Jefferson Miller,1973 At Home in the Eighteenth Century Stephen G. Hague,Karen Lipsedge,2021-09-17 The eighteenth century home in terms of its structure design function and furnishing was a site of transformation of spaces identities and practices Home has myriad meanings and although the eighteenth century in the common imagination is often associated with taking tea on polished mahogany tables a far wider world of experience remains to be introduced At Home in the Eighteenth Century brings together factual and fictive texts and spaces to explore aspects of the typical Georgian home that we think we know from Jane Austen novels and extant country houses while also engaging with uncharacteristic and underappreciated aspects of the home At the core of the volume is the claim that exploring eighteenth century domesticity from a range of disciplinary vantage points can yield original and interesting questions as well as reveal new answers Contributions from the fields of literature history archaeology art history heritage studies and material culture brings the home more sharply into focus In this way At Home in the Eighteenth Century reveals a more nuanced and fluid concept of the eighteenth century home and becomes a steppingstone to greater understanding of domestic space for undergraduate level and beyond English Blue and White Porcelain of the Eighteenth Century Bernard Watney,1979

Eighteenth-century English Porcelain Geoffrey A. Godden,1985 Making Ideas Visible in the Eighteenth Century Jennifer Milam,Nicola Parsons,2022-01-14 This volume considers how ideas were made visible through the making of art and visual experience occasioned by reception during the long eighteenth century The event that gave rise to the collection was the 15th David Nichol Smith Seminar in Eighteenth Century Studies which launched a new Australian and New Zealand Society of Eighteenth Century Studies Two strands of interest are explored by the individual authors The first four essays work with ideas about material objects and identity formation suggesting how the artist s physical environment contributes to the sense of self as a practicing artist or artisan as an individual patron or collector or as a woman or religious outsider The last four essays address the intellectual work that can be expressed through or performed by objects Through a consideration of the material formation of concepts this book explores questions that are implicated by the need to see ideas in painted sculpted illustrated and designed forms In doing so it introduces new visual materials and novel conceptual models into traditional accounts of the intellectual history of the Enlightenment
