Economic Adjustments In New Democracies Lessons From Southern Europe:

Economic Adjustment in New Democracies D. Ethier,1997-05-29 The politics of economic adjustment in new democracies has received a lot of attention However none of the most recent examinations provide a thorough comparative analysis of Southern Europe Ethier s book fills this gap The book challenges many existing preconceptions about Southern Europe while confirming and complementing the main assertions of comparable studies on Eastern Europe Latin America Asia and Africa

Economic Adjustment in New Democracies Diane Ethier,1997 Constructing Democracy in Southern Europe Lauren M. McLaren,2008-04-08 Offers an introduction to the politics of Italy Spain and Turkey providing a comparative case study analysis of why democratization outcomes vary across the three countries Social Forces in the Making of the New Europe Andreas Bieler,2001-06-26 The main argument of this book is that the revival of European integration in the mid 1980s and the emergence of a New Europe have to be analyzed against the background of globalization and the transnational restructuring of social forces since the early 1970s The Emergence of Insurgency in El Salvador Yvon Grenier,2016-07-27 Grenier offers a better understanding of the causes of revolution in El Salvador through an analysis of the central role of ideas and ideologues The insurgency was not merely the charismatic embodiment of structurally determined processes as it is commonly suggested it was the expression of a distinct and forceful political will The focus is placed on the period of emergence of insurgency roughly the 1970s and early 1980s a period too often confounded and not only in the Salvadoran case with subsequent periods of the revolutionary cycle Bureaucracy and the Alternatives in World Perspective K. Henderson,O. Dwivedi,Timothy M. Shaw,1999-06-03 This volume seeks to explore bureaucratic forms of administration in the Third World and alternatives to them Experts with wide experience in development are assembled to deal with issues of reform indigenization and desirable futures Industrial Crisis and the Open Economy G. Underhill,2016-07-27 Written in the context of contemporary theoretical debate in international political economy this book overturns a number of myths about the political economy of trade in one of the oldest areas of industry In this way the author systematically links the changing characteristics of the trade regime to structural change and adjustment in global industry He argues that state policy processes international regimes and the industrial adjustment strategies of firms must be conceptualised as integrated processes of governance cutting across levels of analysis in the global political economy International Political Economy and Mass Communication in Chile Matt Davies,1999-04-14 This book develops an approach to international political economy that focuses on culture It examines Chilean communication scholarship as it developed under shifting political regimes and changing international political economic relations The book explains the importance of agency and culture in the political processes of building and challenging transnational hegemony emphasizing the role of intellectuals Rural Women and Triple Exploitation in Korean Development D. Gills,1999-08-02 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the unrecognized role played and burden borne by rural women during the last four decades of South Korean economic development It offers a new critical understanding of the crucial role played by rural women in the Korean economic miracle

Regulating Corporate Governance in the EU L. Horn, 2011-11-22 In the context of the financial and economic crisis corporate governance and regulatory supervision failures Laura Horn investigates one of the defining questions in social power relations in contemporary capitalism who controls the modern corporation and why

Institutional Change and the Political Transition in Hong Kong Ian Scott, 2016-07-27 Scott focuses on Hong Kong's political bureaucratic and legal institutions The first section is concerned with public opinion on institutional provisions voting systems and political parties The second deals with current problems facing the executive legislature bureaucracy and legal system The third part considers the effects of Chinese rule on the social and economic context in which Hong Kong's institutions will or will not function Scott concludes with a discussion of possible scenarios of institutional development

Designs for Democratic Stability Abdo I. Baaklini, Helen Desfosses, 2016-06-16 Since the 1980s and the collapse of communist military and race based regimes across the world the euphoria has given way to the question of how to enhance the viability of democratic constitutional government This text covers this issue

Human Rights in the Emerging Global Order K. Mills, 1998-09-14 Mills focuses on one of the most significant parts of the sovereignty debate on human rights and humanitarian issues and raises three interrelated questions First how are empirical processes and practices undermining traditional notions of sovereignty These include actions by the United Nations and other organizations on behalf of human rights such as humanitarian intervention the movements of refugees and others across the borders and increasing calls for communal self determination Second taking into account the above question and examining these issues from a normative political theory perspective what should be the relationship between individuals groups states and the international community with respect to the twin aspects of power and authority inherent in sovereignty Third what new or modified international institutions may be needed in the future to deal with these humanitarian issues

Cooperating on Competition in Transatlantic Economic Relations C. Damro, 2006-10-10 In this in depth study Damro explains the creation of a formal cooperative framework for preventing disputes in transatlantic competition policy The findings suggest that while regulators remain constrained by domestic institutions they play an important role in explaining why the cooperative framework is largely a discretionary one

Collective Action and Radicalism in Brazil Michel Duquette, Maurilio de Lima Galdino, Charmain Levy, Bérengère Marques Pereira, Florence Raes, 2005-01-01 The central topic of this book is an examination of three major recent movements within Brazil s civil society the women s movement the urban housing movement and the landless peasant movement

Economic Adjustments in New Democracies Diane Ethier, 1997

Greece in the Euro Eleni Panagiotarea, 2014-04-01 Greece banked on EMU Entry into the eurozone was its ticket to macroeconomic stability its modernisation jacket and its gateway to global markets So how did such a promising start turn to dust so quickly Was Greece the delinquent eurozone member whose fiscal downfall nearly brought down some of the world s strongest economies Or was it the first victim of the euro s system failure An original approach to understanding how national institutions affect economic performance diluting and disrupting single currency pressures for convergence and adjustment
