the teachings message the creation of the universe and man according to the Book of Genesis as well as the religious holidays There is an undeniable irony and a profound deep undeniable truth in Hosea s prophetic saying Out of Egypt have I called my Son A deep irony indeed Let us open our minds and review the available evidence For the truth is a composite of different and complementary pieces of a puzzle Let us put the pieces in the right location time and order

Stephen McCluskey West Virginia University Ancient Egyptian Astronomy Omar Khalil, Ancient Egyptian astronomy was deeply intertwined with the culture s religious beliefs daily life and architectural marvels Long before modern telescopes and advanced instruments the Egyptians observed the night sky with precision using it to navigate their world mark the passing of time and guide their spiritual practices Astronomy was not merely a scientific endeavor but a fundamental aspect of their understanding of the cosmos and its connection to the gods The Egyptians viewed the stars planets and other celestial bodies as manifestations of divine power Central to their astronomical system was the Sun which they associated with the god Ra Ra s journey across the sky each day symbolized the cycle of life death and rebirth The Sun s movement was used to structure the day and marked important moments in the agricultural calendar such as the flooding of the Nile The Egyptians also closely tracked the movements of the Moon and stars which helped them define the months and seasons The study of the stars held profound religious significance for the ancient Egyptians They believed that the stars were the eyes of the gods observing and guiding humanity Certain constellations such as Orion were particularly important representing Osiris the god of the afterlife The Egyptians knowledge of the stars was so advanced that it influenced the alignment of their monumental architecture The Great Pyramid of Giza for instance is aligned with remarkable precision to the stars showcasing their ability to map the heavens and incorporate that knowledge into their constructions

Ancient Israelite Literature in Its Cultural Context John H. Walton, 1994-07 This book surveys within the various literary genres cosmologies personal archives and epics hymns and prayers parallels between the Bible and Ancient Near Eastern literature The Cosmological Origins of Myth and Symbol Laird Scranton, 2010-09-24 Reconstructs a theoretic parent cosmology that underlies ancient religion Shows how this parent cosmology provided the conceptual origins of written language Uses techniques of comparative cosmology to synchronize the creation traditions of the Dogon ancient Egyptians and ancient Buddhists Applies the signature elements of this parent cosmology to explore and interpret the creation tradition of a present day Tibetan Chinese tribe called the Na Khi the keepers of the world s last surviving hieroglyphic language Great thinkers and researchers such as Carl Jung have acknowledged the many broad similarities that exist between the myths and symbols of ancient cultures One largely unexplored explanation for these similarities lies in the possibility that these systems of myth all descended from one common cosmological plan Outlining the most significant aspects of cosmology found among the Dogon ancient Egyptians and ancient Buddhists including the striking physical and cosmological parallels between the Dogon granary and the Buddhist stupa Laird Scranton identifies the signature attributes of a theoretic ancient parent cosmology a planned instructional system that may well have spawned these great ancient creation traditions Examining the esoteric nature of cosmology itself Scranton shows how this parent cosmology encompassed both a plan for the civilized instruction of humanity as well as the conceptual origins of language The recurring shapes in all ancient religions were key elements of this plan designed to give physical manifestation to the sacred and provide the means to conceptualize and compare earthly dimensions with those of the heavens As a practical application of the plan Scranton explores the myths and language of an obscure Chinese priestly tribe known as the Na Khi the keepers of the world's last surviving hieroglyphic language Suggesting that cosmology may have engendered civilization and not the other way around Scranton reveals how this plan of cosmology provides the missing link between our macroscopic universe and the microscopic world of atoms

The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Liroy, 2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Liroy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son

Temple of the Cosmos Jeremy Naydler, 1996-04-01 In this guide to the cosmology of ancient Egypt Jeremy Naydler recreates the experience of living in another time and place Temple of the Cosmos explores Egypt's sacred geography and mythology but more importantly it reveals with unprecedented clarity an ancient consciousness in tune with the rhythms of the earth The ancient Egyptians experienced their gods not as remote beings but rather as psychic and natural forces transpersonal energies that played a part in everyday life This direct experience of the gods shaped the Egyptian concepts of human development healing magic and the soul's journey through the Underworld as described in the Books of the Dead While building on the pioneering efforts of R A Schwaller de Lubicz and others Temple of the Cosmos is much more than a recapitulation of previous theories of Egyptian spirituality Rather this book breaks new ground by placing the work of other Egyptologists in an original magical context The result is a brilliant reimagining of the Egyptian worldview and its sacred path of spiritual unfolding
